

Miss Madeleine Searcy Smith, a Prominent Bride This Week.

ASIDE from the entertaining for the officers of the battalions there has been little entertaining the past week. The first of the week was well taken up with work on the People's institute opera in which almost all the social set had become interested and for the success of which scores of people were lending their aid. The sociability on the Fourth was mostly in a quiet way, small parties going to the seashore or to the links or up or down the river.

The movement to the mountains and the beach will begin in earnest now that July is here and in a week or two there will be practically none left in town.

A wedding of considerable interest that will take place this week is that of Miss Madeleine Searcy Smith and Harold Fessenden Charters of Eureka, California. The marriage will take place at 8:30 Wednesday evening at St. Stephen's chapel. Miss Smith spent the past winter in Eureka and has been away from Portland most of the time for the past five years, but she has many friends in town. She is a granddaughter of the late Joseph S. Smith, a pioneer of 1844, who was district attorney during Buchanan's administration of the Oregon territory, then comprising Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Her father, the late Preston Carter Smith, was prominently connected with Portland's later prosperity. Her mother was a member of an old southern family and a descendant of Matthew Lyon, the Irish-American patriot of history. Mr. Charters is a Canadian by birth, but is making his home in Eureka.

Mrs. Walter V. Smith gave a luncheon at the golf links Monday in honor of Miss Smith, her niece. She entertained the bridesmaids, Miss Gladys Weidner, Miss Genevieve Park and Miss Elizabeth Searcy, the maid of honor, Miss Susie A. Smith, and four other girl friends of the bride-elect—Miss Hazel Depp, Miss Hazel Weidner, Miss Ruth Church and Miss Ernestine Felling. The best man at the wedding will be Andrew Beckwith of Montana, and the ushers, C. E. Webb, J. Cameron, Leonard Smith and Lloyd Smith.

Miss Gladys Ross entertained with five tables of five hundred Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Ada Burke, who has recently returned from a year at Smith college. Miss Ruby Crichton won the prize. The guests were Miss Stella Frohman, Miss Clara Weidner, Miss Leslie Weidner, Miss Ruth Honeyman, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Bessie Parker, Miss Margaret Sallenius, Miss Lesley Smith, Miss Helen Barber, Miss Arline Davies, Miss Dorothy Holbrook, Miss Olive Felling, Miss Silcox, Miss Mary Livingstone, Miss Jean Brownlie, Miss Nora Stewart, Miss Malda Hart and Miss Celeste Moore.

Mrs. James Dougherty entertained with a little evening musical last week for her sister, Miss Kinney, who is visiting her. Mrs. Dougherty is a charming hostess who recently came here from Salt Lake City and lives on Williamette Heights. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates, Miss Mabelle Rendell, Miss Liela Shelby, Dr. Foster, of the Charleston, Jordan Zan and Ernest Webb.

Governor and Mrs. George E. Chamberlain have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marguerite, to Roy Arthur Buller, of Nampa, Mississippi. The marriage is to take place sometime in September. Miss Chamberlain returned a few months ago from Mississippi.

Wickersham was Miss Aida Umphlette of Grants Pass and her many friends in town. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wickersham entertained a few Seattle and Portland friends informally at a musicale.

The Association of Collegiate alumnae gave a tea Friday afternoon at the home of the present president, Mrs. George Haskell Marsh, in compliment to the undergraduate college girls who have just returned from their winter work. Several of the preparatory school graduates who are planning to take college work were invited too.

Miss Helen MacEwan returned Thursday from New York where she had been studying music. In November she is to be married to Morris A. Van Houten, of New Mexico, her engagement to whom was announced several weeks ago.

A party of young people including a number of the Pi Delta Kappa crowd from Portland academy, went to Baticada Monday night on a picnic.

Miss Alta Smith and Miss Marguerite Hume returned late in the week from a visit with friends east after finishing the year at Smith college.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Archer and their son, Worthington, spent last week at Niagara Falls. They have been for some time in Boston.

Mrs. Roy E. Norton of Pendleton is in the city with her little son Skirrik, who is seriously ill at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. Edwards of Hay Creek, who spent a great deal of time in Portland last year, is the guest of Mrs. Walter F. Burrell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Adams left yesterday on a trip east. Mr. Adams had returned the week before from Honolulu.

Mrs. Walter F. Burrell entertained Mrs. Swinburne Tuesday afternoon at bridge. There were four tables.

Miss Liela Shelby returned last Monday from a fortnight's visit with friends in San Francisco.

Mrs. Robert Lewis and Miss Hoy returned Wednesday afternoon from a month's trip east.

Miss Frances Wilson has returned from a year abroad and will spend the summer at home.

William Dolph, the young son of Mrs. C. A. Dolph, has gone to China for the summer.

