

DEFEAT OVER NORTHERN PRESIDENT'S MEN MOST PRESIDENT'S MEN

Scandal Develops That Will Probably Result in an Open Fight.

ROOSEVELT CHARGED WITH PACKING HOUSE

Counter Accusations Are Made by Administration Men—Texans Demand Representation and Are Turned Down.

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, June 19.—The land convention which threatens the convention with an open fight with the probable ousting of the Roosevelt sympathizers. As organized the convention is controlled by the anti-administration men. Through them Secretary Johnson of Denver charges that the convention was packed this morning by bogus delegates by Mark Woodruff, superintendent of the forests. Colonel Wood of the credentials committee is charged with giving tickets to men not delegates.

Congressman Frank Mondell.

INVESTIGATOR OF S. P. GRANT HERE

Government Attorney From North Dakota Will Assist in Breaking Monopoly.

B. D. Townsend of Fargo, North Dakota, who was appointed by Attorney-General Bonaparte to assist United States Attorney William C. Bristol in the investigation of the Southern Pacific land grants, arrived in Portland this afternoon and will enter upon his duties as soon as he receives his instructions from Washington and upon Mr. Bristol's return from Denver, where he is attending the land convention. Mr. Townsend had little to say concerning his work in Portland, stating that he knew nothing except what he had read in the newspapers. He said that he had been ordered to report in Portland, where his papers and records would be forwarded to him. Mr. Townsend is the assistant United States attorney of North Dakota and was sent to Oregon in place of Nathan V. Harlan who was first appointed by Mr. Roosevelt to investigate the land grants. Mr. Townsend will remain in Portland until he has completed his investigation of the work the department of justice has planned for him. He is at the Portland hotel.

BISHOP SCADDING VISITING MISSIONS

Confirmation and Services Arranged Throughout Coos Bay District Cover Sixteen Days.

The Right Rev. Charles Scadding, D. D. bishop of Oregon, left Portland this morning for his annual visitation of the missions at Coos bay. His appointments for confirmation and missionary services are as follows: June 19, Dundas, June 21, Gardner, morning and evening; June 22, Marshfield, morning and evening; June 23, Marshfield, morning and evening; June 24, St. John Baptist day; June 25, Marshfield, morning and evening; June 26, Coquille City, morning and evening; June 27, Port Orford, morning and evening; June 28, Beach, morning and evening; June 29, Port Orford; July 1, Bandon, morning and evening; July 2, Eugene, morning and evening; July 3, Eugene, morning and evening; July 4, Newport, morning and evening; July 5, Newport, morning and evening; July 6, Toledo, afternoon. The bishop cordially invites the townspeople, ranchers and farmers, whether members of the Episcopal church or not, to attend these services, and he has arranged for the mentioned dates and places and will be glad to meet them personally at the close of the service.

DEVIL WAGONS MOW TWO PEOPLE DOWN

Lawrence Lickel and Mrs. Arthur King Receive Injuries From Speeding Automobiles.

While leading his disabled bicycle along Linnton road last night five miles from this city, Lawrence Lickel of 422 North Twenty-first street was knocked down and perhaps fatally injured by an auto driven by G. Van Alstine. Lickel now lies at the Good Samaritan hospital suffering from a fracture of the skull and his condition is most critical. To Deputy District Attorney Jones and Sheriff Stevens, Lickel made a statement exonerating Van Alstine from all blame. At the county jail today the surgeons announce that Lickel is improving and give it as their opinion that he will recover.

HAY HARVEST BEGINS TODAY AT GERVAIS

Gervais, Or., June 19.—There has been a marked change in the weather here the past two days and today it is very warm and the indications are it will continue so. Haying will commence here today, as the clover fields are now over ripe and the general hay crop is almost ready for the harvest. There will be a full average crop in this section, although there is considerable still on hand from the 1906 crop.

RICHARD G. GIFFIN'S PENALTY TIRES OF WIFE IS POSTPONED

Man Disappears With Pretty Sister of Spouse—Charged With Desertion.

(Journal Special Service.) San Bernardino, Cal., June 19.—Richard Griffin, well known in this city, Los Angeles and the coast towns has disappeared. As a coincidence his pretty sister-in-law, Miss Florence Warren, has also dropped from sight. Griffin left a note for his wife, explaining that he had decided to call their marriage compact off. The disappearance of the couple and the receipt of the letter by the deserted wife took her post haste to the district attorney's office, where she obtained a warrant for the arrest of her husband, charging abandonment of their two minor children.

