TO BE GODDESS AT CARLTON

Miss Elsworth Wins the Honor—Yamhill to Celebrate Properly.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Carlton, Or., June 29.—Final arrangements were completed last evening for holding the largest celebration ever held in Yamhill county. There will be two days, beginning on the Fourth, and good programs have been arranged for both days. Wallace McCamant will be the principal speaker. There will be all the usual sports as well as some new ones. In the contest for goddess of liberty Miss Myrtle Ellsworth was the fortunate contestant, having received 1,559 votes out of a total vote of 3,266. There were 12 candidates for this honor.

Miss Myrtle Ellsworth.

STATE BANK FOUNDED AT MYRTLE CREEK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, June 29.—The thriving little city of Myrtle Creek, in the southern part of Douglas county, is to have a bank. A pioneer resident of that place, John Hall, with C. O. Nelson and B. J. Howard of Oklahoma, are the promoters and have filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk for the Citizens State Bank of Myrtle Creek. The capital stock is $10,000. With this new business institution and the installation of their new water and light system, backed by a large sawmill plant and mines that are bringing in vast wealth, Myrtle Creek is one of the most prosperous little towns in southern Oregon.

WASHINGTON TAX LAWS CONSTRUED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., June 29.—Poll tax cannot be collected from any individual in this state who was not a resident of the state on March 1, is the opinion of Assistant Attorney-General Macdonald. In Kittitas county the authorities were anxious to collect poll tax from the railroad graders and farm hands but the decision puts a quietus on the hope. The assistant attorney-general has advised County Treasurer A. S. Coates of Island county, that regardless of actual conditions, property in private ownership on March 1 must be assessed for taxes.

SALEM'S LODGES CHOOSE GODDESS

Miss Maude Hill, Candidate of Modern Woodmen, Is Winner.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., June 29.—Elaborate arrangements are being made for the great Fourth of July celebration. B. F. Mulkey of Ashland will be the speaker of the day. L. C. Stringer, formerly of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, will read the Declaration of Independence. The decoration committee is under the supervision of Manager Rollin K. Page of the Portland General Electric company and the decorative scheme is one that will prove striking.
The work on the decoration will begin Monday, in honor of the hundreds of teachers who will be here attending the convention of the western division of the State Teachers' association.
About $2,000 is to be spent to celebrate the Fourth. Baseball fans are anxious for the game to be played between the Woodburn team and the Trunkmakers. Other celebrations in the county will be held at Aurora and Mount Angel.
Miss Maude Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hill, is to be Salem's goddess of liberty on the Fourth. The contest closed last evening and Miss Hill's success resulted through the vote cast for her by the Modern Woodmen of America. She was also the candidate of the Artisans and Royal Neighbors. Her competitors were Miss Ella Donaldson, candidate of the A. O. U. W.; Miss Martha Sheridan, candidate of the Woodmen of the World and Silver Bell circle, and Miss Edith Mapletorpe, candidate of the Maccabees.

RECKLESS MEN MUST BE MORE CAREFUL

Authorities Make Strenuous Efforts to Prevent Firecrackers Causing Damage Before Fourth.

A. Antoheson and C. A. Barringer were arraigned before Judge Cameron yesterday charged with discharging firecrackers near Montavilla. Both were released pending good behavior. Complaints are coming from different parts of town regarding reckless use of firecrackers, and the police are making every effort to stop it.
James Kirk was bound over to the juvenile court yesterday on a charge of robbing a chorus girl at a local theatre of her purse containing $20.

EAGLE AT ROSEBURG WILL OUTDO HIMSELF

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., June 29.—It is now very evident that the American eagle will fly higher and scream louder in the city of Roseburg on July 4 than ever before in its history. (While there will be no great amount of fireworks the great spirit of patriotism seems to be stronger this year than ever before and every organization whether lodge, club, militia, company or fire team, with the legal and medical profession and in fact everybody in every walk of life will be represented in the big parade, headed by

THERE ARE FEW people who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. Herbin will keep it in condition. Y. C. Simpkins, Albu, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe. Sold by all druggists."

HOOVER'S DEATH DUE TO HEART FAILURE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., June 29.—Heart failure was the cause of Claude Hoover's drowning in the South Umpqua, at Myrtle Creek, Thursday evening. He and a companion were in bathing and he had started to swim across the river. When about half way he was suddenly stricken and called to Alex Hull, his companion, for assistance. Hull hastened to him and worked until he was almost exhausted and had to abandon Hoover to save his own life. The river is about 75 yards wide and over 15 feet deep at the place where Hoover was drowned. Hoover's parents live at Medford and he was a nephew of Mayor E. V. Hoover of this city. He was spending his vacation at Myrtle Creek, where he was associated with Dr. C. E. Bogue. Hoover was a medical student.

