WEATHER REPORT

No reports were received this morning from the States east of the Bocky mountains. The barometer is rising over the north Pacific states, and a low pressure area is contral over northern Arizona. A light thunder shower occurred here last night, and light rain has fallen in Nevada, eastern Washington and Idaho. The temperature has fallen decidedly in eastern Oregon and southern Idaho, and a light frost occurred this morning at Baker City and Boise.

Indications are for fair and warmer weather tomorrow in this district, with frosts again in eastern Oregon and southern Idaho.
