

JAP EDITOR PREDICTS WAR IN NEAR FUTURE

Admiral Yamamoto's Traveling Companion Says Confident With America Is as Certain as the Axiom That Two and Two Make Four—Want Redress for Insults.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, July 13.—That there can be no question of a war between Japan and the United States is as plain as the axiom two and two make four," writes Kojima Matsuoka, a Japanese of high rank, editor of the Kobe Shinbun, one of the most influential Japanese newspapers in an article in the World today. He is here with Admiral Yamamoto. "There is no war party in Japan," he continues. "There are about 10,000 out of 60,000,000 people who are excited, but they do not want war; they want redress for the damage inflicted on their countrymen in San Francisco. The San Francisco trouble is to our mutual national relations as the sting of a gnat on the human body."

(Journal Special Service.)
San Diego, July 13.—Army officers are convinced that some one connected with the Japanese government is determined to secure plans of the fortifications at Fort Rosecrans. Last evening a second subject of the mikado was escorted off the reservation under guard and told to keep away. The Japanese who was arrested on Tuesday evening was a stranger, and he made the plea that he was traveling

MANY WOULD-BE POLICEMEN PASS ATHLETIC TESTS WELL

"Come on big one; reach out there. Look out there, fatty, or you will break your heels. Walk on your toes there, slim. Watch out, red, or you will tangle up your knees. Run like a dog, not like a duck."

These and similar admonitions floated over the high board fence inclosing Multnomah field, making patent the fact that 21 residents of the city who aspired to wear the brass and blue of the police department were undergoing their speed tests. Down in the broiling sun of the arena Dave Campbell, chief of the fire department, assisted by Detective Tichenor and Jack King held stop watches on the striving candidates. Men of all ages to the number of 21 took their turns

GROGERS PLAN PURE FOOD SHOW

Good Music and Public Wedding Will Be Features of September Event.

Hard work is now being done by the executive committee in charge of the promotion of the pure food show to be given by the Portland Retail Grocers' association from September 2 to 14 inclusive. J. W. Dean, general manager of the show, has opened his headquarters at 235 Pine street and is rapidly getting the work in shape.

Already the greater portion of the main floor has been taken for exhibits and many applications are coming in daily for space in the old Exposition building where the show is to be held. It is announced that Round's Ladies' orchestra of New York will be one of the leading musical attractions, while Miss Gussie Lenshaw, famous as a virtuoso singer, has also been secured to sing.

A baby show, bread baking contests, a public wedding and many other unique features have been provided, while the country store will be in charge of one of the charitable organizations of the city, and will add much to the amusement of the week.

The committee has arranged for 150,000 tickets to the show to be distributed by the grocers of the city to their patrons. The committee in charge of the work is composed of the following well-known grocers of the city: B. J. Dresser, J. E. Malley, J. C. Mann, F. Dresser, E. C. Gunther, Charles W. Stubbs, J. E. Eastes, Charles B. Merrick, Dan Kellner, Francis Sealy, George Lewis and D. C. Burns.

STREETCAR COMPANY

out of the council chamber, was: "I'll soon put a stop to this corner work." The mayor started toward Alder street fully determined to stop at least the tearing out of the corner.

When seen this morning Superintendent Fuller of the street railway company, said: "It was only after the fullest consideration had been given the matter from every standpoint that the company concluded to lay its tracks as they now are. We know how the tracks are objectionable to the public, but if any one can suggest a better plan we should be glad to hear it. On Second or First street traffic would be obstructed a great deal more than it is now. We believe that the present plan is best for all parties concerned."

Rains Too Small.
"Most of the Portland sidewalk corners have a radius of less than five feet."

VALET POSES AS TRUNK MYSTERY ENGLISH LORD AND HOW LEAD

Swindler Bunkoes Mining Fleet Fugitive Chased in Vain by City Marshal at The Dalles.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, July 13.—A man who posed as Lord De Moleyne of England, at Goldfield, Nevada, and in other western towns, and who is said to have been a swindler wherever he has gone, has been arrested here and will be taken to Chicago, where charges of defrauding many Chicago meat packers, it is said, that in Goldfield he duped several prominent citizens to the extent of $5,000. He gives his full name as Cecil W. E. De Moleyne.

