Miss Huby Crichton gave a pretty tea Friday afternoon in compliment to Miss Shirley Eastham, who has just returned from Briar Cliff. Miss Chrichton was a graduate this year from the Portland Academy and her guests were the girls of her class. 'The rooms were decorated of her class. The rooms were decorated with La France roses. Her guests were Miss Shiriey Eastham, Miss Ellambeth Stewart, Miss Helen Streit, Miss Nora Stewart, Miss Sadie Jackson, Miss Clara Weidler, Miss Allce Forbes, Miss Ce-leste Moore, Miss Mamie Dunne, Miss Louise Small, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Minses Gertrude and Alice Robbins. Miss Ada Burke, Miss Gladys Ross, Miss Pansy Sweetser, Miss Linley Morton, Miss Queen Moreland, Miss Emily Cros-sen and Miss Jean Brownile. * * Mrs. Curtis Holcomb of 216 Sellwood atreet gave a tea Thursday afternoon in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Edward M. Cousin, who has just returned from Mexico City. The drawing-room and dining-room were Gecorated with pink roses, and the reception hall with crim-roses, and the reception hall with crimson rambler. Mrs. Holcomb wore a pink pompadour silk gown, and Mrs. Cousin were not present, were Mrs Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell and IE warm June days seem to have robbed the society leaders of most of their energy and the week has been a quiet one. Most of the activity has been among the real young people who have filled in their time with boating parties, and eas and dinners in compliment to their members who have returned from col and college for the vacation. The House that Jack Built," which

, Mrs. P. J. Ma

"The House that Jack Built," which is to be built at the Marquam this week is monopolising much of the time and old. The young people have put in some time almost every day making roses for the operetta and have had pleasant social times over the construc-tion. The older ones have been busy rehearsing the children and lending their aid in one way and another in respect to staging the play and coe-tuming the participants. The operetta will doubtless he one of the most popu-iar events of the week.

Abe Tichner entertained with a on of 14 covers Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Philip Metschan, who will leave with Mr. Metschan and their daughters, Pansy and Lillian, in July for a trip abroad. The table was pretty with an artificial pond in the center, with an artificial pond in the center, on which rested an ocean liner completely equipped. The table was decorated beautifully in pink and white. The fa-vors were small suitcases, hampers, satchels, traveling bags, kodaks and other articles suggestive of travel. After luncheon whist was played, and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and Mrs. E. W. Crichton won the prises. The hall was transformed into a tropical surden, where Parsons' orchestra played. The drawing room was decorated with crim-son ramblers, and the sitting-room with scarlet geraniums.

the summer. Many of her preparatory school friends were invited in for the

* *

IF YOU WANT TO SEE THE NEWEST IN WEARING APPAREL VISIT THE STYLE STORE.

EXTRAORDINARY PRICE REDUCTIONS ON SILK SUITS

In commemoration of the Glorious Fourth we will make the three days prior to its cele-bration an event in price reductions long to be remembered by all who will participate in this special sale.

SILK SUITS

In all this season's most favorite styles, the smartest creations and prettiest shades will be placed on sale for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at one-half (and less) their regular value.

Princess Jumper Suits with or without sleeves, beautifully made and trimmed; values up to $26.00-Special dur- $12.25 Eton Suits, elaborately trimmed and smartly designed; values up to $50.00 $28.00 --Special during this sale.... Fancy Shirt Waist Suits, extremely fashionably featured; values up to $18.00 $34.00- Special during sale... High Tailored White Serge Suits, Eton style, tastefully trimmed and finished; values up to $40.00-Special dur- $18 ing this sale...... Eton Coats, three-fourth length and Kimo-no sleves; values up to $18.00 White and colored Washable Summer Suits, values $6.50-Special during this sale JJ.I Alterations will be made free of charge. Purchases will be charged to your account if you so desire.

