Young people competing for scholarships in school and colleges by securing subscribers for The Journal should notify the circulation manager of The Journal several days in advance when they will need new receipt books. The books will be mailed out from the office of The Journal just as fast as requests for books are received. Portland city contestants may call at The Journal office for their books.

The first score of The Journal's 1907 Educational Contest is printed today. It included all votes allowed for subscriptions reported in favor of contestants up to the morning of July 4. Henceforth the score of all contestants will be published at least twice each week and sometimes more frequently. Contestants should hurry their subscriptions to The Journal office so they may be measured up in votes and the values will appear on the days of publication. It is a matter of honor to go to the lead or near the lead in a newspaper contest, especially when the votes are earned by merit work.

In a few days the names of contestants scoring will be arranged as to districts. Then there will be a leader in each district. But the greatest honor will be to lead all contestants. In the end such honor will receive first choice of scholarships and cash awards.

Portland Girl Leads.
The leader of the score today is Mattie Fenley of the district comprising Multnomah county. William Russell of Portland and the same district, stands well also.

Alice D. Grant, of Dallas, the Willamette valley district, has made a good start and is likely to lead the contest at some future time. She was delayed in beginning by using up one subscription receipt book and failing to receive promptly the second one.

Peter Seltice, of Chemawa, is working like a Trojan and he is in the contest to win. An interesting article about this contestant will appear shortly.

Earl Heckert, of Corvallis, is on the highway to contest success. He does good work every day and puts nothing off for the morrow.

Emma E. Grant, of Albany, has set out to win a scholarship, although he has much to overcome. When the papers read the story of this boy and remember his father they will deem it a pleasure and a privilege to contribute subscriptions in his favor.

This contest develops many interesting and ambitious young people. The ups and downs of the contestants in their quest for votes will be chronicled in these columns from day to day as the contest proceeds.

Fifty of Room for All.
There is still room for other contestants. So far only 18 have reported subscriptions and there are nine cash prizes, besides the liberal commissions and 45 scholarships in the leading schools of the Pacific northwest. Applications are invited.

The California Maid.
Bright and pretty is little Mattie Fenley of 334 Hawthorne avenue, who enters The Journal contest to work for a scholarship in music, and who leads the score list in the first count of votes. She was born in California 18 years ago, and her bearing, countenance and cheerful disposition is suggestive of the "land of sunshine." Mattie is a good talker. This combined with her fact will help her in contest work. Even cynics will be won to aid the little lady, when they hear her merry laugh.

Mattie and her family are regular attendants at the Evangelical church whose members soon will be called on for the vote-gathering. Little Mattie's father is an Odd Fellow and she will visit the men of that order to solicit their subscriptions. Mattie, herself, is a member of the Fraternal Brotherhood, who will be sure to help her in her efforts to earn music lessons.

Forced to Leave School.
When Mattie reached the eighth grade in the Stevens school, she was compelled to abandon school work to help support herself. Although Mattie left her school work with regret, she did not still holding to her determination to complete her education.

While this little maid cheerfully performed her duties at the Sunset creamery and other places where she has been employed, her spare hours have been given to the guitar which she loves and to other study for self-improvement.

Mattie's father keeps a confectionery store at 384 Hawthorne avenue and the family reside in a portion of the same building. Mattie was nominated by Ralph Almeter, a boy friend who has been connected with the circulation department of two daily newspapers. Ralph Almeter knows that the newspaper game is one of " hustle and get" and will round up subscription votes for Mattie Fenley.

World Becomes Credit Man.
David Mullen of 333 San Rafael street, enters The Journal educational contest with a determination to win one of the four scholarships offered in the Behrke-Walker Business college. David is well-known among the boys of the city, some of whom have styled him "Dude." That may be because he dresses neatly but he never overdoes.

David counts many of the Journal carriers among his friends. He has asked them to give him the names of people whom he may induce to become new subscribers, as it is the new subscriptions which aid him most in his race for a scholarship. Among his staunch friends are Horace Wilson, who stood high in the contest last year.