NOTED WOMAN ARTIST DOES ORIENTAL DANCE

Ethel Watts Mumford Grant Creates Sensation at a Bohemian Kimona Party.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, June 19.—Mrs. Ethel Watts Mumford Grant, as she is now, Mrs. Grant, the well-known authoress, artist and wit, is credited with causing a sensation by her oriental dances at a kimona party given last night by Edna Russell at her studio here. Mrs. Grant received her numerous guests arrayed in a bejeweled state kimona presented through the looked superb. Her dancing was to the music of the tom-tom beaten by a charming young girl, Mrs. Mumford-Grant danced two dances of oriental gliding, sensuous creations with such grace, it was the sensation of the evening.

MAN HELD HER AND HIS WIFE BEAT HER

Extraordinary Style of Assault and Battery of Which Portland Woman Is Victim.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Lebanon, Or., June 19.—Mrs. Woolsey, who lives seven miles east of Lebanon, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Grant Bellinger and his wife for assaulting her daughters, Lillian Woolsey, aged 15, and Mrs. Perkins, whose home is at Portland. Mrs. Woolsey's daughter, Lillian, is being held through Bellinger's pasture, which Bellinger had forbidden them to do. Bellinger, seeing them, caught Mrs. Perkins and her daughter, Mrs. Bellinger proceeded to beat her with a club. Mrs. Woolsey says Mrs. Perkins was beaten badly and a physician had to be called. The Bellingers' side of the case has not yet been heard.

ONE MORE DROWNED MAN AT THE DALLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., June 19.—The body of a man was found floating in the river this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The clothes had been stripped nearly off by the action of the water. A leather belt was around the body. The shoes were heavy and hob-nailed on the soles. An open-faced watch was in the pocket of his shirt. It has a gold-filled case and a leather link chain. His hands were broken. Roman letters are on the dial instead of numerals. The man appeared to be about 30 years of age, was 5 feet 6 inches high, had a high complexion, brown hair and smooth-shaved face. The body had been in the water 10 or 12 days. No papers were on the body.

ROADS MUST KEEP RECORDS OF CARS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., June 19.—All railroads within the state will be required to adopt a record of car applications and car distribution to remedy the large number of complaints from small shippers in the matter of freight and shipping. The new system is to become effective July 1, 1907, an order being made to that effect by the state railway commission. A set of rules has been drafted by the commission which are similar to those adopted some time ago by the Washington state railway commission.

SOUTHERN FRANCE IS PREPARING FOR WAR

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, June 19.—Southern France is in a state of turmoil and troops are being rushed into every province with the greatest speed. The winegrowers are inciting riot and the overthrow of the central government and wholesale arrests of mayors, and other officials have been ordered. At Narbonne last night an attempt was made to arrest the leader of the winegrowers' revolt, and the mayor, which resulted in the assembling of a mob and the hasty construction of barricades from iron girders, for resistance to a cavalry charge. Signal arrangements have been made to summon the entire countryside in the event of a battle.

COLORADO SUICIDE IS NOT SIMPKINS

(Journal Special Service.) Fort Collins, Colo., June 19.—The coroner today failed to identify the body on the bottom of Cuesta grade, Simpkins, connected with the Haywood case.

TEN THOUSAND MEN USED TO ARREST ONE

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, June 19.—M. Fauriol, head of the winegrowers' revolt, was arrested today by 10,000 soldiers. The growers are planning a battle with the army near the bottom of Cuesta grade, which is expected.

FREIGHT CARS ARE BURNED IN WRECK

(Journal Special Service.) Salinas, Cal., June 19.—A Southern Pacific north bound freight train was wrecked near Santa Margarita, last night near the bottom of Cuesta grade. After being ditched the cars took fire and eight were consumed.

ORCHARD'S STORY IS CONTRADICTED

Pettibone's Letter to Sterns Is Sprung as Surprise in Haywood Case.

BAY CITY LANDLADY TELLS OF EXPERIMENT

Florence Soward, With Whom Orchard Roomed While at San Francisco, Corroborated Tale of Assassin's Work There.

(By John Nevins.) Boise, Ida., June 19.—Pettibone's letter to John L. Sterns, general agent of the Mutual Life Insurance company at Denver, asking that no more of his men be employed as agents, was sprung as a surprise, as Orchard testified he had secured a position with the company at the request of Pettibone, who warmly recommended him. Sterns also contradicted Orchard who said he first got the job then told Vaughn about it. Sterns declared both men came together and were employed at the same time in the same office. He considered the Pettibone letter a joke.

BOOTHS WILL BE ELABORATE

Ladies in Charge of Refreshment Stands at Forestry Building Are Ready.

