NO LET UP TO GOOD THINGS HERE

THE CHICAGO

THE BIG STORE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BLOCK,
69 TO 73 THIRD-BETWEEN OAK & PINE STS.

Out of the High Rent District

Not in the High Price Clique

Some one just suggested that the people are waiting for bargains. Well, then we are here to satisfy the demand. Tomorrow there will be bargains enough to please the masses. Profits will be curtailed or entirely relinquished in the interest of store crowding. We want 1,000 men to come expecting more—considerable more for the money than can be obtained in any other store in Portland, and we promise all will leave with even more than they expected.

Tomorrow to be a Banner Day at The Chicago

AND WHAT'S MORE, IT IS TO BE KEPT UP FOR ALL OF NEXT WEEK.

Where You Will, You'll Find No Values to Equal These

Truth is, this great store is overstocked; not because we've been careless in buying, not because there's been any lack of patronage, but because temptations were thrown in our way; temptations that we could not resist; $50,000 more stock than we should have at this time of the year. Much comes to us from S. L. Singer & Sons and Garson, Meyer & Co., because we had the ready cash to satisfy. Much comes from the leading makers, who demonstrated their anxiety to convert remaining stocks into funds. But no matter where they come from; they're here, at about half the price you'd have to pay under less favorable conditions. At half the price you'd have to pay us if this store was less venturesome. At half the price others must ask, do ask. Compare, investigate. Profit.

Some extremely new ideas—patterns we control exclusively—models that the most fastidious must approve. Plain weaves, and so many fancy patterns that the showing becomes almost confusing—and all the Singer and Garson-Meyer makes. Perhaps you have not given much study to the clothing of today; if not, it is well to compare these makes with any and all others. Better still, ask the wearer of one of these garments to relate his experience and you'll quickly understand that once a Singer or a Garson-Meyer garment, always one. Special price, $16.00, $18.00 and $20.00 grades.

That stand in a class by themselves, head and shoulders above the average. Pure woolsens, some America's best, some English weaves, but warp and woof wool, and satisfaction where there's a thread left to tell the tale. Tailored as only the skilled and costly artists employed by the Garson-Meyer shops can make them. Inside and out perfect in construction, for the vitals are given the same attention as the visible parts. Newspaper talk is cheap compared with facts, but investigation will satisfy the most skeptical that there is no clothing like the Garson-Meyer make. Sale price, $22.50, $25.00 and $30.00 grades.

Satisfaction or Your Money Back

YOU WANT TO KNOW That we keep pressed and repaired for an entire year any Chicago garment purchased from us. You want to know that The Chicago garments are shrunk under a patent process that prevents the trousers bagging at the knees or the coat bulging at the neck. You want to know that the button holes, the lapels, the coat fronts, are made by hand, and that The Chicago garments are the only ready-to-put-on that have the appearance of the most costly made-to-order, though the prices are half, and in this sale less than half the custom tailor's charges. Come tomorrow, if only to inspect. We've told you before that you needn't buy because you look, nor keep because you buy.

GREAT RUSH TO RAILROAD LANDS

Hundreds Claim Southern Pacific Holdings in Douglas County.

Hundreds of people are rushing onto railroad lands in Douglas county, report residents of Grants Pass and citizens of southern Oregon visiting in Portland. They are confident that the Southern Pacific will be compelled to sell these lands and are consequently hastening "to get in on the ground floor."

ANNIVERSARY OF HEPPNER FLOOD

Today, June 14, is the anniversary of the great Heppner disaster, in which many lives were lost and incalculable damage done. For several years immediately following the event, memorial exercises were held, but they have been gradually permitted to cease. It is the desire of the citizens, according to those who reside there, to let the past be forgotten as much as possible.

Flowers are sent to the little town each year, however, from various parts of the state so that the graves of those who perished may be decorated. A large number were sent from Portland this year.

RETAIL PRICE OF MILK MAY BE ADVANCED FIFTY PER CENT

In the opinion of J. W. Bailey, state food dairy commissioner, the price of milk next winter to city consumers will be advanced nearly 50 per cent. Every thing is tending toward that end and Mr. Bailey can foresee no conditions that will have an opposite effect.

"The price of feed is advancing considerably," said Mr. Bailey, "and is scarce and good milk cows are very rare. Dairy equipment and supplies have likewise advanced in cost. A year or two ago the cost of a team was about $200, while now a suitable team cannot be purchased much less than $400 or $500."

"Besides patrons are demanding better milk. With all these conditions confronting the milkman I cannot see where he is going to make a living unless the price of milk is advanced. Where milk is now sold for 40 cents a can I look for it to be sold next winter for as high as 60 cents. This will mean a price to consumers very near 10 cents a quart."

NON-DELIVERY OF RAILS CAUSES DELAY

Reconstruction of Grand Avenue Lines and Paving Held Up by Railroads.

Reconstruction of the Grand avenue lines of the Portland railway was to have started June 17, so that the paving of the thoroughfare could go right ahead. City Engineer Taylor, however, has informed Manager Fuller that the kind of rail to be laid was different from the one the company had prepared to lay next Monday so that another delay of indeterminate length will follow before the Grand avenue improvement can proceed.

The kind of rails required by the city for Grand avenue are on their way from

ASKS COMMITTEE TO EXAMINE BOOKS

City Treasurer J. E. Werlein has asked city council for the appointment of a committee of three to examine the books of his office at the close of business for the fiscal year ending June 30. The appointments were left with Mayor Lane. Mr. Werlein believes that the people should know just exactly the financial condition of the city and the condition of the treasurer's books.
