ADJOINING FIDMONT. About 125 acres, lying directly along the Vancouver road, mostly well within the established city limits. The greater part of this property is well worth $1,500 per acre for building purposes, and the remainder has a magnificent future for manufacturing purposes, being surrounded by the Swift holdings. We give an absolutely clear title to this property and you are not bothered up in any manner whatever. We also have 45.5 acres directly adjoining this acreage on the east and lying immediately on Vancouver carline. This whole piece is in the cream of the Love farm, and there is positively no other property of its size that will equal it for plating purposes. It won't last long; better get busy.

Valuations in Washington Looming Up as Political Issue.

COMMISSION'S TABLES CONCLUSIVE IN LAW

Situation Will Be Worked Into State Politics Next Year—Some Arguments of Those Who Will Use It in the Campaign.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Olympia, Wash., June 27.—There are indications that the radical element in Washington state politics will attempt to make a leading campaign issue next year of the results obtained by the railroad commission in the present railroad valuation hearing. The recent publication of the figures obtained for Seattle, showing approximately $50,000,000 valuation of the terminal grounds alone exclusive of improvements, for the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Puget Sound & Columbia railroads, has aroused a protest against the fixing of freight rates on any such valuation of railroad properties.

Commission's Figures Mead. The valuation findings of the commission, in accordance with the law of 1907, will become "admissible in evidence in any proceeding or hearing in which the public and the railroad affected thereby is interested, and such findings, when so introduced, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in such finding or findings, as of the date of filing such facts can only be controverted or contradicted by showing a subsequent change in conditions bearing upon the facts therein determined." Senator Cotterill and his followers and supporters in this new movement contend that the actual value of railroad properties in Seattle, for strictly railroad purposes, ought not to go beyond $5,000,000, and certainly not to more than $10,000,000. Including the properties of the Union Pacific and Milwaukee & St. Paul, neither of which is included in the railroad commission's valuation returns.

Measurings Monstrous. It is also contended that these terminal lands were secured largely by the railroads as a bonus, or at nominal value, and that to come in now and appraise them at the very top of the real estate market, on a value fixed by Harriman and Ewing when they were obliged to carve their way through expensive blocks at "square foot" rates under conditions which insisted all neighboring values 100 to 1,000 per cent, will have the direct result of burdening the people with excessive rates. It is pointed out that in Seattle alone this difference in value will give the railroads nearly $2,000,000 net revenue annually if they are allowed 6 per cent income on values. Thus there are Tacoma, Spokane, Everett, Bellingham and other places where similar conditions prevail.

Cheap Title Lands With the Best. It is charged that fully two thirds of the title lands owned by the railroads at now in Seattle were acquired with scarcely any outlay, and that if the railroad commission now fastens boom values on this property with the object of allowing roads reasonable returns on such values, then the commission will be held responsible for an unwarranted freight rate that will take millions of dollars annually out of the pockets of the shippers and consumers of the state of Washington.

YALE AND HARVARD DIVIDE THE HONORS

Former Captures Varsity Fours and Latter Takes the Freshman Eights in Regatta.

