

HARRIMAN KEEPS MYSTERY ROUND HIS PLANS DARK OPERATORS STRIKE

Directors of Union Pacific Expect Government to Interfere in Fight.

ALLEGED ROCK ISLAND IS OUTSIDE RIGHTS

Fact That Two Lines Are in Active Competition Is Base of Contention That the United States Should Take a Hand in the Matter.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, June 17.—Though E. H. Harriman has given no direct information as to what course of action he would take regarding the Rock Island's summary dismissal of the Union Pacific from any share in the control of the Chicago & Alton, the public thinks he will surely retaliate for the humiliation thrust upon him. The directors of the Union Pacific road, however, have issued a statement which intimates that the Harriman party expects the federal government to interfere with Rock Island's sole control of the Chicago & Alton on the ground that the two roads are active competitors.

The members of the Rock Island party who boosted Mr. Harriman out of the Alton by arbitrarily terminating the agreement between the Union Pacific and the Rock Island, by which each was to take turns managing the Alton year in and year out until 1914, would say nothing today. They are waiting for Mr. Harriman to make the next move. Judge William H. Moore, head of the Rock Island group, will not be caught napping, his friends predict. The Rock Island people have made plans to meet a campaign of reprisals on the part of Mr. Harriman. It is said that members of the Moore party have accumulated substantial blocks of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific stock and are in a position to bring suit at any time along lines which would seriously jeopardize not only Harriman but all of his business interests in the states of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific.

TRAVELERS IN ANNUAL MEET AT NORFOLK

(Journal Special Service.)

Norfolk, Va., June 17.—More than 400 delegates representing 33 states were present this morning at the opening of the annual national convention of the Travelers Protective Association of America. In addition to the regular delegates many other members of the organization were in attendance.

The proceedings were opened at 10 o'clock this morning with an offering of prayer by the national chaplain, Rev. Homer T. Wilson of San Antonio, Texas. Governor Swanson welcomed the visitors in behalf of the state. Mayor E. H. Riddick spoke for the city of Norfolk. The response was by the national president, Thad H. Howe of Chicago. Committees were appointed and a recess was then taken for luncheon.

The business sessions began this afternoon and probably will continue until Friday or Saturday. The annual memorial exercises will be held Thursday. Between sessions the delegates will view the sights of the exposition and take part in other entertainment arranged in their honor. A large and enthusiastic delegation is here from Wisconsin with an invitation to hold the convention next year in Milwaukee.

GIFT TO HELENA OF LIBRARY SITE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Helena, Mont., June 17.—Senator Thomas H. Carter, who has just returned from Washington, brought with him a deed from Mrs. A. C. Botkin, wife of former Lieutenant-governor Botkin, to Peter Larson for the quarter block lying on Sixth avenue and between streets adjoining the residence of Governor Toole, which it is Larson's purpose to give to the city of Helena as a site for a Carnegie library. The ironmaster has made an offer of $20,000 for this purpose. Senator Carter is conducting negotiations to have this amount raised to $50,000. The lot is one of the choicest in the city. Larson is a millionaire railroad contractor who has recently made large benefactions including a $25,000 gift for the Catholic cathedral proposed to be built here.

Tacoma Business Men's Excursion.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Aberdeen, Wash., June 17.—A large excursion of the wholesale dealers of Tacoma is expected to visit the harbor next Friday. They will be suitably entertained by the business men of this place and Hoquiam.

ENORMOUS GROUP OF SUN SPOTS DISCOVERED

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 17.—An enormous group of solar spots has been observed for the first time by Professor George H. Peters of the United States naval observatory with the photo-heliograph. Said Professor Peters: "The group consists of two large spots, one of a somewhat smaller one. There are a few outlying spots. The total length of the group is 220,000 miles, its breadth is about 800,000 miles. It is nearly one tenth the apparent diameter of the sun and can be easily seen through smoked or colored glass.

"This group is in the sun's southern hemisphere in the part known as the sunspot zone, as was the enormous group announced last February."

HAGUE NOT TO ACT ON LIMITING ARMIES

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 17.—It was officially announced at the state department this afternoon that the United States delegates to The Hague conference will not bring up the question of limitation of armaments. In explanation it was stated that for nearly a year the countries of Europe have been discussing this question between themselves.