Miss Melland of London is the guest of General and Mrs. L. M. Anderson.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

To the girls who were returning from college and their friends the Women's club of Aurora gave a most unique progressive top party on their guest day, June 27, at the home of Mrs. Helen C. Hurst. The invitations were water-color postcards in the shape of tops, as were also the favors of the afternoon. The first prize, a dainty book, was won by Mrs. L. I. Snyder and the consolation prize, a pretty top, by Mrs. E. Kell. Punch was served by Mrs. W. W. Giesy on the veranda, which had been transformed by fish nets, ferns and sweet peas into a bower of beauty. The interior walls were banked with ferns and crimson ramblers and tall baskets filled with asparagus fern added greatly to the beauty of the living room.

Those in the receiving line were: Mrs. Helen C. Hurst, Mrs. J. B. Hurst, Mrs. W. W. Giesy and Mrs. A. F. Will. The tables were in charge of Mrs. J. Weber, Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Mrs. H. L. Hents and Mrs. Charles Roth. Miss Clara Irvin, Miss Harriet M. Will, Mrs. E. G. Carpenter and Miss Matilda E. Fry distributed favors. Miss Anna Boner was scorekeeper.

Dainty refreshments were served and the top idea was carried out in the ices. Those entertained by the club were: Mrs. Flora Beck, Mrs. A. A. Crieill, Mrs. B. J. Grim, Mrs. Jim Feller, Mrs. J. I. A number of the pupils' mothers and friends were present and after the program enjoyed a social time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Emerick celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary in their pretty home on East Thirty-sixth and Salmon streets Wednesday evening. The house was elaborately decorated with sweet peas in red, white and blue and with American flags. The souvenirs were tin hearts. A guessing contest was a very interesting feature, and two school children were awarded the prizes for knowing the most flags of all nations. Miss Ermine Hubbard sang "When Song Is Sweetest" after which Mrs. Ella Jones played the Lohengrin wedding march, and Rev. T. B. Ford of Sunnyside recited the knot, with the same ceremony that was performed 10 years ago. Mr. Owens played two violin solos. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Patterson, A. L. Garey, Mrs. Ella Jones, Mrs. George Marney, Miss Mildred Morse, M. E. Hunter, J. P. Harney, M. Barnes, Mrs. Wooden, W. H. Mower, William Owens, Dick Owens, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harney, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Dr. and Mrs. Ford.

Saturday afternoon a week ago the women of the Portnomah club gave an informal reception at the home of Mrs. W. C. Jones, 250 Bain street, in honor of the outgoing and the incoming presidents, Mrs. Nina Larowe and Mrs. Arthur C. Dayton. The home of the hostess was decorated in the club colors, purple and gold. A short musical and literary program was given by Mrs. Florence Sullivan, Mrs. Nina Larowe, Miss Carline and others. Later in the afternoon the guests repaired to the lawn, where table games were played, the first prize being won by Mrs. T. A. Sherman and the consolation by Mrs. R. M. Martin. Among those present were: Dr. Mary Thompson, Mrs. W. S. Miller, Mrs. E. Himes, Mrs. C. Grimsbach, Mrs. A. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. T. A. Sherman, Mrs. R. M. Martin, Mrs. Nina Larowe, Mrs. Arthur C. Dayton, Mrs. Bessie G. Stone, Mrs. W. C. Jones and many others.

Miss Eugenia Craig entertained last week with a "college shower" in honor of Miss Lucile Eastman, who leaves very soon to attend Mills seminary. The house was decorated with flowers and pennants, yellow and white, the Mills colors, predominating. Many games were played, prizes being won by Miss Beatrice Fichtner and Miss Addie Bowle. At a late hour in the afternoon the dining-room was thrown open and disclosed a very pretty sight. Just over the table hung a large "M," made of yellow and white daisies, the college flower. The place cards were yellow and white pennants and the favors were tiny musical instruments, filled with yellow and white bonbons. The refreshments carried out the same colors. As the guests were seated Miss Eastman was presented with a basket which held the gifts of her friends. The afternoon was brought to a close by each guest giving a wish for Miss Eastman. Those enjoying Miss Craig's hospitality were Miss Lucile Eastman, Miss Jane Knox, Miss Edna Jones, Miss Elsa Koerber, Miss Addie Bowle, Miss Beatrice Fichtner, Miss Edith Sheehy, Miss Pauline Fithian, Miss Edna Beach, Miss Louise Bradley, Miss Frances Dayton, Miss Lillian Kutz, Miss Ada Williams, Miss Georgina McMillan, Miss Lillias Ewing, Miss Christie Burns, Miss Orville Joslyn and Miss Hilda Lancelfield.

There was a jolly party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods at South Mount Tabor July 4. As early as 8 o'clock in the morning the guests began to arrive. It was an old-fashioned basket picnic affair. Mrs. Woods furnished butter, cream, coffee and tea for all, and some delicious pies. The feast was spread on the south porch and 25 people sat down to it. After luncheon dancing was indulged in, to the music of violin and piano. The cherry trees formed a popular resort, and all were told to help themselves. The following guests were present: (Continued on Page Forty-seven.)
