

DEFENSE HAS FAR FROM A HAYWOOD CASE

Hugh O'Neill Says Substantial Allegations Are Not Attacked.

COURT SUFFERS FROM ENGLETTIS ATTACK

Former Attorney-General of Colorado Tells of Being Arrested Every Forty-Eight Hours and How He Defied the Military.

(By Hugh O'Neill, Special Commissioner for Denver Post and Oregon Journal.) Boise City, Idaho, July 3.—Saturday comedy, Monday farce, Tuesday burlesque and here at this time of writing, on Wednesday morning, with one Clifford of Denver on the stand you begin to wonder what the defense is doing with William D. Haywood or seeking to do for him, and what William D. Haywood or his friends are doing with such a defense.

We have listened for six days to Richardson falling in his assault upon Orchard. We have heard Clarence Darrow tell the jury that the killings and wrackings in Colorado and Cour d'Alenes were the result and also were not the result of a mineowners conspiracy.

Yesterday we were deluged by the opened flood gates of "General" Engley's eloquence. That gentleman was one time attorney general of Colorado. I do not want to recall painful memories to the people of that great state.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

Moyer and Pettibone and Simpkins, and Orchard had conspired to kill Steuneger and Haywood, it is now known. It is not, and never can be in this case, the mineowners of Colorado who are now on trial, or the Citizens' Alliance of Cripple Creek, or the constitutionality of martial law.

Garrulous Youth. A garrulous young man called Barnes followed Mr. Clifford. He is a member of the Western Federation and suffered deportation from Cripple Creek.

Pat Moran. "Pat Moran," said Clarence Darrow. And up walked a genial Irishman with a morning face and a laughing Irish brogue.

Did Not Recognize Orchard. After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

After that the Nevilles and Orchard went into "Pat's" saloon in Cheyenne. Pat recognized Neville, but he did not recognize Orchard at all.

REWARD OF MERIT

R. M. Matteson, whose picture here appears, has been for 50 years in the employ of the Nassau bank in New York City, and has just been presented with a gold watch and $500 in gold.

CELEBRATED DAY

(Continued from Page One.) day and they were verified in detail by Captain Mountain.

Celebrated on Monday. July 4, 1841, fell on a Sunday and as the American sailors in those days were God-fearing men they concluded to have the real celebration on the following day.

Ox is Roasted Whole. The place chosen for the purpose was a corner of the Mission prairie. (This was the prairie upon which Mr. Richmond and William L. Wilson had established the Puget Sound missionary station.)

Salvors Give Three Cheers. When the procession reached Fort Nisqually they stopped, gave three cheers and waited, sailor-like, until the officers had finished their work.

ELEVATOR CRUSHES WALLA WALLA MAN (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Wash., July 3.—Frank Webber, proprietor of a tannery, was badly crushed beneath an elevator at the tannery yesterday afternoon.

ROOSEVELT PARDONS MRS. VAUGHAN'S SON (Journal Special Service.) Washington, July 3.—Unconcerned prayer of Mrs. Vaughan of Los Angeles, that her son Henry of Dallas, Texas, be released from the Atlanta prison, where he is being held for a petty larceny conviction, was answered today when President Roosevelt signed his pardon.

GIRL IS KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT (Journal Special Service.) Wellesly, Mass., July 3.—Miss Margaret Swanton, aged 25, was killed this morning in an auto wreck. When the chauffeur attempted to stop another machine the auto jumped a stone, striking the occupants out. Three others were injured.

SULTAN'S COMMANDER CAUGHT BY BANDIT (Journal Special Service.) Tangier, July 3.—Kaid MacLean, the Scottish chief commander of all the sultan's forces, is a prisoner of Balfout, the Moroccan bandit, who demands a ransom and full pardon for all his misdeeds at the price of MacLean's surrender.

EMPEROR WILLIAM IS VISITING COPENHAGEN (Journal Special Service.) Copenhagen, July 3.—Emperor William, the German emperor, arrived here today on the yacht Hohenzollern. They were welcomed by the Danish royal family.

REWARD OF MERIT MACHINE PERFECT DROES

Invention Makes Accurate Test of School Children and Regulates Work.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, July 3.—The school authorities of New York have had their attention called to an invention called the ergograph, which is warranted to determine correctly the real cause for a pupil's backwardness in his studies.

(Continued from Page One.) In order to furnish greater protection to the president and the movement of the ships will confirm this statement in due time. Meanwhile the diplomatic denials are forthcoming as was to be expected.