Professor Maarten, the famous Russian expert in international law, has visited every capital house and talked the matter over with the aid of foreign officials. The United States, while feeling that the subject of limitation of armaments should not be ignored, is disposed to assume the attitude of schoolmaster to the European powers.

No Inking of Real Purpose of Telegraphers' Lead Divulged.

RUMORED MEN WILL GO OUT THIS WEEK

It is Hinted That Mysterious Influences Are Being Brought to Bear Upon the Managements to Avert a Tieup.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, June 17.—Mystery is the keynote of the campaign of the Commercial Telegraphers' union in its fight to force the Western Union to grant its demands for an adjustment of differences and the payment to all operators of the 10 per cent raise promised on March 1. No inking of the real purpose of the telegraphers' lead has been divulged although there has been much guesswork. Rumors that there will be a strike called this week and that there will be no strike chased each other all day. President Small of the union would neither confirm or deny them.

Much of the mystery has arisen from the optimism of the operators, who seem absolutely confident they will gain their demands. It has been hinted that mysterious influences are to be brought to bear on the company. Some inking of what this is was shown when the board of trade and commercial clubs of Chicago appealed to President Roosevelt and President Clowry of the Western Union to do something to avert a strike on the ground that it would paralyze business.

It is also intimated that the operators propose postponing a strike until December and then making an appeal to congress. If other appeals fail, it is said the government ownership of the telegraph lines will be advocated. One report which came to the union headquarters today was that a big batch of non-union operators had been dispatched to Chicago in the belief that the men there would be called out first. The uncertainty as to where a strike is to be ordered is worrying the officials of the company. Today President Clowry issued a statement denying that the 10 per cent increase had not been paid to all operators.

TRY FRENCH FOR KILLING MARGUM

Second Trial of Breathitt County Feudist to Be Opened Today.

(Journal Special Service.)

Beattyville, Ky., June 17.—A special term of the Lee circuit court opened here today for the second trial of B. Fulton French, one of the Breathitt county feud leaders charged with the assassination of James B. Marcum. The assassination of Marcum occurred May 4, 1903. He was killed as he stood at the court house door in Jackson. Judge James Hargis, the Breathitt county feud leader, and Sheriff Ed Callahan of the same county were accused of employing Curt Jett and Tom White to do the killing. Jett was sentenced to hang, and White was given a life term in the penitentiary. A year ago Jett confessed, saying he had killed Marcum at the behest of Hargis and Callahan. He said White had nothing to do with it. However, Jett was put on the witness stand, and he then repudiated in full his confession, saying he had been forced to make it by the attorneys for the prosecution. Judge Hargis and Callahan were acquitted, while Mrs. Marcum, widow of the murdered man, swore vengeance. Later Curt Jett was given a life sentence for the assassination of James Marcum and reversal of his death sentence for killing Marcum was given a life sentence for that murder also.

Fulton French, John Smith and John Abner were charged with complicity in the assassination of Marcum, and tried here last summer on a charge of venue from Breathitt county. The jury stood eight for hanging and four for acquittal. They could not agree and were discharged. The man who is now to be tried the second time, is the former leader of his faction in the French-Eversole feud in Perry county, in which nearly one hundred were killed. French is said to be personally responsible for the deaths of more than thirty of these men. He is now a lawyer and lives at Winchester with his family.

SALVADOR'S REVOLT ENDS WITHOUT LOSS

(Journal Special Service.)

Mexico City, June 17.—Senor Delgado, minister of Salvador to Mexico, in an interview declares that while his country might form an alliance with any other republic in Central America when convenient, it is not and never will be a mere offshoot of another.

One of President Zelaya's agents in this city received a cable dispatch last night from Managua, saying the revolution was at an end, and that, owing to the mobilization order by President Figueroa, the leaders of the revolution had decided to retreat, which they did in good order.

The dispatch adds that not a man was lost, nor was one of the 5,000 rifles captured.

ABRUZZI TO VISIT CANADA.

(Journal Special Service.)

Ottawa, Canada, June 17.—Preparations are being made for the official reception of the Duke of Abruzzi, who is expected to arrive at Quebec within the next few days with the fleet of Italian warships he commands. While he comes on no official mission he will be received with all the honors due to a member of the royal family of Italy. It is expected he will visit Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and possibly one or two other cities of Canada.
