

CONTEST VOTES CREDITED TO EVERY CONTESTANT

Boys and Girls Grafted Into Geographical Districts and Illustration Given of Manner of Counting Off the Awards at Finish of the Educational Contest.

The second score of the Journal's Educational Contest is presented today. This includes all votes cast for every contestant up to 6 p. m. Tuesday last.

There is plenty of room in the second, third and fourth districts for new candidates, and there should be more. Every town in Oregon must contain one or more boys or girls who would like to have one of the scholarships offered in The Journal's list of awards. The scholarships offered in this competition are published three times or more every week in a two-column advertisement. New candidates will be received at any time. The race is just beginning, and now is the time to begin.

This contest district is made up of Multnomah county and includes Portland. Contestants in this district compete with one another and, at the same time, with all contestants in other parts of the northwest.

1—Penley, Mattie, 384 Hawthorne Ave., Portland, Or.	11,960
2—Russell, William, 384 Dupont St., Portland, Or.	10,385
3—Grant, Alice D., 721 Willamette boulevard, Portland, Or.	8,310
4—Heckart, Earl, 385 Chapman St., Portland, Or.	8,150
5—Mullen, David G., 323 San Rafael St., Portland, Or.	5,140
6—O'Leary, J. A., 491 East Twenty-eighth St., Portland, Or.	2,625
7—Muenzer, Herbert, 115 Spencer St., Portland, Or.	2,485
8—Moore, Ray H., Troutdale, Or.	2,445
9—Jones, Mina A., Olds, Westmore & King, Portland, Or.	2,425
10—Edwards, Edison, Milwaukie, Or.	1,680
11—Wilcox, Alta M., Clatskanie, Or.	980
12—Olson, Sophie, 398 Ivy St., Portland, Or.	825
13—McKay, Douglas, 347 Taylor St., Portland, Or.	650
14—James, Cecil A., 368 Seventh St., Portland, Or.	375
15—Howell, Raymond, Holbrook, Or.	300

Contest district No. 2 comprises the Willamette valley except Multnomah county (which forms a district by itself) as far south as Eugene. Contestants in this district compete with one another and at the same time with all contestants in all parts of Oregon.

1—Grant, Alice D., Dallas, Oregon	8,160
2—Seltice, Peter, Chemawa, Oregon	6,015
3—Heckart, Earl, Corvallis, Oregon	2,685
4—Read, J. Percy, 806 Walnut street, Albany, Oregon	2,325
5—Talbert, Harlan, Albany, Oregon	2,090
6—Walker, Glenn E., Albany, Oregon	1,925
7—Bowersox, Jennie, Corvallis, Oregon	1,000

Contest district No. 3 includes all that part of Oregon south of Eugene and the counties of Oregon bordering on the Pacific ocean. Contestants in this district compete against one another and at the same time against contestants in all other parts of the northwest.

1—Hewitt, Anise, Roseburg, Oregon	175
-----------------------------------	-----

Contest district No. 4 comprises all of eastern Oregon and eastern Washington. Contestants in this district compete with one another and also against all other contestants.

1—Cochran, Lillian, Monument, Oregon	2,450
--------------------------------------	-------

The above score list shows the relative standing of The Journal's contestants as measured against one another district by district. If this were the last day of the contest and awards were to be counted off on the standing of contestants as shown above, the result would be as follows:

Mattie Penley of Portland, district No. 1, having the highest standing of all contestants, first choice of all scholarships and the first award in cash, $200. If she took $200, the purse offered by The Journal she could not choose a scholarship which includes board. The cash awards are given to the student to pay board and lodging while going to school.

The second choice of scholarships and the second cash prize is passed on to leading contestant in another district. It would be the contestant of the remaining districts who had the largest number of votes. For instance, in the above score list, Alice D. Grant of Dallas has not as many votes as William Russell of district No. 1. But a contestant of district No. 1 has had a call on the awards, so the choice passes to Miss Grant, the highest contestant of another district, even though she has fewer votes than Russell. This plan gives the country districts, where contest work may be more difficult, an even chance against the cities. Consequently, Miss Grant would have the second cash prize of $150 and the second choice of scholarships.

