

CONTRACTS ASSASSIN

despite the weary days and thousands of dollars already spent trying to learn the truth. In fact, even money is freely offered by the sporting men that this will be the result. And the lawyers and others who claim they can read jury signs are parties to such bets. The state's rebuttal will be strong. There are some star witnesses here who will recite some of the things which happened in the Cripple Creek district. There is Nelson Franklin, former mayor of Victor, once a strong Democratic politician and head of the mineowners' association. F. C. Hamlin, secretary of the association and prosecuting attorney of Teller county. Holman, Campbell, Carlton and other mineowners and plain citizens who will tell what they saw. Certainly Colorado's dirty linen is being well washed at Idaho's expense, and it has no grounds for complaint that it is not being given the center of the stage.

Haywood was on the stand all morning and made a good witness. He and Borah fenced continually, and it was plain that Idaho's senator relished the fact that he had met a foe man worthy of his steel sword. He was beyond nearly a great one, and his conduct of the cross-examination of both Moyer and Haywood has been beyond criticism. He has succeeded in establishing absolutely that Orchard's relation with the union leaders and unions in the Cripple Creek district was much closer than that of ordinary members and that in many instances he had free exit and entry to the federation headquarters in Denver.

Never Paid for Crime.
Haywood reiterated his unqualified denial of Orchard's charges that he had been paid to commit and attempt to commit crime and swore positively he never paid him a cent for any illegal purpose.

"Never in my life did I pay Orchard or any one else, to kill Steunenberg, or commit a crime against any one. I know Orchard simply as a fellow member of the federation, who, when driven out of Cripple Creek, came to the headquarters at intervals. His story connecting me with his alleged crimes is false in every particular. Haywood on the stand in his own defense made the above declaration today in strong, unqualified terms.

Haywood also gave the lie to one of his own witnesses, Mrs. Lottie Day, when he said he had no recollection of ever going to the Belmont rooming house to meet Orchard. He also swore that he never bought a horse and buggy for Orchard to use in trying to assassinate Governor Peabody. General Bail, Judge Goddard and Judge Gebbard.

He first met Adams in the spring of 1903, when he was brought to headquarters by Ed Minster, prior to going on a prospecting trip. He next heard from him in the fall at Ogden, when he wired him for $75, which was sent but was never paid back. He next saw him at Cripple Creek, and later in Denver, as a depositee. He knew "Art" Baatlan, a member of the Cripple Creek union, and Ed Minster. He never sent them money nor employed them for any illegal purpose. He last saw Orchard in August, 1905.

Letter From Mrs. Orchard.
In October he received a letter from Mrs. Orchard, asking where he was. He recalled that Orchard said when he was going to Alaska that he spoke of him as wanting to kill her and that he said he was going to desert her because she had a family. He told her he believed he was in Alaska. He next heard of Orchard in connection with the Steunenberg crime through the newspapers. He had had no interest in Steunenberg for years.

Haywood declared Orchard never mentioned the vindicator explosion to him and never met him in his office in Denver in 1903. He next heard of him when the vindicator killing was discussed. He first met Orchard in January, 1904, and next in his office in March, when Moyer was preparing to go to Oureg. He knew Moyer bought guns.

After Moyer was arrested for deas-

FEW MARRIAGEABLE SHOW GIRL BEAUTIES LEFT ON THE STAGE

(Journal Special Service.)
Chicago, July 12.—Scions of Pittsburg millionaires, little sons of the rich and other foolish youths have good cause to be alarmed at the condition of the chorus girl matrimonial market. It has become very stagnant. Most of the eligible Corymbes have been carried off in the sensational epidemic of the past year, and the supply of "broilers" and "show girls" falls far short of the demand.

Last call for automobile elopements and midnight weddings—there are only a few of the charmers open for bids. The dearth of marriageable stage beauties became apparent today at the Whitney opera house when 400 girls offered themselves as candidates for the front rows in four road companies of "A Knight for a Day," which will be sent out the coming season. It was discovered that 299 were married, or had been, the single exception being a child of 12, whose anxious parents are probably wiring the police.

and furnish material for newspaper articles, all of which are without foundation. He concludes his report with the statement that the office would be justified in asking that Mr. Disney be relieved from his contract for carrying the mails.

He heard nothing more until he received the cipher telegram regarding the hiring of lawyers for Orchard. Haywood was still being cross-examined regarding Cripple Creek developments when recess was ordered.

BIG DEAL AT LINNTON

Purchase of 188 Acres Adjoining Clark & Wilson Mill by Columbia Engineering Works—To Erect New Plant Thereon.

An important real estate deal was closed yesterday when the Columbia Engineering works purchased 188 acres of land at Linnton adjoining the Clark & Wilson mill from John Watt for $40,000. The property had been held under an option by the engineering company since last fall which accounts for the relatively small sum paid by the purchasers.

It is the intention of the engineering company to begin the erection of a new plant fronting on the river and much larger than the present plant at Tenth and Johnson streets immediately as soon as the new buildings are finished. The Portland plant will be moved to the new location and the present plant dismantled.

This purchase marks the beginning of an exodus of the large industrial companies of the city to the lower harbor water frontage and grounds which can be purchased at a reasonable figure. It is understood that other of the large companies of the city are now negotiating for locations in that district. The Northern Pacific tracks pass through the tract, which makes shipping facilities for the mill. The transaction is regarded as having a good deal of significance among realty dealers.