JAPS LEADERS

(Continued from Page One.) gin to agitate the public mind, using the press and other means, has been employed in America. One of the most prominent men in Japan recently made a speech against the manner his countrymen were speaking but is not, in my opinion, that one speech did more than anything else to incite bitterness.

High Honors for Oregon's Aged Woman. At the patriotic exercises tomorrow at the Marquis Grand Opera House, Mrs. Mary Ramsey Lamons Wood, age 120 years, will be elected by the audience, the mother queen of Oregon.

RESTRAIN RAPACITY (Continued from Page One.) authorities exercising supervision and regulation over these combinations.

EAGLE WILL SCREAM (Continued from Page One.) entries which it is expected will make a parade that will cover a mile of streets.

REFERENDUM RIGHTS (Continued from Page One.) a referendum, and the evil, if any, that would result from invalidating these petitions, is not so great as the mischief likely to follow from a judicial sanction ignoring the plain requirements of the statute by a loose interpretation of the law.

GRANTS PASS BANK REMODELS QUARTERS (Continued from Page One.) Grants Pass, Or., July 3.—The first National bank has refitted and overhauled its banking rooms in this city, and now has the most elegantly furnished and best equipped bank in southern Oregon.

COFFEE There are more sorts of coffee than words in the dictionary. Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's; we say him.

BANK CHANGES (Continued from Page One.) than I can give to it, and also as I expect to be out of the city a great deal of the summer. I thought it best in the interest of the bank to resign.

ODESSA TERRORISTS ASSASSINATE JEWS (Journal Special Service.) London, July 3.—An Odessa dispatch says two Jews were killed and several children wounded in an anti-Jewish riot started during the night by the "black hundred."

TAFT TAKES MONTH'S VACATION IN CANADA (Journal Special Service.) Scranton, Pa., July 3.—Secretary Taft left this morning for a month's holiday at Murray bay, Canada.

FAIRBANKS STARTS ON WESTERN JOURNEY (Journal Special Service.) Indianapolis, July 3.—Vice-President Fairbanks left here last night for a long western trip. He will speak at Fergus Falls, Minnesota, Thursday and then go to Yellowstone park. July 13 he will address the International Christian Endeavor societies at Seattle.

ALL THE WORLD Knows that Ballard's Snow Liniment is no superior for rheumatism, stiff joints, cuts, sprains, lumbago and all pains. Buy it, try it and you will advise us. Any body who has used Ballard's Snow Liniment is a living proof of what it does. All we ask of you is to get a trial bottle. Price 50c and $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

JEROME GIVES MONEY TO AID SOCIETIES

(Journal Special Service.) New York, July 3.—District Attorney Jerome has divided among the Catholic Protective, the Juvenile Association, and Jewish Protective and Aid Society, three institutions devoted to the care of youthful offenders, the residue of his campaign fund, amounting to a little over $4,500.

BIG SQUADRON (Continued from Page One.) This information comes from authority that is not to be questioned. The person imparting it not only knows what he speaks but is not in the habit of making his speech or uttering misleading statements for diplomatic purposes.

High Honors for Oregon's Aged Woman. At the patriotic exercises tomorrow at the Marquis Grand Opera House, Mrs. Mary Ramsey Lamons Wood, age 120 years, will be elected by the audience, the mother queen of Oregon.

RESTRAIN RAPACITY (Continued from Page One.) authorities exercising supervision and regulation over these combinations.

EAGLE WILL SCREAM (Continued from Page One.) entries which it is expected will make a parade that will cover a mile of streets.

REFERENDUM RIGHTS (Continued from Page One.) a referendum, and the evil, if any, that would result from invalidating these petitions, is not so great as the mischief likely to follow from a judicial sanction ignoring the plain requirements of the statute by a loose interpretation of the law.

GRANTS PASS BANK REMODELS QUARTERS (Continued from Page One.) Grants Pass, Or., July 3.—The first National bank has refitted and overhauled its banking rooms in this city, and now has the most elegantly furnished and best equipped bank in southern Oregon.

COFFEE There are more sorts of coffee than words in the dictionary. Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's; we say him.

BANK CHANGES (Continued from Page One.) than I can give to it, and also as I expect to be out of the city a great deal of the summer. I thought it best in the interest of the bank to resign.

ODESSA TERRORISTS ASSASSINATE JEWS (Journal Special Service.) London, July 3.—An Odessa dispatch says two Jews were killed and several children wounded in an anti-Jewish riot started during the night by the "black hundred."

