ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Nome City arrived in Astoria this morning and left up at 9 o'clock. She comes with a cargo from southern California in which is included a shipment of white ware and asphaltum for the Barber Asphalt company. Superintendent Frank J. Smith of the Open River Transportation company, who was taken seriously ill Saturday afternoon at his office with an attack of heart trouble, will leave the last of this week for a much needed rest in the mountains or at some summer resort. It is probable that Frederick Snipes will assume his duties during his absence.

OIL HOLDS DOWN THE DUST OF SALEM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Salem, Or., July 15.—Salem believes in oil as a dust eliminator and the experiment made on Commercial Court and other streets has proved successful. It has been discussed, however, that it has been found here the dust was the kind of soil found here the application of the oil. On heavily traveled streets the application of the oil, even though it is a dust eliminator, is not a permanent remedy. It is only a temporary relief. Another carload of oil has been sent for by Mayor Rodgers and will be distributed along State street and on other thoroughfares. The oil is the dustiest highways in the city.

PLAN COSTLY HOTEL FOR TILLAMOOK

Not the least of the large improvements at Tillamook contemplated by Chapin, Poor & Co. in the general upbuilding of that section is a 150-room hotel to cost $150,000. A local architect has been commissioned to prepare the plans for a proposed structure. The main building will be four stories in height with two wings, each three stories high. The first story and foundation will be of stone, with the superstructure of frame. The hotel will have a double front, one facing the ocean and the other Tillamook bay. The building will occupy an elevated eight 100 feet above high tide, and when completed will be the finest seaside hotel in Oregon.

FOUR MILLIONS AWARDED TO WOMAN

(Journal Special Service) London, July 15.—Further particulars are published concerning the unprecedented judgment for $4,135,000 which has been given in favor of Senora Concepcion Benitez De Beistegui, a Spanish lady, against Frank La Colz Gardiner, the Austrian gold mining millionaire. Senora Benitez was refused to recover money loaned between 1895 and 1903. It was advanced in the form of cash and securities through the lady's secretary, Soberano, who is charged with aiding Gardiner to defraud her. Gardiner, part of whose eventual life was spent in San Francisco, has a princely fortune in Avenue De Bois Du Bois, Paris.

IDAHO AND OREGON LUMBERMEN AT NAMPA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Boise, Ida., July 15.—A meeting of the Western Retail Lumber association, composed of lumber dealers in eastern Oregon and western Idaho, will be held at Nampa, July 20. Several prominent lumbermen from the east will attend the meeting.

JUDGE CAMERON TOOK NO MORE CHANCES ON THE SPEED LAW

Charles Wright, proprietor of the Oregon hotel, purchased a new automobile the other day and took Municipal Judge Cameron for a ride. After proceeding about the city for a while in a leisurely manner Mr. Wright "opened up" the throttle several notches to push the automobile to one side more rapidly. Judge Cameron grabbed the side of the seat with one hand, his hat with the other and said in a trembling voice with bated breath, "Don't go so fast, Charley; you see I am so well known here. The brakes were applied after his honor had taken in a few more kaleidoscopic views of blurred buildings, and after the train returned to the hotel.

DUNCAN STARTLES GERMAN BY POSING IN GREEK GARB

(Journal Special Service) Berlin, July 15.—A unique sensation is being provided here by Raymond Duncan of San Francisco, brother of the well-known "Greek dancer" Isador Duncan, who has endeavored to persuade the world in general, and Germany in particular, to return to the customs and apparel of Greece.
