SPOKANE PREPARES FOR THE B. Y. P. U.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash., June 24.—Great preparations are being made for the reception of the delegates to the Baptist Young reople's Union convention, which meets here July 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Seven thousand banners have been made and are to be sold out around the city to decorate with while the convention is in session. Nearly all the stores are counting on magnificent decorations, both exterior and interior. Especial efforts will be made to have the show windows exhibit the resources of the west. The banners cost 10 cents each and some stores have taken 100 of them.

Work on the Armory is being rushed with all possible speed and it is thought it will be nearly enough complete to be used by the time the convention meets, sithough the finishing touches will be lacking.

It has had to fight the Mincowners' association from the start, and has done it wherever it has gone. The organization has met stubborn resistance in some instances. The president of the union has met stubborn resistance in some instances. The president of the union was refused food at the beheat of the mincowners. One of the chief means to destroy the union has been the hiring of Pinkertons.

They have made detectives of officers of the unions, so that when a strike occurred they could urge violence and incite the members to lawliesmens. Shander, abuse and villification was also used. Every deed of violence was charged to them, indiscriminately, even the tampering with machinery where fatal accidents had occurred, when the evidence really showed that the cause was cheap and improper machinery."

Resuming after a recess Darrow explained at length the time when the purposes for which they were organized the tend decounced the military necessity, and declared the military defied the citic authorities and kept him for months a prisoner without reason.