The real Lord De Moleyne, who is now in Chicago cooperated with the police in tracing the man who posed as his brother. He says the swindler was formerly employed as valet by his brother, Captain De Moleyne, in England. The prisoner swindled his way to Australia before coming to this country, it is alleged.

During the Boer war, it is said, the man undertook to purchase large quantities of canned meats and sold them for his own gain, while the bills were sent to the office of the British consul.

PORTLAND QUARTERS

"When I say we found conditions good and the work of the various branches of the government is progressing favorably, I mean that we found all officials hard at work, striving to prosecute the government's business as rapidly as possible."

No Medical Changes.
"There are no radical changes to be made in the service, but needed improvements will be made wherever they have been found necessary. This is chiefly in the way of adding men in one place, shifting about in others and making recommendations that will have for their purpose the extension of the service."

"I am very well satisfied with conditions as I found them. I have been impressed with the men and the way they played at all places, and have secured much valuable information that could be gained only by a personal visit to the west."

At noon Secretary Garfield and party were the guests of honor at a luncheon given by Dr. Henry W. Coe at the latter's residence. Those who attended were Secretary Garfield, John N. Garfield, Judge Ballinger, Mr. Pinchot, Mr. Newell, Dr. McGee, Senator Fulton, Attorney General Hawley and Ellis, H. W. Scott and Tom Richardson.

When seen at noon, after conferring with local officials, Secretary Garfield stated that he had found the same general activity apparent in Portland federal offices that he found elsewhere. "Everywhere the same thing is going on. I have just concluded conferences with nearly every head of the branches of the government in the city, and am well pleased with the showing made."

Visited Oregon City.
At 3 o'clock the party left for Oregon City in special car over the O. W. P. line. Accompanying on the trip to Oregon City were United States Attorney William C. May, Mayor Harry Lane, ex-Senator Frederick W. Mulkey, Postmaster John W. Minto, R. L. Durham, D. C. Henney, E. G. Hopson, R. M. Tuttle, E. A. Allen, J. A. Hines, H. A. Brown, R. F. Prael and A. M. Smith.

Returning from Oregon City the members of the trip drove to the river in launches, with a brief stop at the Oaks. Before the trip to Oregon City the members enjoyed an automobile ride about the city in which were joined by John Julius Meier, J. C. Alsworth, and R. R. Wood.

Tonight a banquet will be given in honor of Secretary Garfield at the Commercial club. In addition to the 125 local guests to attend will be the members of the official party. The speakers will be Secretary Garfield, Judge Ballinger, Director Newell, Chief Forester Pinchot, W. J. McGee, Joseph A. Holmes, Ernest Chambers, Chief of Fishery A. Lowell, of Pendleton; C. E. Wood, senator E. W. Hulnes, of Forest Grove; Dr. H. W. Coe and Senator C. W. Hodson.

The banquet will also be attended by well known business men of Salem, Hermiston, Forest Grove, Pendleton, Eugene and other Oregon cities. Music will be furnished by the Portland Male quartet.

CHINAMEN TO RETURN TO FRISCO QUARTERS

(Journal Special Service.)

San Francisco, July 13.—At a signal from the Chinese consul-general Monday, 12,000 detailed orientals who have temporarily resided in Oakland since the great conflagration will cross the bay and establish themselves in their old quarters behind Portsmouth square—the Chinatown of earlier days. The story. Substantial new brick buildings of three and four stories have been erected for the accommodation of the orientals. Most of these have been freshly decorated with red and green paint and gold leaf, preserving in a measure the Asiatic atmosphere. All of the old traditions and customs will be restored and Chinatown will again become the show place of the city.

JUDGE FERRISS WILL PROBE STANDARD OIL

(Journal Special Service.)