om there were crimson ramblers. The J. Burns Thursday afternoon was a de-ling room was much admired and lightful affair. About 200 guests were room there were crimson ramblers. The dining room was much admired and made a preity scene with pink roses in large bowls. It opens into the conserv-large, a cool darkened room, lined with cork bark and containing the aquarium. It is decented with a choice collection of sea shells. The library, an oriental room, was decorated in yellow roses. The rooms upstairs were thrown open and in the marguerite sitting room punch was served by Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, in white spangied net, and Miss Alice Collier, in white silk mull. The natatorium was open to the vis-itors and created a great deal of en-joyment. Wayne Cos and his little boy friends were in charge and initiated the "horses" to the swimming tank. Miss. Coe wore a handsome gown of white crope de chins trimmed with hand-woven lace. Assisting about the recop-tion rooms were Mrs. F. W. Church, in an imported gown of gray silk; Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, in white silk with garni-

TEMATON

Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, Prominent Entertainer of Last Week.

ters and telegrams of congratulation were received. Dr. and Mrs. Cos received under a hurel wreath wrought from, silver with 25 little lights for their years of married life. A few golden sprays represented their hopo for a golden wedding. They received in the draw-ing room, which is a handsome Louis XV room and was decorated with Bride roses. In the reception hall were quantities of red Jacqueminot roses. In the living entertained by Miss Elizabeth Harwas' rich, sympathetic messo voice, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas accompanied her in a charming program. Mrs. Swinburne was an honor guest, Many handsome gowns were worn and the afternoon was one of the fashienable functions of the week.

Mrs. Burns wore white silk mull with touches of black.

toucnes of black. Mrs. Swinburne attracted much st-tention in a handsome cream embroi-dered orepe de chine gown with a rose-trimmed cream hat. Mrs. Wesley Ladd, who was seen then for the first time since her return from Japan, wore an elaborate cream em-broidered gown with a picture hat with rich cream plumes. Mrs. William M. Ladd was attractive

-Photograph by Aune

plumes; Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph in black and white hat trimmed with black plumes; Mrs. J. B. Montgomery in white ingerie with a black hat and white plumes; Mrs. Holt Wilson in a white embroidered gown; Miss Hazel Dolph in French blue silk with touches of gold and a black pleture hat; Mrs. Prank Freeman in a white gown trimmed with pluk and a pink pleture hat; Anong the guests present were Mrs. Swinburne, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. Bingham, the Misses Burns, Miss Glisan, Mrs. James Failing, the Misses Rhoda. Ernestine and Olive Failing, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mrs. Patterson Effinger, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. R. M. Wilbur, Mrs. T. G. Ehlot, the Misses Ellot, Mrs. H. C. Cabell of the barracks, Mrs. George Good Mrs. H. W. Corbett, the Misses Flanders, Mrs. Co-ert Treat Flatt, Mrs. Sol Hirsch, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Howard, the Misses Lewis Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Park from Vancouver, Mrs. H. D. Green, Misses Flanders, Mrs. Mackin-tosh, Mrs. Frank Hart Miss Effie Houghton, Mrs. Angeneri Mrs. Rob-ert Treat Platt, Mrs. John K. Kol-lock Mrs. Frank Hart Miss Effie Houghton, Mrs. Angeneri Mor-inse, Mrs. Frank Hart Miss Effie Houghton, Mrs. Aluel Lewis, Mrs. Stew-art B. Linthleum, Mrs. John K. Kol-lock Mrs. Frank Knapp, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Stew-art B. Linthleum, Mrs. S. Mackin-tosh, Mrs. Frank Knapp, Mrs. Richard Morton H. Insley, Mrs. John K. Kol-lock Mrs. Frank Knapp, Mrs. Stew-art B. Linthleum, Mrs. Margaret Mor-rison, the Misses Rodney, Mrs. K. Al-Mackenzie, Mrs. A. L. Maxwall, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. S. M. Mears, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, the Misses Wilson, Mrs. H others. One of the most delightful parties was given last week by Mrs. Nicholas F. / Sargent, the event being the fourth birthday of little Joy M. Sargent. One of the features of the day was the luncheon given in the green room of the Hotel Sargent. The table was daintily decorated with pink and green. Over 3.000 sweet peas as well as great bunches of La France roses were used effectively in decorating the table and banquet room. After the luncheon the children enjoyed themselves with games. Besides several "grown-ups," the folluncheon given in the green room of

