MOYER GIVES LIE TO HARRY ORCHARD

NO MONEY FOR CRIMES

President of Western Federation Proves Good Witness for Defense in Haywood Trial—Explains Connection With Orchard.

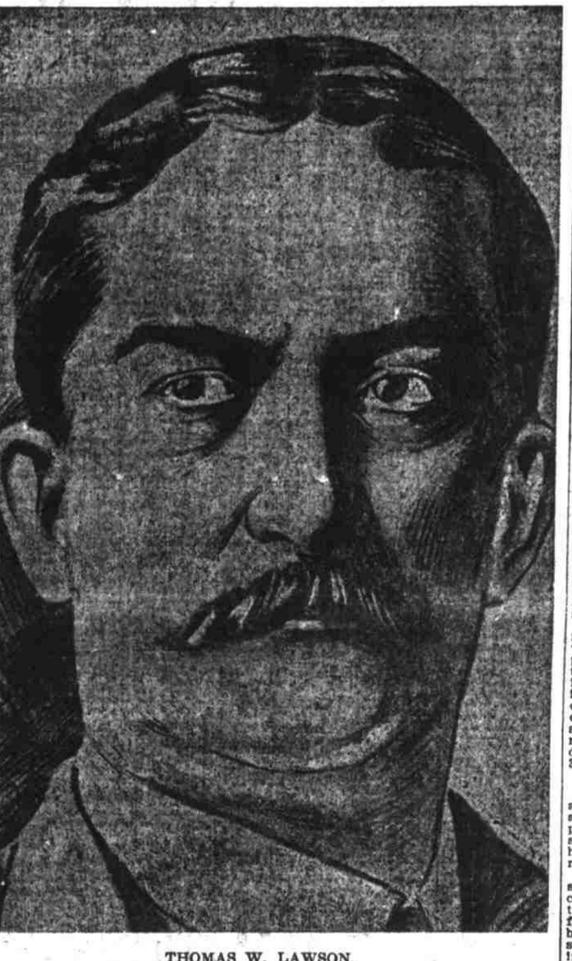

(By John Nevins.) Boise, Ida., June 10.—With Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, on the stand, the defense began today leading its trump cards to win the great stake, the life of William D. Haywood, accused of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg. Moyer proved a good witness. He was calm, cool and collected and recited in an even voice his connection with the federation from the day he first became a member in Lead, South Dakota, to the day he was taken from his home and hurried under guard to this city.

Orchard never received a cent from me to commit any crime," he asserted. In these words the real purpose of the defense was made apparent. If Orchard committed any crimes, as he himself asserts, he did so, not at the request of Moyer, Haywood or Pettibone, but because of personal reasons or arrangements.

Mrs. Moyer indignantly occupied a seat in the courtroom and through the tedious day's proceedings the witness's eyes many times rested lovingly on her. She is indignant over the publication of the light on conditions in Cripple Creek district not already thrown on it by previous witnesses.

"The flowers that bloom in the spring, have nothing to do with the case, tra la!" For these are all flowers that are raised in summer. But one girl was heard to complain that if they had let their exhibit earlier she would have had better ones to show. So she evidently thought that the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la, had something to do with the case, tra la. But the majority of them said they would have had more flowers later, so the "case" is about evened up.

Eight Die Before Rescuers Arrive—Men Working on Adjoining Structure in Course of Construction Caught by Falling Walls.

(Journal Special Service.) Philadelphia, July 10.—Eight persons are known to be dead and it is probable that between 30 and 40 casualties will be the result of the collapse of Bridge-street iron pipe factory at Fifteenth street and Washington avenue this afternoon. Fifteen dead and injured have already been dug from beneath the debris, eight of this number having expired before the rescuing party reached them. Of the other seven, five are probably fatally injured and the other two severely hurt.

When the crash was heard a fire alarm was turned in and every available ambulance called. The police department turned out its wagons and some of the injured were carted to the hospitals in pushcarts and wheelbarrows.

Investigation in Made. Investigation into the cause of the disaster is being made by the authorities, although little has been learned as yet. Survivors of the accident say that the roof sagged, crashing downward, while the front wall and side supports crumpled.

MARKET BREAKS UNDER WAR TALK

Rumors of Conflict Between America and Japan Cause Brokers to Worry.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, July 10.—Rumors of an impending war between the United States and Japan were the direct cause of a sharp break in the value of American securities on the London stock market today, which caused a similar movement in New York prices. In this city the most secure stock on the exchange was cast aside. Amalgamated Copper lost nearly $3 a share at the closing. The loss in Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul stock reached over $4.50 a share, and at the low level, the company's common stock was $4 a share under the price of yesterday.

GOVERNMENT IS HEAVILY FINED

Federal Law Violators in Oregon Cost Uncle Sam Thousands Yearly.

An idea of the cost of prosecuting violators of the federal laws in Oregon can be gained by the fact that United States Attorney William C. Bristol has made a requisition for $50,000 with which to carry on the work. This money is used only for witness and jury fees and does not pay the salaries of the employees engaged in the work, or the expenses of the court.

MAILS WEIGHED SHOW INCREASE

Evidence Furnished of the Growth of Portland's Post-office Business.

(Continued on Page Two.) Evidence of the wonderful growth of the business of the Portland postoffice is shown in relative statements, compiled by Superintendent Holloway on the amounts of mail weighed in 1898 and the present year. The weights do not furnish a fair comparison because those of 1899 were made in October, one of the busiest postal months of the year, while those of 1907 were made this month, which is one of the dullest in the year.