Cures Woman's Weakness.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John F. Fyfe, one of the Editorial Staff of the Bohemia Medical Review says of Unicorn root (Holcus Scirpoides) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":
"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." It is constantly in the region of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhea (suppression) or absent monthly periods; and from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and general thin blood condition, and all these sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen.

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, the Unicorn root will do better than any other tonic. Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents: another prominent ingredient of 'Favorite Prescription.' Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb and general debility, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine to use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful to all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and other ingredients for which they are recommended.

summer: Ralph Robnett, Clifford Harrison and Abe Blackman, all of whom carry The Journal.

David Mullen completed his high school course last month and now aspires to a thorough training for business. Like other boys David enjoys tennis, baseball and football playing but he does not let sports take him from his real work and duties. David made his own way through high school by working on a newspaper before and after school. He says that he liked his work for the newspaper, but he wants to go to school this fall. He feels that it is a matter of honor in this contest will decide whether or not he can proceed with his education. In addition to keeping up newspaper work, David worked during the summer during vacation in the shipping department of Dougherty & Pitkin, wholesale dealers in shoes. This firm speaks well of him.

David is ambitious to become a credit man. This is one of the men of importance in the house and he is well informed and should be a bookkeeper. David's father, David H. Mullen, deals in real timber lands and he will do what he can to help the son make a creditable race. David's sisters and mother are members of the Eastern Star and they hope to realize votes from their acquaintance in that order. Mr. D. H. Mullen is a member of the A. O. U. W. and many of the members of the order have promised to help the boy in his efforts to independently provide for a special business education.

