Up still another notch for Portland! Did you ever see a bunch of ball players jump into form as suddenly as those Beaver men? And every twirler in the lot is included. Califf held down the mound yesterday in his best 1906 style and the men behind him put up as pretty a game as you could find in a fortnight's ride.

The result was that Oakland got a long line of 9's on the scoreboard, while Portland tallied twice. Califf had the visitors guessing all the time, and when the hits were added up it was found that he had allowed but two, both of which were lined out by Truck-Horse Egan, the terror of Coast league pitchers.

Bill Reidy rolled them down the alley for Oakland and only six safe bingles were chipped off him. In the first inning he was a bit wild, striking Mott and Donahue, but he pulled out the inning without a score and after that there were no easy ways to get to first for the Beavers.

Bassey scored the first run. After Califf's out in the third, Bassey went to first on Oakland's lone error, a passed grounder by Bigbee, stole second and made the circuit on Casey's liner through Reidy. Carson made the second score in the fourth. McCredie beat a bunt to first, went second on Moore's sacrifice, but was caught between second and third on Carson's grounder to the play, however. Schimpff hit a two-bagger along the left foul line and the bell ringing was over. Here is the official score:

NOTES OF THE GAME

Now for another percentage fatterer. Kinsealla is due to twirl again for Portland.

Except for Mott's muffed foul, the Beavers played an errorless game yesterday. It's a shame to have to give that error to Mott. Portland's third baseman ran far and fast for the twirler from Dashwood's bat. He got it at full speed and then dropped it. A less spirited attempt would not have reached the ball and no error would have been given.

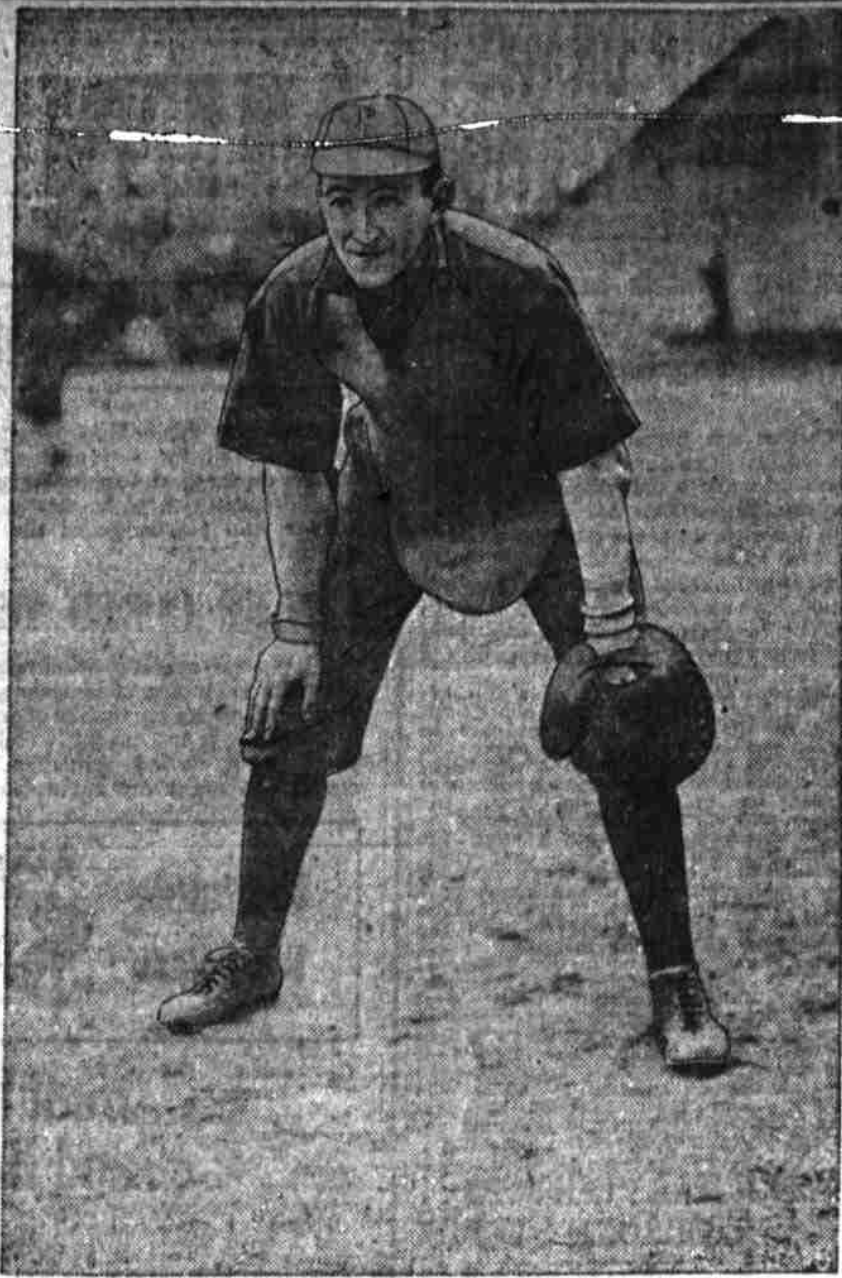

McCredie made a great throw from the right field fence in the second inning, catching Egan trying to stretch a base hit into a two-bagger. Egan said afterward that McCredie is the best thrower in the league. "Truck" ought to know, for he has hit more long flies and compelled more long throws than any other player in the league. With the avenger Egan would have reached second easily, but the leather beat him to Casey by several feet.