Continuing on around. Going on around districts for the second time, we pass to the next highest contestant of another district and find Peter Seltice of Chemawa standing as No. 2 in district No. 2. He has the sixth cash prize of $50 and the sixth choice of the valuable scholarships. No more contestants have reported votes from districts No. 3 and 4, so the rest of the prizes would be served to the contestants in districts 1 and 2, the choice alternating between the remaining contestants in those districts until all were served, as follows:

Hilda Brant of Portland, award $40 and seventh choice of scholarships.

Earl Heckart of Corvallis, award of $30 and eighth choice of the scholarships.

Assuming that the above is the last score of the contest, for the purpose of illustration, the third choice of cash prizes and scholarships would pass to Lillian Cochran of Monument, Oregon, the leading and at present the only contestant to report votes from district No. 4, eastern Oregon. Miss Cochran would take the $100 in cash and any scholarship in The Journal's list of 45 scholarships, except a scholarship, including board.

The fourth cash prize of $50 and the fourth call on the scholarships would go to Anise Hewitt of Roseburg, the leading and so far the only contestant to report votes from district No. 3, all that part of Oregon south of Eugene and the counties of Oregon bordering on the Pacific ocean. In the contest awards.

The fifth cash award and the fifth choice of scholarships now passes back to district No. 1, as all the leading contestants in all other districts have been served. William Russell will come in for the fifth cash prize of $60, and the fifth choice of scholarships. The remaining contestants in district No. 1 would have choice of all the rest of the scholarships.

Forty-five Scholarships.

The Journal is now offering 45 scholarships, and so far only 24 contestants have reported votes. It would appear that this paper is offering more awards than it has contestants to claim them. But this contest is a new one. The Journal has never before offered a prize of $50,000 in value. As the contestants now stand every one may capture the particular scholarship asked for. But those now in the race would better make good headway in order to be sure that they will have preference on the last day of the contest.

According to the above, the contestants who would name guests for the trip to Alaska in August, the entire trip to be made at the expense of The Journal, would be Mattie Penley, for district No. 1; Alice D. Grant, for district No. 2; Anise Hewitt, for district No. 3; and Lillian Cochran, for district No. 4. This is assuming that these candidates would hold first place until the date in August when the call is issued for the excursionists to be named.

RECORD PRICE FOR TEAM IN DOUGLAS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., July 11.—Among the business changes in this city within the past few days are the following: J. O. Newland sold his grocery business to Paterson & Stauffer. McCallen & Rast sold their cigar store to the firm of Jennings & Kent. The new owners of both deals taking charge at once. Another transfer of some significance is the fine span of draft horses belonging to Mrs. Van Buren, district No. 4. The large draft, she having received the handsome sum of $850, or about $600 for the team. This is about the largest price ever received for a team of horses in Douglas county.

Richardson and Cook Are Devoting Their Energies Now to Their Bohemia Holdings.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Mineral, Or., July 11.—Richardson & Cook, who own valuable mining property in this camp, have recently sold their big copper property in Douglas county for a good round sum and are now devoting their entire time to their Bohemia holdings. Their copper property was known as the Copper Quarry and it is situated a few miles east of Yonahla and near the Southern Pacific railroad. They sold this mine to a Mr. Carl of Los Angeles, who, it is said, will begin extensive development at once. Ore from this mine won for Richardson & Cook both silver and bronze medals for copper ore exhibits at the Lewis and Clark fair in 1905. They have taken some very fine ore from this property, some shows by Mr. Richardson which is almost pure native copper. Richardson & Cook will now develop their Bohemia property and spend their time here.

Work is progressing as rapidly as possible on the Twin Rocks Mining company's property, the miners being in some very hard rock. The crosscut is in 160 feet. Seven feet of hard quartzite was cut last week and it shows some mineral. Prospecting work is being done and some new finds were recently made of good free milling ore.