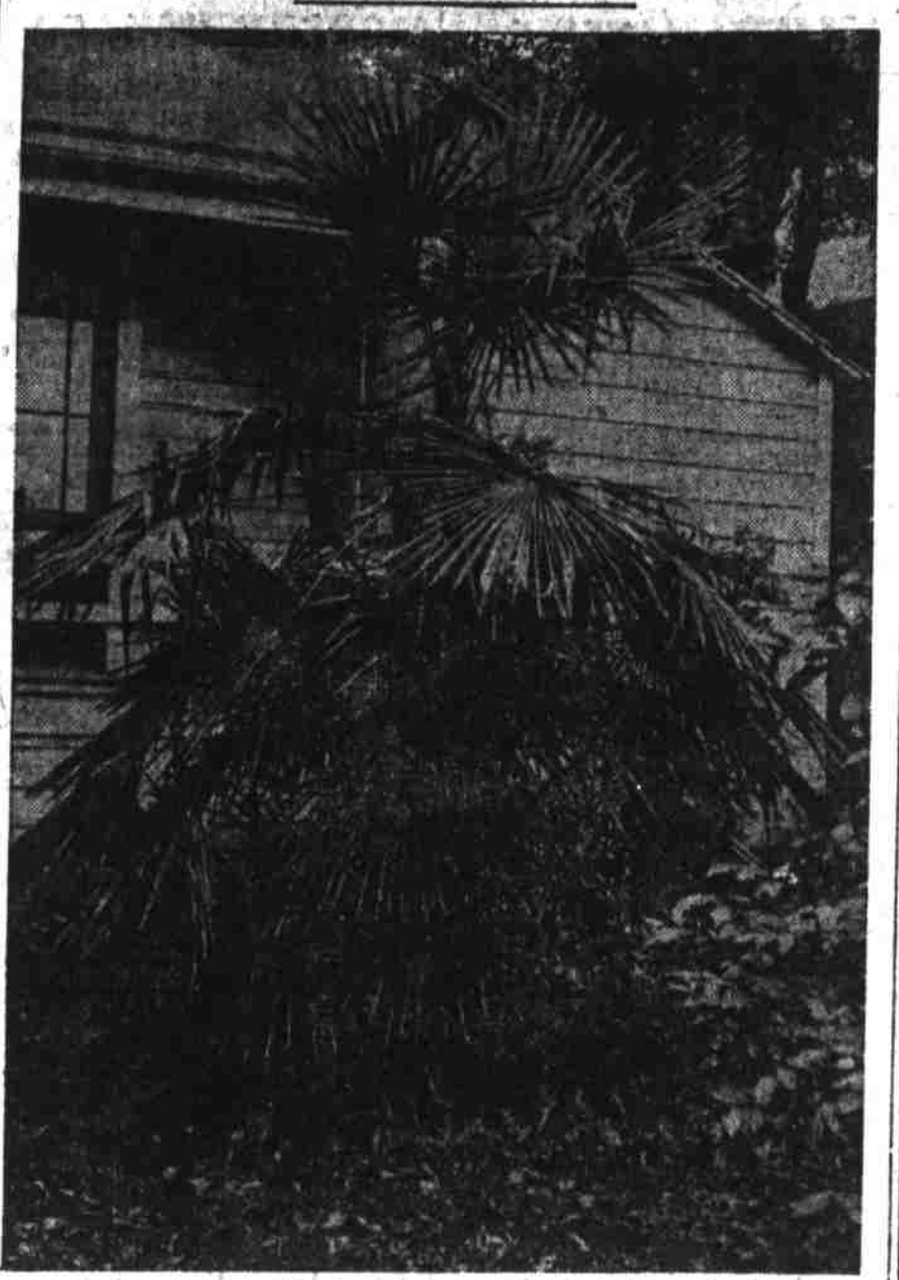

EPISCOPAL WORKERS HOLD CONFERENCE
(Journal Special Service.)
North Adams, Mass., July 6.—The fourth summer conference of Episcopal church workers opened here today, to continue until July 21. The conference is held under the auspices of the Seabury society of New York, an organization named after the first Episcopal bishop in America.

Among the prominent speakers to be heard at the session this year are Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, Bishop Vinton of Western Massachusetts, Bishop Partridge of Japan, Bishop McVikar of Rhode Island, George Foster Feabody, Rev. Dr. William C. Brown of Braintree, Rev. Dr. E. H. Wellman of Brooklyn, and Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim of Washington, D. C.

ADMIRAL REITER IS RETIRED FROM NAVY
(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, D. C., July 6.—Rear Admiral George C. Reiter closed his active career in the navy today, having been transferred to the retired list by operation of the law on account of age. Admiral Reiter comes from Pennsylvania and graduated from the United States Naval academy in the class of 1846. He has been service in many parts of the world and during the past five years has commanded the battleship Wisconsin and served as member of the light-house board.

Wise Counsel From the South.
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it became a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." GREAT PALM TREE IS NOVELTY IN BEAUTIFUL PORTLAND GARDEN

A great palm tree growing in the open air is one of the novelties of L. L. Schuman's garden at 281 Chapman street. This fine specimen of tropical growth seems to feel no incongruity in its near proximity to a tall fir and a sturdy holly tree. It has for a neighbor also a fine clump of bamboo and all these flourish amiably together. The tree was planted 18 years ago, when it was a pot plant about a foot high. It has now reached a height of about 18 feet and the trunk is at least 34 inches through and matted with long hairy fibre. During all this time it has grown out of doors, and all the winter storms have not harmed it. This is largely due to the excellent care which it has received for it has always been carefully wrapped in the winter, especially at the top, where the young shoots might be harmed. Mr. Schuman is justly proud of his palm tree and doubts that there is another open air grown palm in the city.