CATHOLIC DEDICATION AT KLAMATH FALLS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Klamath Falls, Or., June 29.—Bishop O'Reilly, of the Baker City diocese, in which the Catholic congregation of Klamath Falls is located, has arrived in this city. He has come to dedicate the church of the Sacred Heart, and will administer the sacrament and confirmation. His coming is welcomed by the new church and by Father Feusi, who has labored faithfully and well in establishing a church here. The congregation numbers about a 100. The bishop will lecture at the opera house Sunday evening and on Monday will go to Lakeview, where he will deliver the Fourth of July oration.

GRAYS HARBOR AND FAIRBANKS CASES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., June 29.—The three applications for writs of prohibition in the Grays Harbor county division matter have been argued before the supreme court, and the court has directed that both sides file briefs.
A motion to dismiss the appeal in the case of James H. Caustens, respondent, vs. E. T. Barnette, appellant, was granted, the ground being that the order appealed from is not a final matter, and hence not appealable. The suit involves a one third interest in the townsite of Fairbanks, Alaska. The King county court made an order decreasing Caustens' right to one third of the townsite, and ordered an accounting, from which the appeal was taken. The decision does not prevent the future appeal of the case on its merits.
In the case of the state ex rel. Wilson vs. superior court of Chehalis county, a writ of review was ordered issued. State ex rel. Royce, plaintiff, vs. superior court of Kitsap county, application for a writ of certiorari, assigned for an opinion.

SWEATED YOUTHS TELL OF THEFTS

Youngsters Arrested in Connection With Window-Weight Robberies.

Ellis and Lawrence Finley of 334 Hawthorne avenue and John Johnson of 254 Front street, were arrested by Detective Sergeant Jones and Acting Detective Tichenor on suspicion in connection with a reported robbery. The men are charged with entering empty houses and stealing window weights and tools.
Officers rounded up nine youths, aged 10 to 14 years, and "sweated" them before a confession was elicited. They said they had taken 70 window weights from a house at 128 Front street, being torn down by D. E. Johnson. They alleged junk dealers encouraged them. Hearing will be had in juvenile court.

Silhouette Series of Notable Musicians No. 7.

Follow the Example of Great Artists

He is perhaps the most marvellous pianist in the world today! Some say it is his hair, others say it's in his fingers, but we know a large part of the secret is in the fact that he uses the STEINWAY in preference to all other pianos. The greatest artist must have the best instrument, and the least artist can do his best only with a superior instrument. "THE HOUSE OF QUALITY" carries pianos of superior manufacture. You can't make a mistake in choosing any one of our high-grade instruments, Steinway, the Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, A. B. Chase, etc. VISIT our VICTOR and PLAYER-PIANO PARLORS. CONVENIENT TERMS WILL BE ARRANGED.

Name This Musician.

And the rest of the series, now appearing in this paper each Sunday and we will present you with a $10 PAYMENT, good on any piano in our house. Watch for them each Sunday, clip them and when you have the 10 present them to us and receive your $10 certificate.

EXTRA!!

The newspaper people were no more prepared for the avalanche of back-number demands for papers than we were for the tremendous interest that this firm-name and business-phrase contest has excited. They did not print extra editions containing our announcements for the past eight days, as should have been done, and so now there are no back numbers to be gotten! Once more we insist on being fair to all. To obviate the possibility of any unfairness in this

$100 Prize Contest

We today print ALL the letters in our firm name, badly mixed! And we have arranged for EXTRA EDITIONS of the paper, so you can get as many copies as you have GOOD PHRASES, to submit. REMEMBER THE CONDITIONS: You must make out our name (we are a well known—prominently advertised Portland firm) and suggest a catchy, attractive BUSINESS PHRASE suitable to us. Your answer must reach us not later than July 2; 150 additional prizes will be awarded for other meritorious answers; out of town people whose phrases reach us later will be considered for additional prizes, owing to their being handicapped by distance.
AN ABJECT APOLOGY—We feel like crawling off in a hole; we made a mistake! Some one put an "O" where an "N" should have been in the three letters given you in Friday's paper! This has thrown thousands of people into a flutter of confusion because they could not spell our name without that "N." We give it to you now and take away the "O." You see, we are thoroughly human—we make mistakes. "To err is human, to forgive divine." Please forgive us, and bear in mind that all errors made in this house are acknowledged and rectified with equal grace.
Watch tomorrow's paper for further news of the contest!
