The Finn will be the second Russian steamer to come here this year, the Selenga having been dispatched from this port a few weeks ago with a cargo of wheat and flour in the Frank Waterhouse line. The Selenga differs much from the Finn in that she belonged to one of the Black Sea ports, whereas the Finn belengs to the Baltic merchantmarine. She is in command of Captain Olson.

Olson.

It was also announced that the French ship St. Luois has left New-castle, Australia, for this port with a cargo of coal. She is the ninth coal ship to be announced this season, although it is said on what is considered good authority that fully eightsen coal cargoes will be brought here from Australia this season. Even with this large quantity of coal coming out it is feared that the fuel problem will be difficult to solve.

Every warship carries a mascot of some kind, but the Charleston being practically a new vessel, has so far had to be contented with the little spaniel that strayed aboard one day in the harbor of San Diego. He is a little too common, however, to make good and will be advanced to the position of "honorary" when the real live grizzly bear arrives upon the scene. The tars are as anxious for the grizzly as little children are for Teddy bears and his first appearance will be marked by a grand ovation.

The old Charleston, which was lost on the coast of one of the Philippine group in a storm four years ago, carried two goats as mascots, but they died a few months before the loss of the vessel from partaking too ravenously of a meal of green paint and old newspapers.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Sailors of Warships Have Pleasant Time at Institute.

The entertainment given at the Seamen's institute, 100 Front street, Thursday night, was a grand success. Nearly day night, was a grand success. Nearly 50 members of the crews of the cruiser Charleston and the torpedo boat Paul Jones were present upon special invitation from Rev. A. E. Bernays, chaplain of the institute.

A splendid program was rendered under the direction of Chaplain A. W. Stone, Warship Machinist Fred H. Ingram and Chief Boatswain James Laven of the Charleston. The stage was prettily decorated with the stars and stripes and the flag of the institute. Refreshments in the shape of cigars and candy were served during Hillsdale Michigan July 16, 1821. In

(Special Dispetch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., June 22.—The bodies of Leroy Miller and Ernest Ewers, which were found floating in the Columbia river near here, have been sent to relatives of the drowned men in the east. Ewers' mother lives at Casey, Iowa. Miller and Ewers were with the Roberts surveying party and were drowned about ten days ago. A raft on which they were carrying a line was drawn under in a whirlpool.

ABERDEEN AUTOISTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Aberdeen, Wash., June 22.—An ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles in the city limits was presented at the last meeting of the city council. It caused considerable discussion and was finally referred to the street committee. The almost daily increasing number of automobiles on the streets and the reckless driving of some who handle them makes the passage of some such ordinance a necessity for the safety of the public. Death of Mrs. Edmiston. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 22.—Mrs. Jennie Edmiston, wife of Harry M. Edmiston, died yesterday after a long battle with consumption. The body will be shipped to McMinnville, her former home, for interment. She was 30 years of age.
