If no streetcar fender can be found which will prevent people from being mangled by cars, then the Portland streetcars must be equipped with air brakes to protect life.

Only With the Pianola
The supremacy of the Pianola is still more decisively emphasized by this latest and greatest improvement. The "Themodist" accomplishes the seemingly impossible and marks in the most positive manner the great superiority between the Pianola and a host of other piano players—which are, at best, but poor imitations.

"THE BRIDGE OF THE GODS"
Presented by STUDENTS PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

Two sons of prominent families may go to the rock pile at Kelly Butte unless they quickly mend their ways. At least Judge Cameron has so decreed and apparently is in earnest. In the cases of Arthur Seelye and James O'Shea, two well-known young men about town, charged with having created a disturbance in the Hotel Kenyon and abusing the landlady, Mrs. Ericson, the police magistrate yesterday fined Seelye $50 and O'Shea $75 and in addition entered a suspended sentence of 30 days' imprisonment against the defendants.

Whoooping cough, though not a very dangerous disease, often is very troublesome and trying to the little ones. In those cases Kenyon's Cough Remedy has been found of great benefit by easing the cough and shortening the disease. 30c a bottle at Bern's drug store, 212 1/2 Washington street.

CITY COUNCIL WILL PAY FOR CLERK HIRE
Everything seems to be in harmony between the city council and the civil service commission, the former yesterday appropriating $390 out of the city treasury to pay for the services of a stenographic clerk hired by the latter. Secretary McPherson will have assistance for the next six months in conducting the numerous examinations in the city departments.

THE BEST TEACHER
There is no doubt but that EXPERIENCE is the best teacher—that is—she teaches thoroughly so that one never forgets the lesson, but she often charges an awful price for tuition. The first step toward financial success is economy. One excellent way to practice economy is to profit by the experience of others. Read in your newspapers the accounts of people who have lost their savings of years by keeping them hidden around the house or buried in the garden. Then save yourself the cost of a similar lesson by depositing your hard earned dollars in this strong bank where you are assured of absolute safety. Your money will not only be safe in our savings department but will grow because of the interest we pay. OFFICERS.

FREIGHT HANDLERS MAKE NO PROGRESS
No progress has been made toward reaching a settlement of the demands made recently by the freight handlers. The latter ask for small concessions in the way of increased wages and the re-establishment of the monthly salary system, instead of the daily wage. An interview was had between a committee from the Freight Handlers' union and General Superintendent Buckley of the Harrington lines, which referred the men to J. P. O'Brien, general manager and vice-president of the Southern Pacific company. Mr. O'Brien has not yet met the committee. The committee appointed to confer with the Northern Pacific has not been able to do much because the agents here have no power to act. They merely can make their demands to the company through the agents here.

PIONEERS CAN CALL AND RECEIVE BADGES
Secretary Himes of the Oregon Historical society announces that badges may now be secured for the reunion and requests that eligible persons call at the rooms in the city hall and get them. Every man and woman who came to the Oregon country previous to and including the year 1859 is entitled to wear a badge. Every man brings inquiry relative to the reunion and notwithstanding the fact that 100 pioneers have passed away during the year, it is believed that the attendance this year will be larger than ever before.