Besides several "grown-ups," the fol-lowing were present: Joy M. Sargent, Earl Frederick, Maxime Friedenthal, Helen Scobey, Allen Newhoff, Helen Mayo, Thelma Richards, Delphine Ro-senfeld, Lucia Watson and Martha Schull an's club. The dining-room decorations were in the club colors, green and white, with marguerites and fern combined.

for some time been connected with the Portland high school, and Mr. Herdman was formerly with the Portland Acad-emy and is now principal of the East Side high school.

THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd and their Several Portlanders went to Eugene their little daughter Helen, returned to attend commencement at the Univer- Wednesday evening from their trip to sity of Oregon last week. The presi- the orient. They give an enthusiastic dent's public reception Tuesday after- account of the pleasures of their trip. noon, the alumni banquet Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kollock and Miss afternoon and the alumni ball Wednes-day evening were the principal social events, but beginning with the bacca-laurente services Sunday there was events, but beginning with the bacca-laureate services Sunday there was something to attend constantly. At the alumni ball Mrs. Harriet K. McArthur of this city was patroness, with Pro-fessor Luella Clay Carson, Mrs. S. H. Friendly and Mrs. William Barrett. Among the Portland people who went up there were Mrs. McArthur, C. N. Mc-Arthur, Mrs. William D. Fench, Horace Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. God-dard, Homer D. Angell, Miss Helen Bar-ber, Miss Heien Chandler, Miss Ino-gene Raffety, Walter L. Whittlesey, Mrs. Ross Mills Plummer, Dr. John R Barber, Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope, Judge and Mrs. Galloway, Miss Bessis Kelley, Barry C. Eastham and Senator Swinburne was the honor guest and a number of women from Portland were invited. The admiral's launch took the guests from Vancouver to the Anderson Mrs. Louis Burke gave a delightful informal afternoon Saturday a week ago in honor of her daughter Miss Ada, who has just completed her freshman year place. at Smith college and has returned for Miss Sadie Jackson entertained informally the girls of the '07 class of Portland academy last Tuesday. Five hundred was played and Miss Clara Weidler and Miss Alice Carey won the prizes. The rooms were decorated with green and yellow, the class solors.  Mrs. Bert Haney entertained the Portia club Tuesday. Her beautiful home was profusely decorated with Caroline Testout roses. The prize-winners at Five Hundred were, Mrs. P. P. Dabney and Mrs. Butler. The luncheon served was very dainty. Mrs. J. N. Teal will take a small school friends were invited in for the afternoon. The rooms were darkened and lighted with electricity and the af-ternoon given the appearance of an evening music soiree. A Welte-Mignon player was hidden among palms and rubber plants, and an afternoon of delightful music from the fingers of rare artists was enjoyed. A graphophone presented several excel-lent voice records. Between numbers fruit punch was served at after the program luncheon was served at small tables. The decorations were pink and green in compliment to the last day of the rose festival. party, consisting of Miss Helen Teal of of the Oregon Agricultural college, The Dailes, Miss Mary Melldrum of Oregon City and Miss Snell of San Fran-cisco, to the coast this week. They will spend a week at the Hotel Moore at Sea-About 165 guests, principally college Mrs. Johnson gave a cherry luncheon people, enjoyed the occasion. Among the features of the program were a se-Thursday to the calendar committee of the club. The table decorations were of lection by a ladies' quartet, composed scarlet ramblers with sprays of cherries side. of Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Woodcock, Miss Lula

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Laidlaw, who re-cently left to make their home in Nome, Alaska, were delayed in Seattle and left there only Thursday. Mrs. Ernest Laid-law, who went up to see them off, re-turned a few days before the steamer left, Mrs. Warren F. Houghton and her daughter, Miss Claire, who have been visiting in the east for several weeks, returned Thursday night. Miss Heien Osburne, who is to visit with Mr, and Mrs. Morton H. Insley, returned with them.

miral William T. Swinburne and the of-ficers of the Charleston and John Paul Jones was given in an earlier issue. It was perhaps the most pretentious semi-public function held in Portland since the days of the Lewissand Clark fair, and was attended by over 2,000 people.