Frank McIntyre, secretary of the Bohemia Miners' association, has gone out after about a year's stay in camp. He has been busy all this time developing some property he owns on Rock creek in connection with some Salem people. He reports good showings and states that he will be out in the valley part of the summer on a vacation. Considerable development has been done on this property during the past few years and good ore is opened in all the tunnels.

THE HOW, THE WHEN, THE WHY

Free tuition and expense money during the school year are put within the reach of the deserving, energetic and persevering young people who reside within the circulation field of The Oregon Journal.

The Journal makes it possible for boys and girls to earn the scholarships by securing subscriptions to The Journal by making advance collections from people already taking the paper. The student who engages in this work has a valuable business experience quite as essential as his studies at school. The individual giving the subscription gets the full value for his money, while at the same time helping the student. And the newspaper enjoys a permanent growth of circulation among the best class of people.

SUBSCRIBERS WILL DECIDE.

Subscribers to The Journal will decide who shall be the beneficiaries in this contest.

Every subscriber to The Journal will be entitled to vote for one contestant, according to the length of time for which the subscription is paid in advance. A schedule of the votes allowed by the subscribers will be printed every period of time is printed today.

The work of the contestants will consist in rounding up subscribers, both old and new, and securing their votes. More votes will be allowed on new subscriptions than on old, as it will only through increasing its circulation that The Journal will receive return for its large outlay of cash and scholarships. The more new subscribers the contestants find, the more votes for them.

AWARDS MUST BE EARNED.

Through the combination of awards above outlined any boy or girl has an opportunity, during the summer vacation, to earn cash and a scholarship.

At the start it must be understood that these rich rewards are to be earned, not by lottery or chance, but by tact and work and business ability, which will reflect credit upon the winners and give them a standing in the community.

Instruction in canvassing and in managing a contest campaign will be given to all who apply for it. Men and women who attain distinction in active affairs do so by developing the very faculties which are discovered, brought out and trained by every student who enters The Journal contest.

TRIP TO ALASKA.

The leader of every district, on August 1, may name the person who nominated him or some person who has supported him according to his own discretion, to go on a trip to Alaska, entirely at the expense of The Journal.

Alaska trip is one of the best summer outings known to travelers. The tourist steamers are palatial and pass through the finest scenery on the coast of America. The party under the auspices of The Journal will be given an opportunity to see the best of everything. The expense will be sold including transportation, steamer from Portland to Alaska and return, for all guests invited by the leading contestants.

Very often some kindly disposed person takes such an interest in the contest as to join in the hunt for votes for the contestants. The excursion offer gives contestants opportunity to reward such zealous friends.

SAME CHANCE FOR ALL.

For the purpose of awarding the scholarships and cash prizes, the field of the Journal has been divided into four districts as follows:

Multnomah county, Oregon.

Willamette valley (as far south as Eugene).

Southern Oregon (all south of Eugene).

Very liberal measure of votes is allowed for subscriptions to the semi-weekly edition of The Journal to favor contestants working in districts where the population is scattered. The voting schedule is so keyed and the field is so divided that contestants living in the country or on a rural route have an equal advantage with the contestant living in the city of Portland. The young people living in the country have this advantage over their city rivals; they enjoy a larger personal acquaintance.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION.

The candidate who gets the close of the contest has the largest number of votes, irrespective of locality or district, will have first choice of all scholarships.

The second choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first choice. The third choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in a district which does not get either the first or second choice. The fourth choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first, second or third choice. The remaining scholarships will be given out to contestants according to their standing, alternating between the districts.

The cash prizes will be given out similarly to the contestants, however, who calls for a scholarship which includes board will not be given a cash prize in addition to the board. He or she, however, will keep the cash commissions earned during the contest for new subscribers.

RATES AND CREDITS.

Prepaid subscriptions, only, count for votes in the Oregon Journal contest. Advances being allowed for new subscriptions, but no payment on old subscriptions. In order to procure votes on an old subscription, the advance payment must be made not less than three months.