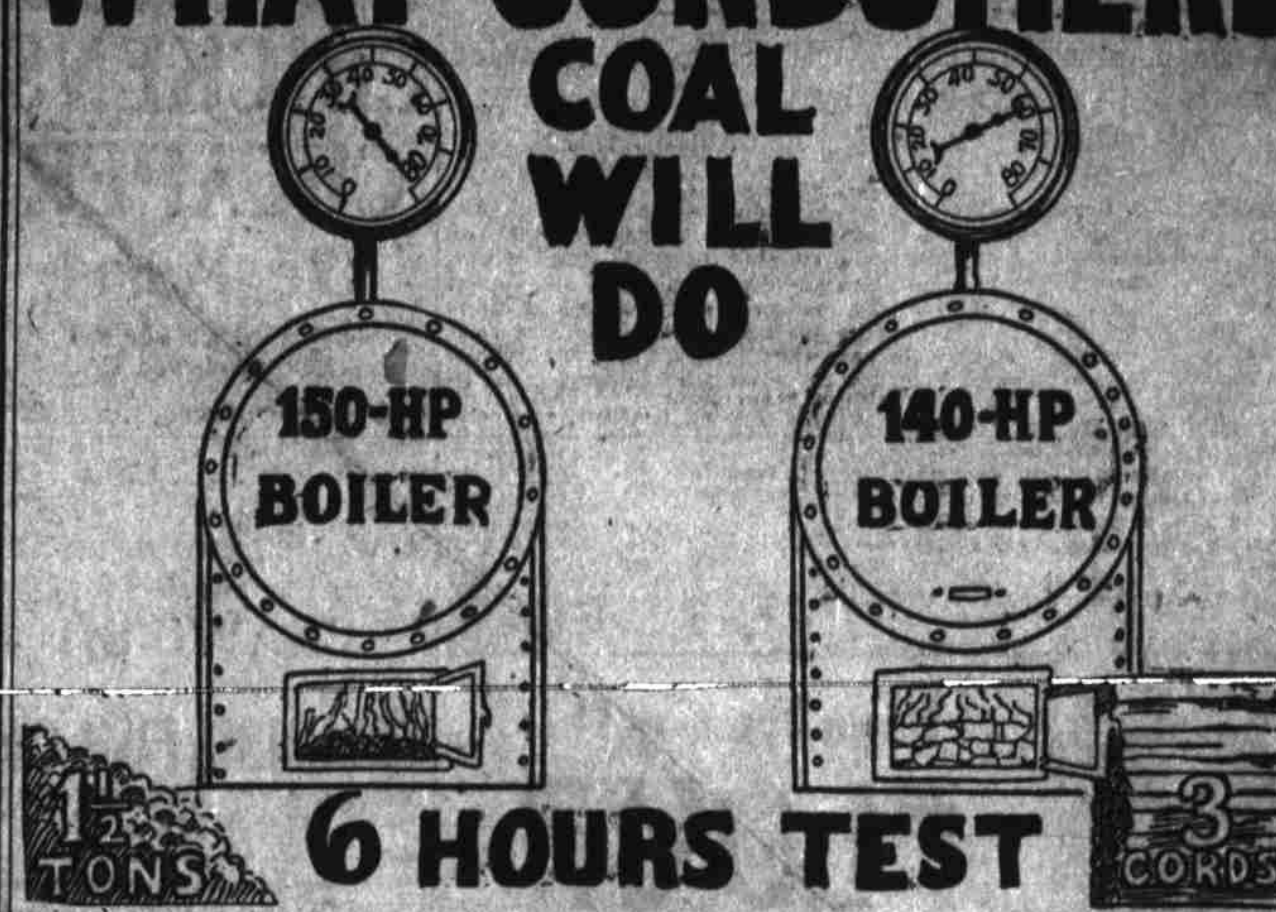

(Journal Special Service.) New London, Conn., June 28.—The "varsity" fours and the freshmen eights raced here this morning, ending the annual Yale-Harvard regatta on the Thames. The two institutions divided honors, Yale winning the "varsity" four, Harvard capturing the freshmen event. The four oared race was one-sided, Yale winning by 14 lengths in 12:13. The freshmen race was close, Harvard winning by less than a length in 11:15. Both races were rowed upstream.

SPLENDED PORTRAYAL OF OUTDOOR LIFE

A wealth of outdoor life is portrayed, both in photographs and text matter, in the outing number of Pacific monthly for July. The issue is full of "hot weather" articles, the kind that can be enjoyed both by the man at home and the one whittling away the days in his favorite hunting or fishing resort. A generous parcel of delightful tales and illustrations uphold to the reader the attractiveness of the Pacific coast from British Columbia to Los Angeles and westward to Catalina and Sandwich islands.

Two striking features of the number are the colored plates, "The Domesticated Indian," seen on the Western Springs reservation, by Mrs. Fanny van Dusen, and "Some Views of the Clackamas River," from photographs by O. Freytag. Both excel in their respective lines, and tell a story which otherwise could not be told in many printed pages. James L. Hopper contributes "Carmelita," and there are other articles by well known western writers.

WHAT CONSUMERS COAL WILL DO

THE above illustration vividly shows the results of an ACTUAL STEAM TEST made at the STAR BREWERY at Vancouver, Washington, last Wednesday. It disproves every accusation that has been made to the effect that this coal will not burn. IT WILL BURN! IT BURNS FAR BETTER THAN DRY FIR WOOD, TO SAY NOTHING ABOUT "GREEN FIR SLABS." ONE AND A HALF TONS OF COAL were used in this test as against THREE CORDS OF FIR WOOD. The coal was used in connection with a boiler producing ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY HORSEPOWER, while the wood was used with a ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY HORSEPOWER BOILER. The coal was burned in a WOOD GRATE, another tremendous disadvantage. Every minute, during a TEST LASTING SIX HOURS, the steam-gauge showed that the COAL PRODUCED AN AVERAGE OF FIFTEEN POUNDS MORE STEAM PRESSURE THAN THE WOOD, EVEN UNDER THE DISADVANTAGES. Many times during the test the difference IN FAVOR OF THE COAL was shown to be TWENTY POUNDS, as indicated by the gauges shown above.

Sacks of Coal We Gave Away Are Giving Excellent Results to Everybody

Within a few days we will begin the publication of letters from people who took advantage of our free offer of a sack of coal. They are beginning to come in, and we have not yet received a letter that does not commend the coal. Nearly everybody tells us that the coal is the best they have ever used since they came to Portland. We are also in receipt of scores of orders from these people to reserve for them a sufficient supply of this coal for their winter use. Consumers Coal is one of the best investments on the market today, and will not be purchasable very much longer. Monday the directors will meet to decide whether to withdraw the stock altogether. This may be your last opportunity to take advantage of our free excursions. Get your tickets early. Number limited.