Miss Genevieve Thompson, who went East to attend commencement at Bryn Mawr, is traveling through New Eng-land and will return home about the end of July. Mrs. J. T. Boothe gave the second of end of July. Mrs. Robert Hall entertained infor-mally with four tables of bridge Mon-day evening for Miss Snell of Califor-mia, who is the guest of Mrs. Joseph N. her series of German whist afternoons Tuesday. There were six tables and Thesday. There were six tables and the prizes went to Mrs. George Brough-ton and Mrs. I. D. Boyer. The library was decorated with scarlet ramblers, and the reception hall and drawing-room in Caroline Testout roses. Miss Alda Broughton and Miss Ward as-sisted in serving refreshments.  The engagement of Miss Isabella Moresau and Hush H Hardman In is

Mrs. S. A. Mulford of Elton Court, who was expected home a week ago from an extended trip east, has been de-tained and will arrive early in July.
Mrs. C. A. Dolph entertained Mrs. Swinburne Tuesday with a motor ride and a luncheon following.
Mrs. William H. Warrens gave an in-formal tea Friday afternoon at her su-burban home in compliment to Miss Cardas" (Michiells), Elaine and Eloise Clouse; "Pomponette" (Durand) Mildred Raymond; "Frolle of the Butterflies" (Bohm), Blanche Anderson; "Lachtau-ben" (Behr), Andrew Kan; "Thy Senti-nel Am F' (Pinsuti), Mr. Henry Ryder; (a) "Scar. Dance" (Chaminade), (b) "La Talgane" (Ganne), Eloise Clouse; (a) "A Sonnet in Tones" (Heller), (b) "Chanson Triste" (Tchaikowsky), Jennie Auterson; "On the Shore" (Neidlinger), Mrs. E E Miller; (a) "Fruhlingelied"

Mrs. Robert W. Lawis and her sister. Miss Hoyt, who went east several weeks ago, are expected home the middle of this week. They left Boston Friday. * *

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.

We are prepared to execute orders for superior Copperplate Engraving in the latest Tiffany The Misses Alice and Gertrude Rob-bins are here to spend the summer with their aunt, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, and her daughter, Miss Marjorie.

COR. WASHINGTON AND TENTH

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND

INVITATIONS FOR WEDDINGS

styles.

Kilham Stationery &

Printing Co.

246 WASHINGTON STREET

WEDDING

AND VISITING CARDS

W. G. SMITH & Co.

Washington Building

UTS

* * Miss Shirley Eastham and Miss lise Kochler have returned from Briar Chif, where they have been attending school in New York. * *

Mrs. Frank Branch Riley entertained with a luncheon of eight covers at the golf links Wednesday for Miss Henry, Lake.

Miss Ernestine Falling returned Tues-day from Massachusetts, where she has just been graduated from Smith col-lege.

Miss Shirley Enstham entertained last night with a launch party and dinner at her mother's country home at Oswego.

Miss Miriam Jacobs, who has been attending school in New York, is ex-pected home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Isam White left Tues-day to open their beach home at Long Beach for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gifford Nash will leave tomorrow to spend the summer at Nashville.