St. Louis, Mo., July 13.—Former Judge Franklin Ferriss of this city, who was recently appointed examiner to take testimony in the government suit against the Standard Oil company, will begin his labors next week and will collect evidence to be presented at the next court hearing of the case on September 25. Judge Ferriss will rule on all testimony submitted throughout the country in the attempt to prove that the Standard Oil company is an illegal corporation, the outgrowth of a conspiracy that had its beginning in 1870. Testimony will probably be taken during the course of the case in all parts of the country where the Standard does business.

STOLE GRIP WITH A FORTUNE IN IT

But It Was In Bonds and Securities Instead of Cash—Thieves Soon In Jail, at Ashland.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ashland, Ore., July 13.—Pete Varsalla, colored, and Gus Willis, a young white man, were examined in Judge M. F. Eggleston's court here yesterday on the charge of stealing a suit case of G. H. Perry, a car of the train between Ashland and Gold Hill Wednesday night, and committed for trial in the circuit court in a minute. The suit case contained bonds and securities worth about $30,000.

The thieves, after securing the case from the car, took a train back to Central Point, where, removing the valuable papers, they carried the valise to a field near Ashland. The case was found by Perry secured a warrant at Ashland and Chief Simons caught the men Thursday evening east of Talent. Some of Perry's effects were found upon them. The bonds and securities they had expressed to a name at Sacramento, when they were taken to the train at Central Point, and these have since been secured for Mr. Perry.

FRIENDS OF JUDGE ARE SENT TO PRISON

(Journal Special Service.)

Toledo, Ohio, July 13.—Twenty-three of Toledo's wealthiest business men were sentenced by Judge Lindley W. Morris to serve six months in the workhouse and to pay fines of $1,000 each for violating the Valentine anti-trust law. Owing to the fact that there is an epidemic of smallpox in the workhouse the judge suspended the sentence for ten days, at the end of which time the men must begin to serve their sentences. They pleaded guilty and consequently cannot appeal. Their one hope of escaping lies in the attack on the constitutionality of the law made in a previous case combine cases of a year ago, now before the supreme court. This hope, however, is slender.

The men sentenced were lumber dealers, brick manufacturers and bridge men. All were old friends of the judge, and many of them were prominent in the city. When they faced him for sentence the situation was dramatic. Judge Morris gave the men a scathing lecture before passing sentence. He said he had come to the conclusion that the mere assessing of fines would not check members of the combinations, and that the only remedy society can have is to see that every violator of the law serves a term in prison.

RENT ROOM IN WHICH TO LEAVE VICTIM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Billings, Mont., July 13.—E. H. Cadell, a telegrapher, is the victim of a mysterious murder, which is puzzling the police. He was brought in a dying condition to a lodging house, conducted by a Chinese by two unknown men, who engaged a room hurriedly, threw Cadell's form in the front end of the bed, and the man soon expired. Cadell's head was fractured by some instrument. Nothing was known of the man who had been taken from the room, and he is thought to have been the victim of some one's vengeance.

STATE INSTITUTIONS MUST DIG UP FEES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., July 13.—State Treasurer George G. Mills has made the discovery that considerable sums of money are collected by the different state institutions, educational and others, in the form of fees for diplomas and other services, for which no special accounting has been made to the state treasurer in the past but which now must be turned into the treasury daily under an act of the legislature. The state educational board has been called on to advise the state institutions to render an accounting.

FIRE TREATMENT

Fire Must Subjugate Demon. Explaining that fire was necessary for the complete subjugation of the demon of rheumatism, the celestial medical man touched a match to the anointed knee. Bright blue flames sprang up. So did Johnson, and he forgot his malady, touched a match to the anointed hand and out of his domicile. Then he applied good old Finnish lotions to the overheated joint and sought the district attorney for separation.

Wing Lee has been convicted once or twice before for practicing medicine without a license, and the last time gave his word to the district attorney that he would seek new pastures for the employment of his special activities. He has evidently not kept his promise and Deputy Bert Haney now promises to send him to jail for a short sojourn in which to meditate upon the consequences of promises made to the law but afterwards broken.