TAFT TAKES MONTH'S VACATION IN CANADA (Journal Special Service.) Scranton, Pa., July 3.—Secretary Taft left this morning for a month's holiday at Murray bay, Canada.

FAIRBANKS STARTS ON WESTERN JOURNEY (Journal Special Service.) Indianapolis, July 3.—Vice-President Fairbanks left here last night for a long western trip. He will speak at Fergus Falls, Minnesota, Thursday and then go to Yellowstone park. July 13 he will address the International Christian Endeavor societies at Seattle.

ALL THE WORLD Knows that Ballard's Snow Liniment is no superior for rheumatism, stiff joints, cuts, sprains, lumbago and all pains. Buy it, try it and you will advise us. Any body who has used Ballard's Snow Liniment is a living proof of what it does. All we ask of you is to get a trial bottle. Price 50c and $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

WE DID OUR BEST TO ANNOUNCE THE REED-FRENCH PIANO CO. PRIZE AWARDS

this afternoon, but though we worked till witted, we could not possibly do justice to the thousands of contestants and give our decision today. Tomorrow's paper will tell the story.

If you could only read with us letter after letter of the thousands that have poured into this office and note the unflinching good nature, good will and good thought that have emanated from these many sources you would not wonder that decision is difficult. You would also realize that much sentiment and splendid feeling warm the heart of business.

"We sound the chord of satisfaction for all" is a beautiful thought, and one we shall keep as a sort of household text. "The House of Harmonies" is in the same line; equally high grade.

"Are You Happy?" That question comes back at us with repeated force, and each time we look at it, it seems to mean more. The great human question—human happiness—is reverberating from person to person down the long corridors of time, and surely to add a bit of happiness to a life is the highest attainment.

"We strike the popular chord." Do you know, it's a great deal to be popular. It means everything; for popularity that is permanent must of necessity be based on merit. It tells the whole story.

"From Factory to Parlor." This phrase shows the influence of our own well known slogan, "From maker to player," and but for that would certainly stand among the picked ones.

"Quality is remembered after price is forgotten." This level-headed young woman gets right down to the truth of the matter; at the time we all appreciate getting a bargain, but it's the value that holds in the long run.

"We live to win and would die to please." This is a little strong, perhaps, but is catchily worded and conveys a determined house policy.

"Music Providers; Profit Dividers." This is exactly descriptive of our method of selling; that is, we do away with the middlemen's profit, and thus the additional price that usually goes into a seller's pocket reverts to the buyer.

"The Hearthstone of Music" is beautiful as a phrase and gives very concisely our position in the northwest, as sellers at prices that put pianos into the humblest homes.

"The gods themselves played on a reed." That's one of the neatest uses of our name that has been submitted.

"I've worried my brain till I'm nearly insane in trying to think of terse phrases. I've worked on your ad till I've nearly gone mad. And I've thought of Reed-French in all phases. I've asked every one almost under the sun, Their reason for buying pianos."

"I've read sayings witty and hunted the city for posters on how to write ads; I've watched players plenty and jotted down twenty of their most eccentric fads. My friends pass me grinning, they say I am thinning, My notebook and pencil they guy, I'm never without it, for if an idea sprouted And I should forget it, I'd die. At night I've lain sleeping; I've seen something peeping Two hundred half dollars or so. They cry 'Come and take me,' O, won't some one wake me? You win in your sleep to your woe!"

"Now my pen has grown rusty. My brains tired and musty, I'm surely played out, so must die! I think 'twould be fine on my tomb to put this sign: 'REED-FRENCH, ALL YE WHO PASS, BUY!'"

Oh, there are such lots of clever, witty, humorous, interesting letters, phrases, suggestions, etc. But we must get back to that prize decision. A positive announcement tomorrow.

Dr. Morrow's Anti-Lean advertisement featuring a woman's portrait and text: "MAKES LEAN PEOPLE FAT Through the nervous system. It is a purely vegetable compound. Contains no oils or fats of any drug that is injurious or liable to produce a habit."

Greenwell advertisement for bowel health: "They act like Exercise. -for the Bowels. Ten Cents. All Druggists."

PORTLAND WIRE AND IRON WORKS advertisement: "BANK AND OFFICE RAILING WIRE AND IRON FENCING Barbed Wire, Wire and Lawn Fencing, Poultry Netting, Etc. Phone Main 8000. SECOND AND EVERETT STS."