WEATHER REPORT

A portion of the high pressure area over the northwest has crossed the Rocky mountains and moved east to the Dakotas. The barometer continues relatively low in the southwest and relatively high over the east gulf and Atlantic states. The small disturbance yesterday over Alberta has advanced to Saskatchewan, and another small disturbance occupies the lake region. Fair weather continues in the Pacific states with temperatures slightly above normal.

THE RIVER.

The river will fall at the rate of about three tenths of a foot a day for the next four or five days.

WANT AD. HAPPENINGS

Almost every want advertisement that is printed causes "something to happen" in this city.

And the wonderful thing about it all is that in practically every business transaction which is brought about between two people through a want ad, both parties are pleased, both are gainers.

For about all want ad transactions are based upon two "wants" instead of one -the want-to-sell and the want-to-secure. One ad satisfies both of these wantsand so is well named a "want ad."

SITUATIONS WANTED-FEMALE.

LADY WOULD LIKE TO KEEP house for widower, who has no small children. Call 523 Clay.
