(Journal Special Service.) Washington, July 1.-The interstate commerce commission may, to settle an important question, have to ask President Roosevelt: "At what hour excely did you sign the railroad rate bill". The trouble is to ascertain the life of The trouble is to ascertain the claims for reparation from railroads for overcharges. The law provides that such claims must be filed with the comsuch claims must be filed with the commission within a year of the time the law went into effect. The rate law was to have taken effect immediately, but shortly after its passage a joint resolution extended the time 60 days.
Within a week over 250 such cases have been filed for over 25,000,000. The claims are still being received. The courts may be called upon to decide whether the time limit expired at midnight Friday or Saturday night, cr whether claimants still have until August 28.

BANK CONSOLIDATION EFFECTED IN CHICAGO

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, July 1.-The Record-Herald says: The creation of the largest banking institution in Chicago is about to take place in the consolidation of the Continental National and Commercial National banks. Negotiations to this end have been under way for some time, but with indifferent success until recently. Now, it is believed the merger will come about in time for the amalgamated institution to take possession of the banking floors of the Commorcial National's new building which is nearly finished. The new bank will make the following showing:

Total capitalization, 17,000,000,000,001 total surplus and undivided profits, $3,948,486; total deposits, $106,694,375. says: The creation of the largest bank-