Califf broke up a double steal in pretty style yesterday. It was in the eighth inning, with Dashwood on third and Devereaux on first. "Brick" started for second. More tossed the ball back to Califf and Devereaux hesitated between bases to draw a throw. Califf made as if to throw to second, then turned in a flash and shot the ball to Mott, catching Dashwood and retiring the side.

Schimpff is playing a great game nowadays. He had a few chances at short and made good on all of them, all of the plays being very prettily executed. Schimpff is so fast on his feet and lines his throws so beautifully that he quickly becomes a favorite when playing good ball. In the early part of the season he was extremely erratic, but this might be explained by the fact that he is very young and new to Coast league company. A player a few years older, who made as many errors as Schimpff did on May 24, for instance, might be thrown on the scrap heap as irrevocably unreliable, but a youth, may steadily down and never do it again. The rate Schimpff has been going during the past week he has a great future before him. He still lacks confidence at the bat, however, and though he seems to be improving, he should get all the practice he can at this and try to shine at it as well as in the field.

THERE ARE FEW people who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. Hepatins will keep it in condition. C. C. Simpson, Albu, Texas, writes: "I have used Hepatins for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe. Sold by all druggists."

MOTORISTS ARE PRACTICING FOR TWO DAYS' RACE MEETING

Things are coming on nicely for the Barney Oldfield race meet, scheduled for next Saturday and Sunday, afternoons on the Irvington track. Bruno Siebel, Oldfield's flying partner, took a look at the track yesterday afternoon and pronounced it far better than the Seattle track, where faster than a mile a minute here, as that is called for in the contract. The only fault at Irvington, he says is a lack of sufficient banking at the turns. A number of automobiles and motorcycles whose owners will enter them in the races were out last night trying their speed on the track. Billy Barker sent Harry Litt's Little Six Stevens-Duryea a mile in 1:19 4-5, which, considering the class of the car, is very fast. The record for that class of car is said to be 1:18. Siebel held the watch.

In the Oldfield race meet at Everett a dog got on the track at a very inopportune moment and Oldfield, who was in the lead, ran over it, cutting the animal entirely in two and putting a big dent in the front part of the car. Siebel struck one half of the dog and nearly lost control of his machine. Extra precautions will be taken next Saturday and Sunday to keep the spectators at a safe distance from the track to prevent casualties in case one of the speed demons should lose control of his machine.

JOHNNY SUMMERS AND YOUNG ERNE TONIGHT
(Journal Special Service.)
Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—Johnny Summers, the little English fighter who recently fought such a sensational bout in this city, will have his second try-out at the National Athletic club tonight. His opponent is to be Young Erne, one of the best fighters at his weight in the east. According to the articles of agreement the two will weigh in at 130 pounds at 6 o'clock. The winner probably will be matched to fight Jimmy Baldwin before Tom O'Rourke's club.

Dan Bellinger.
McAlpin was not in his best form. Moreover, Bellinger played an exceedingly pretty game. By putting a strong twist on the ball he made it hard to handle in the back court, and as a back court drive is McAlpin's strong suit, he was easily beaten. Bellinger will next play Northron, who is one of the best men in the tournament, and the match should be a great one. The men will meet on almost equal terms, Bellinger owing 2-6. One other match was played yesterday. Ewing (owe 15 1-6) beat Ames (scratch), 4-8, 6-1, 6-1. The entries for the Irvington tournament, which begins next Saturday, will close tonight.

Spokane will not, however, have an easy snap in this event, as the Olympic club of San Francisco, Multnomah and the S. A. C. will all compete.

The Spokane entries, 10 in number and high in quality, are as follows:
C. Edmunston—440-yard run, 880-yard run and relay.

C. W. Martin—100-yard dash, 220-yard run and relay.

Morgan Adams—Pole vault and high jump.

O. A. Thome—Mile and half mile runs and relay.

E. Johnson—Mile and half mile runs and relay.

Clarence Cool—Mile and half mile runs and relay.

George W. Philbrick—120-yard hurdles, 220-yard hurdles, jump and discus throw.

Ingils is having the track put in good condition and it is being widened so that more athletes may compete in each heat than has heretofore been possible. Light earth is being mixed with the cinders and this will be wet and rolled and will make a fine course.
