Steps Will Be Taken to Draft State Law Which Will Follow Lines of Sherman Anti-Trust Law - Agitation Strong for Enactment

Oregon and local combinations of capital banded together for the purpose of restraining trade and stifling competition are menaced by the action of the executive board of the state Pederation of Labor taken at the regular meeting last night. Steps will at once be taken by competent attorneys to ift a state law for submission to the itiative at the election of June next which will follow the lines of the Sher-man anti-trust law and make it illegal for any corporation or combination to join for the purpose of stifling compe-tition or restricting trade.

For some time an agitation has been carried on throughout the state for the enactment of such a law. During the last session of the legislature the mat-ter was broached, and the fate of all things anti-corporation in the senate particularly caused the effort to be abandoned.

Assistance Is Assured.

Through efforts of various labor interests in Portland and throughout the state the popularity of such a law as that proposed has been sounded and it has been found that assistance could be secured in the work of presenting such a measure from quarters which had been thought unfriendly.

Lest night a resolution was presented before the executive poard and unanimously adopted which provides for the preparation of a statute covering all the points treated in the Sherman act and for its subsequent submission to the points treated in the Sherman act and for its subsequent submission to the people by the initiative. It is understood that Deputy District Attorney Bert E. Heney has signified his willingness to assist in drafting the proposed law. He will be assisted by a committee of attorneys in the city and the result will be a statute which will provide a remedy in the state courts for the present condition in the state. At the present time there is no law in Oregon in any way regulating the formation of trusts which may operate entirely within the boundaries of the state. Will Circulate Petitions.

Will Circulate Petitions.

The intention is to circulate the necessary petitions among the labor organizations of the state and in this way secure the necessary signatures with but little trouble or expense. The resolutions adopted by the executive board at the meeting last night were as follows:

"Whereas, the statutes of the state of Oregon contain no law to prohibit or regulate trusts or combinations in restraint of trade and alliances to control and manipulate prices for the sole and selfish benefit of the parties allied, and

ICE FAMINE ENDED BY BROKEN STRIKE

New York July 2.—The ice drivers' strike was broken this morning. It was not officially declared off, but when the American lee company notified the union it had enough non-union men to man its wagons, three-quarters of the strikers returned to their wagons. The street cleaners also returned to work this morning.

BURGLARS START FIRE WHICH KILLS THREE +

(Journal Special Service.)

Houston, Tex., June 2.—Three small sons of Jacob Prager were burned to death early this morning by fire, which was started by burglars. Prager heard the looters, ran down stairs, discovered the fire, then ran back and rescued his wife and two daughters, but could not reach his sons.

PEASANTS GOUGE OUT HORSE THIEVES' EYES

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Peasants, capturing 15 horse thieves at Cherniating in the government of Volhnia, broke their arms and legs, crushed their ribs and tore off their hands. In some instances they gouged their eyes out. The police rescued them after the thieves had been tortured for two days. One is dead as a result of his punishment.

GETTING READY Feeding Ahead of Hot Weather.

Feeding Ahead of Mot Weather.

"Not quite so much meat in spring-time: use the cereals, as they heat the blood less." Seasonable advice from an old practitioner.

If one uses some care as to food, the hot weather will be passed as comfortably as any season. In fact, a person possessed of a perfectly balanced set of nerves can be happy and comfortable under most any conditions.

The truest food for building up the nervous system to a perfect condition is Grape-Nuts. The makers are skilled in their art, and knowing that nature fills the brain and nerve centers with a soft gray unatter which is used up more or less each day and must be replaced, (or nervous prostration sets in), and also knowing that this gray matter is made by the combination of albumen and phosphate of potash, they select the parts of the field grains that contain the needed materials, manufacture them into a delicious food, ready cooked, predigosted, and of a fascinating flavour.

The use of Grape-Nuts quickly proves that it really does rebuild and strengthen the nervous system in a most certain manner. Sold by all first-class grocers and in daily use in hundreds of thousands of the best families all over the world. "There is a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in page.

AGREEABLE WEATHER DURING LAST MONTH

The month of June was quite agreeable from a weather point of view, for while the thermometer rose to 91 degrees for a few moments one afternoon, it might have soared to the $9 notch, which has been the absolute maximum June temperature during the past 34 years. The mean temperature for the month was a trifle over the average. It rained 1.84 inches, the heaviest showers occurring on

And after that the good Max began to chew his gum with something less of yigor, and to get a little redder in the face and to hesitate as the smiling, shrewd and polished "obscure county attorney of Idaho" got into action and fired gentle questions at him as quick as hall. And then he commenced forgetting.

It was the business of Max Mehalich to say that alhtough he knew Orchard he had never though or talked or done any crime with him. Malich had said that Gratias, the Pinkerton operative, had introduced film to Orchard and Mehalich said the same thing. And Mehalich looked as honest a man as another. And as he too admits this to Borah you remember again that Steve Adams is still waiting in the jail downstairs, and you begin again to watch Borah as he watches for the opening to get Steve Adams' repudiated confession before the jury as admissible evidence.

Six-Story Structure Planned Secretary of Treasury Makes for Wholesale District-Column of Coal. News of Realty Market.

Enlargement of warehouse room an n increase of facilities for taking care of an enormous growth in business is the steady trend of Portland's big wholesale and jobbing houses. Following close upon the two-block purchase in the warehouse district by the Marshall-Wells company comes the announcement that the Portland branch of the Crane company of Chicagu has purchased a half block on Irving street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets on which a six-story building is to go up within the year.

The sale of this property was closed last week and announced in the Sunday Journal although it was not known then who had made the purchase. The price, $50,000, paid for this half block indicates a steady increase in values in that district. E. J. Daly and W. H. Streeter negotiated the sale.

Aikman lived with Steve Adams in Denver for a month. He was sick at the time and the only money he had was his strike benefit of less than $5 a week. Orchard was there part of the time. He roomed with him. Aikman swore positively that he never aided Orchard in stealing powder from the Union Pacific and knew nothing of any attempt to assassinate Governor Peabody. He never committed any act of violence or crime with either Adams or Orchard. He went to Nevada in 1905 and has been prospecting there ever since. When cross-examined he said that he had been running a saloon for six months before the depot explosion.