Elaborate preparations have been made by the Traveler's Aid department of the Y. W. C. A., which has the concession for refreshments at the Forestry building. Beautiful booths have been erected and the ladies in charge have been vying with each other to obtain the most attractive effects. One of the most striking is the oriental tea garden, in charge of Mrs. Andrew Kan and her helpers, who will serve tea and cakes in true eastern style. The candy booth is under the charge of the ladies of St. David's church, under the direction of Mrs. Van Waters. Coffee, sandwiches and salad will be served at the booth presided over by Mrs. Charles Baisey and Mrs. Patterson.

SHOOTS AT HIS WIFE'S VISITOR

Presbyterians Stand United

Event Made Possible by the Action Taken at Recent Meeting at Columbus.

C. H. Reynolds, proprietor of the Portland Bath rooms at Second and Washington streets, fired five shots at a man who was visiting with Mrs. Reynolds this afternoon at the Reynolds home, 156 Fourteenth street.

PATRICK BERRY BUYS LARGE SIZED TRACT

For $10,500 Title Is Secured to 100 by 100 Feet on South Side of Flanders Street.

CELEBRATE OPENING OF ELECTRIC LINE

Citizens of Fairview are arranging a dinner to be given to some of the officials of the Oregon Water Power & Railway company next Saturday noon at Fairview, in celebration of completion of the electric railway from Portland to Fairview and Troutdale. It is expected that the road will be opened regularly for traffic next Saturday or Sunday.

SWEDISH BAPTISTS EXPRESS APPROVAL

Swedish Baptists of Portland at the annual church meeting held in the First Swedish Baptist church last Sunday expressed their approval of the enforcement of the Sunday closing law by adopting the following resolution:

BREACH OF CONTRACT ALLEGED

The suit of Rea Brothers, of Montana, against S. B. Barker, of Condon, to recover $1,000 on an alleged breach of contract was begun this afternoon in the United States circuit court, the complainant alleges that Rea Brothers agreed to deliver 6,000 sheep to Barker, who refused to accept them upon delivery.

ORCHARD'S STORY IS CONTRADICTED

Pettibone's Letter to Sterns Is Sprung as Surprise in Haywood Case.

BAY CITY LANDLADY TELLS OF EXPERIMENT

Florence Soward, With Whom Orchard Roomed While at San Francisco, Corroborated Tale of Assassin's Work There.

(By John Nevins.) Boise, Ida., June 19.—Pettibone's letter to John L. Sterns, general agent of the Mutual Life Insurance company at Denver, asking that no more of his men be employed as agents, was sprung as a surprise, as Orchard testified he had secured a position with the company at the request of Pettibone, who warmly recommended him. Sterns also contradicted Orchard who said he first got the job then told Vaughn about it. Sterns declared both men came together and were employed at the same time in the same office. He considered the Pettibone letter a joke.

ST. FRANCIS GRADS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Exercises Held Last Night Before a Large Audience in the Academy Hall.

Graduating exercises of St. Francis academy were held before a large audience last night at Academy hall, East Twelfth and Oak streets. The members of the class rendered a musical and literary program that was heartily enjoyed by those in attendance.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR NEW LIBRARY

Committee of East Side Residents Will Raise Funds for the Structure.

Plans for raising funds with which to erect the proposed branch library on the quarter block at East Eleventh and East Alder streets recently donated for the purpose were discussed last night at a meeting of east side residents on East Morrison street.

COLLEGE GRADUATES TO PLAY AT ACTING

Out-of-Doors Rendition of "As You Like It" Scheduled for Tonight.

The outdoor production of "As You Like It" by the Oregon branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, will be given tonight and will be one of the social events of the spring. The rehearsals have brought out some excellent talent among the players and the production, it is promised, will be entirely satisfactory.

LEBANON YOUNG MAN CHARGED WITH CRIME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Lebanon, Or., June 19.—L. H. Jackson, a farmer living six miles west of here, has caused the arrest of John Buchanan, the 19-year-old son of one of his neighbors. The charge is criminal assault on Jackson's 14-year-old daughter, Young Buchanan was brought before the justice of the peace here, waived examination, and was held to the circuit court in bonds of $1,000, which he gave.

INDIAN COMES TO GRIEF

George Marshall, an Indian living on the Umatilla Indian reservation, was brought to Portland this morning and placed in the county jail on a charge of horse stealing.

JURY AWARDS LARGE SUM

Andrew Carlson, a longshoreman, was awarded $2,000 by a jury in the United States circuit court against the San Francisco & Portland Steamship company for a broken ankle. Carlson was working on September 25, 1906, while working on the steamer El Paul, which was afterward wrecked on the Oregon coast. Carlson alleged in his complaint that he was permanently injured and that he has been unable to work since the accident occurred.

Indian Comes to Grief

George Marshall, an Indian living on the Umatilla Indian reservation, was brought to Portland this morning and placed in the county jail on a charge of horse stealing.