CHARLESTON BLUE JACKETS GAVE SPLENDID MINSTREL PERFORMANCE

George Primrose, Lew Dockstader and all other old-time minstrels were swept overboard the United States cruiser Charleston last night when the blue-jackets forming the Neptune Minstrels delighted a large audience of friends with one of the most enjoyable amateur performances that has been held in Portland for many months. From the time the ship's band played the overture until the curtain dropped the fun was uproarious and the delighted jacks and their friends laughed themselves hoarse over the antics and jokes of the merry black-face men. The jokes were younger than usually found in minstrel shows and brought forth a laugh at every turn. From interludes, S. Murray Williams, down to end men every performer was a star. Topical songs and topical hits made up the program of the first part while a clever olio filled the remainder of the entertainment. The ship was prettily arranged for last night's show. A stage was erected forward and the forecastle awning was spread. More than 500 guests were present and the sailors proved excellent hosts.

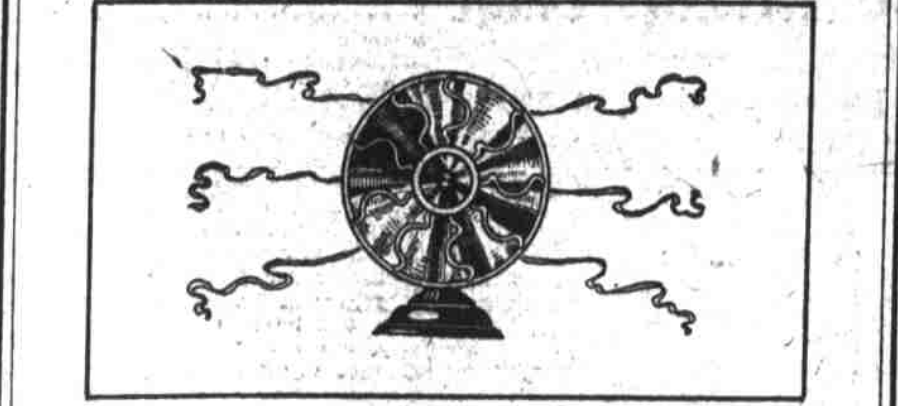

FINE PROGRAMS ARE ARRANGED

W. C. T. U. Headquarters Tent Will Be Feature of Chautauqua Class Work.
For many years the W. C. T. U. with its fine large headquarters tent, has been a prominent feature of Chautauqua class work and its special W. C. T. U. day. This year plans have been made for an interesting institute program.

LUSCIOUS ROYAL ANNE CHERRIES GROWN NEAR CITY

About the only persons in Portland who are not complaining of the high price of cherries are eastern visitors, who consider themselves lucky to get cherries like the Oregon product for 10 cents a pound. The above cut shows 5 cents worth of Royal Annes, taken life size, bought at a fruit store. They were picked up at random and the quarter in the center of the pile shows their size. To easterners the product puts a quietus on the old saying that there is only one bite to a cherry. The average price of the fruit in and around Portland is 5 cents a pound, but this year the average was raised to 7 1/2 cents, due to weather conditions that decreased the size of the crop, while the quality was enhanced. Those shown in the picture are not the largest variety grown in Oregon, where the Bing and Black Republicans and other varieties grow in great abundance. Many tons of the delicious fruit is grown in the yards surrounding Portland residences.

These Cherries Are Larger Than a Silver Quarter.

DRIFTING TOWARDS BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Many people who are neglecting symptoms of kidney trouble, hoping "it will wear away," are drifting towards Bright's Disease, which is kidney trouble in one of its worst forms.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

stops irregularities, strengthens the urinary organs and builds up the worn-out tissues of the kidneys so they will perform their functions properly. Healthy kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood as it passes through them. Diseased kidneys do not, and the poisonous waste matter is carried by the circulation to every part of the body, causing dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, sluggish liver, irregular heart action, etc. If you have any signs of Kidney or Bladder Trouble commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once, as it will cure a slight disorder in a few days and prevent a fatal malady. It is pleasant to take and benefits the whole system.

How to Find Out.
You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE should be taken at once.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.
G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick-dust sediment and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed, and am evidently cured to stay cured, and I heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."

Two Sizes, 50 Cents and $1.00.
