SCANDAL IN ARMY LIFE

Divorce of Gay Lieutenant Hanson Is End of Early Romance of Occupation of the Philippine Islands by American Soldiers.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, July 12.—Because there have been so many scandals in army life already, Mrs. Caroline Gordon Hanson, whose wedding to Lieutenant L. E. Hanson in Manila five years ago was the climax of one of the first romances of the American occupation of the Philippines, said yesterday, just before obtaining an interlocutory decree, that she dreaded bringing suit for divorce. "For the good of the service," was one of her reasons. Another was that the lieutenant really was an estimable man, although he always was criticizing her taste in hats and dress. On the other hand, she disliked his selections of cigars and civilian scarfs. Besides, she could not bear having him make unkind remarks while she poured his coffee at breakfast.

But behind the divorce is another romance, and when the final decree is entered the wedding bells will ring again for beautiful Mrs. Hanson. Mrs. Hanson will leave on Sunday for New York, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rich and H. Gordon, now live, and friends are expecting her marriage to Captain Albert C. Dalton of the quartermaster's department as soon as the divorce is made absolute.

Mrs. Hanson before her marriage was a society girl of South Carolina, well known in southern capitals as Miss Caroline Gordon. She is a blonde beauty, and when she visited army friends in Manila she created a sensation. She met and finally married Hanson. A few months after the wedding Captain Dalton was transferred to Hanson's regiment and met the young bride. He was several years her senior, but was a handsome, soldierly man, and won her friendship at once.

Then carry the little ten-cent "Vest Pocket" box constantly with you, and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need it.
One Cascaret at a time will promptly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.