(Hollander), (b) "Spanish Dance No, 1" (Moszkowski), Lillian Gardner; (a) "Valse des Fleurs" (Delibes), (b) "Ha-banera," from "Carmen" (Biset), Elaine Clouse; "Valse Petite" (Neidlinger), Mildred, Raymond; "For All Eternity" (Mascheroni), Mr. Henry Ryder; "Valso Entrainante" (Wachs), Blanche Ander-son; "Minuet in G" (Paderewski), Eloise Clouse; "Fabliau" (Raff), Jennie Auter-son; "My Rosary" (Nevin), Mrs. E. E. Miller; "Andante and Rondo Capric-closo" (Mendelssohn), Lillian Gardner; "Tarantella in A Minor" (Dennee), Elaine Clouse. Spangler and Miss Helen Holgate; vocal of Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Woodocky Miss vocal solos by Miss Lulu Spangler and Arthur Bonquet; instrumental duct by John Spangler and Miss Spangler; instru-mental duct by Miss Pearl Horner and Mr. Spangler, and several instrumental solos by Miss Blanche Hammel. The pretty, pink dining-room was beautified by the artistic arrangement of La France roses and the other rooms were prettily decorated with white roses, clematis, fern, umbrella plants and palms. Mrs. Horner was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. A. Pernot, Mrs. F. Berchtold and Mrs. C. M. McKellips, Daint's refreshments were served by Miss Grace Gatch, Miss Helen Holgats, Miss Anna Quick, Miss Helen Holgats, Miss Anna Quick, Miss Helen Holgats, Miss Anna Quick, Miss Helen Allans Car-rie and Miss Marie Cathey. Dr. Kerr and his family are warmly welcomed in Corvallis, where Dr. Kerr takes charge of the college, officially, on July 17. One of the most enjoyable June parties was given on Tuesday in honor of the twenty-first birthday of Miss Ming hoffman and Otto Hoffman, at the pleasant evening was spent in playin games and later refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Juliet Johnson, Vivien Yantis, Hulda Nelson, June Spaulding, Eva Hoy, Ora

* *

(Continued on Page Forty-Seven.)

A Real Wonderland.

A Real Wondsriand. South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veri-table wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonder-ful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting cough-ing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giv-ing Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and com-pletely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by Red Cross Pharmacy. 500 and $1.00. Trial bottle free. The following is the program of the recital given by the pupils of Frederick W. Goodrich at his studio, 173 East Morrison street, Wednesday evening: "Czardas" (Michielis), Elaine and Eloise

Foster & Kleiser-Signs

* * Miss Marjorie Hoffman entertained the young girls with a tea Monday afternoon for her two cousins, Misses Alice and Gertrude Robbins, who are MAK here for the summer. At the table ing. Miss Clara Weidler poured chocolate Miss Clara Weidler poured chocolate and Miss Hilda MacElroy served ices. A few of the guests were Miss Lesley Smith, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Clara Weidler, Miss Lesley Weidler, Miss Shirley Eastham, Miss Helen Bates, Miss Stella Frohman, Miss Helen Bates, Miss Olive Failing, Miss Mary Hewitt, Miss Isaballa Gauid, Miss Hilda Mac-Elroy, Miss Mary Livingstone, Miss Jean Brownile, Miss Carolyn Wilson and Miss Maida Hart. Mrs. W. Wynn Johnson, retiring president, entertained with a pretty luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Frederick Eggert, incoming president of the Wom-with marguerites and fern combined. The place cards were in the same colors. Alda Broughton and Miss Ward as-Alda Broughton and Miss Ward as-alda Broughton and Miss Ward as-sisted in serving refreshments. * * The inving-room was decorated with hail with scarlet ramblers. The guests were Mrs. Levi Young, Mrs. Julia Com-stock, Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Mrs. Julia Marguam, Mrs. Abigail Soott Duniway, Marguam, Mrs. Abigail Soott Duniway, scattered about the cloth. The place scattered about the cloth. The place cards were portraits of the poets with small calendars and each guest gave a quotation from the poet in her place. In the living-room were decorations of sweet briar and France roses, and in the reception hall field daisies. The guests present were Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Mrs. M. Baruh, Mrs. J. P. Monfett, Mrs. O. C. Thornton, Mrs. W. C. Puffer, Mrs. W. C. Conover and Miss Helen F. Spald-ing.

A full account of the reception at the Portland Tuesday evening to Rear Admiral William T. Swinburne and the ofwas perhaps the most pretentious semi-public function held in Portland since the days of the Lewiss and Clark fair, and was attended by over 2,000 people. Almost everyone of social importance was invited, and the assembly was a brilliant and handsomely gowned one.