CONCERTS AT PARKS

First Program Will Be Rendered at City Pleasure Ground Sunday—Three Events on West Side and Two on East Side Weekly.

Sunday at City park. Tuesday at Holiday park. Wednesday at Plaza park. Thursday at Beach street park. Friday at Forestry building.

This morning the park board decided upon the program of Sunday concerts in the parks, the first of which will begin Sunday afternoon in City park under the direction of Signor DeCaprio. It is the purpose of the board to have three concerts weekly on the west side and two in east side parks, and places have been chosen which are thought to be accessible to the greater number of people.

There is a little doubt about the date for holding the concerts the first week with relation to the Beach street park and the Forestry building, but the matter was left in the hands of the bandmaster and park superintendent for final solution.

Beach street park will be furnished with a bandstand at once, it being the intention to move one from the North Park blocks to that place. At first the musicians will play from chairs here and in front of the Forestry building. If the band is unable to play at Beach park and the Forestry building the City park and Plaza will be substituted.

All of the concerts will be given in the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, except in the case of the City park, when they will be played in the afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock.

COVEY'S RECORD FOUND CLEAR

Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs So Declares.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Madras, Or., July 12.—Supervisor R. Perry, of the office of Indian affairs, completely exonerates Superintendent Claude C. Covey, of the charges recently filed with the department concerning his administration of the Warm Springs Indian reservation, in the report of his investigation, and lays the responsibility for the affairs largely upon John T. Disney, who was formerly a blacksmith in the Indian service, but who resigned his position at the Warm Springs agency shortly after Superintendent Covey took charge there.

This information has been received here in a letter covering the report of Supervisor Perry, directed from the office of Indian affairs, and signed by C. F. Larrabee, acting commissioner. Mr. Disney is present as a contractor for carrying the mail between Madras and the Warm Springs agency and visits the reservation daily. His resignation from the Indian service is said to have been due to friction between himself and Superintendent Covey.

The investigation of the supervisor, according to the letter, on account of the publicity that the matter had obtained.

The letter from the Indian commissioner in part: "The report of the supervisor, who is one of the most trusted in the service of this office, goes into the details of these charges and he says that Mr. Disney is largely responsible for them. In that he has encouraged the Indians to bring their grievances to him and to hatch grievances when they had none; has sympathized with them and lost no opportunity to attack the administration of the superintendent."

"Continuing," the supervisor says that Mr. Disney's officious and meddling disposition and desire for notoriety and to injure Superintendent Covey, have prompted him to file charges and

The letters showed how the youth had betrayed the girl with promises of marriage.

When Mrs. Bowie learned of the wrong done her daughter by Posey she sent her son to him with the demand that he wed the girl. Under pressure Posey promised to marry Priscilla, but after all preparations had been made

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE

Dr. W. S. Lewis, a prominent physician of Canton, Pa., says:—"I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for years, and regard it as the safest and most reliable tonic stimulant."

This well known temperance doctor recalls in his letter a case of a minister's son whose life he saved by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

On October 31st, 1906, Dr. Lewis wrote: "I take pleasure in advising you that I have used Duffy's Malt Whiskey in the sick room for many years, and consider it the purest, safest and most reliable tonic-stimulant I ever used. Even with children it never has any nauseous effect.

"Some fourteen years ago, I recall very distinctly having a case of sthenic bronchitis in Edwin, son of Benj. Tracy, minister of M. E. church, Canton, Pa. One evening I was summoned in haste and found the patient dying from sheer exhaustion, hurried out my hypodermic needle and injected one half ounce of Duffy's Malt Whiskey in each limb. To the surprise of all, the boy began to breathe and could soon take a little Duffy's Malt Whiskey in milk. Brother Tracy was a rank temperance man, but said that thereafter he would never condemn whiskey when used in the proper place, being satisfied it saved his boy's life.

"I have been a temperance man all my life, but have always been a firm believer in the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for medicinal purposes. I also claim that after one has passed fifty-five years (for then one is on the downward path of life), one should take Duffy's Malt Whiskey as a tonic-stimulant. It renovates the system, opens up the secretions, give life and vigor to the generally broken-down tissue and increases longevity. I have no other interest, either direct or indirect, in Duffy's Malt Whiskey than that it has proven to me a genuine article in these days of adulterations."

The doctor's letter is one taken at random from thousands of similar ones received extolling the virtues of this great family medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public. This private process insures quality and flavor. Its softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskeys make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs. Its results are free from that depressing effect caused by poisoning the blood with many medicines. It is a tonic and invigorant for old and young, and its medicinal properties make it invaluable to overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been analyzed many times by the best chemists during the past fifty years and has always been found to be absolutely pure.

Caution.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chime" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

OCTOPUS TAKEN IN NET

This sea monster measures 12 feet from tip to tip of its snake-like arms. It has a sharp, hard mouth, resembling a parrot's bill. Its tentacles are twice as big as the arm of an ordinary man. The giant devilfish was not captured without a hard fight. It was discovered dogging on top of the water and the crew of the Leone cleverly managed to surround it with a strong net. After being awakened the monster fought furiously and it required the combined strength of the three brawny fishermen to land it on the deck of the Leone.
