TODAY'S MARKETS

COARSE WOOLS

Call This Season Has Been Principally for the Fine Grades-Price Good.

Today's market features: Coarse wools are rather slow. Watermelon season well on. Picnic causes slow trude. Raspberry market is advanced. Chicken receipts liberal. Tomato market holding well. Fancy eggs are holding their own.

All Demand for Pine Wool. As the wool season comes to a close it is apparent more than ever that the day of fine quality wool has almost ended in the Willamette valley. For many years the Willamette valley led all other wool-producing sections of the Paother wool-producing sections of the Pa-cific slope in the growing of finer qual-ity, but of late years there has been a gradual deterioration of quality until at this time it is the exception instead of the rule to secure fancy wool south of this city. In former years it was the rule for Willamette valley wool to sell from $ to 6c a pound over the wools of eastern Oregon, Idaho and Washington. This year has shown more clearly than ever that Willamette valley sheep-raisers are not paying as much atten-tion to the Merino and other fine grades for best quality.

With the stores of all the members of the Portland Retail Grocers' associa-tion closed for the day on account of the annual picnic at Bonneville, there was little business in the city departwas little business in the city departments of either the produce or whole groceries. None of the houses closed for the day, although some made the bluff yesterday in order to gain favor with the association. It is stated, however, that had the day been a general holiday they would have been pleased to take a day off with their customers and play ball in the grass at Bonneville. Nevertheless some of the most prominent members of the street took a holi-

A San Francisco an Guaranteed Eggs Hold Price.

For eggs of guaranteed quality there is quite a fair demand along Front street today, with sales at various figures, according to quality. Those eggs that are not of fancy guality hardly move at any figure and shippers will do well to keep these stocks at home. Best quality is what is wanted.

More chickens came to market yesterday afternoon than for an entire week.

More chickens came to market yesterday afternoon than for an entire week.
This had somewhat of a weakening effect upon values, but supplies have been so small heretofore that the trade experienced but little difficulty in moving all that came at the price quoted. Some that tried to hold up the retail trade for higher values than quoted are still keeping their chickens.

Cheese market continues to improve,

BE "CANNERY CITY"

Salem, July 17.—Though crowned the "Cherry City" by a resolution passed by the Pacific Coast Nurserymen's associathe Pacific Coast Nurserymen's association, Salem is now to aspire to be "The Cannery City" and it may have fair claim to this title, as three canneries additional to the Salem Mutual Canning company which is operating a large plant here. The Weber-Russell Canning company of Seattle has signified its positive intention of building a cannery here and the board of trade through its president, H. B. Thiesen, at the nurserymen's convention last week announced that another cannery would be in operation for the next year's fruit crop. Yesterday Manager W. C. Tillson of Tillson & Co. of this city, the well-known prune packers, announced that they would build a cannery here on their property on Trade and Cottage streets, where their present packing plant is situated. The fruitgrowers who in past years have been unable to who in past years have been unable to sell their fruits will rejoice at the ad-vent of these two new canneries, which are sure of being in operation by the next fruit harvest.

Pendleton, Or., July 17. -Gradually the work of harvesting the big wheat crop in Umatilla county is commencing. By the end of the week several combined harvesters will be put . In operation in the different localities, and within a few weeks 240 machines will be seen in the fields.

Where threshing has been done the yield is good and the quality of the wheat is excellent. Some samples have been brought into Pendleton which is averaging 59 and 60 bushels to the #### Crop Around Hooper Is in Very Good Condition.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Hooper, Wash., July 17.—The heavy rains that fell throughout the great wheat district of Hooper recently will insure a bountiful crop of wheat this season. All kinds of crops were benefited by the rain. Fall-sown grain will be above the average and the farmers regret that they did not sow a larger acreage. North of here in the Ritzville country more than half of the land is sown to fall wheat and a big yield is promised. The winter wheat harvest will begin in a few days. Combines will be quite generally used here this season on account of a scarcity of men.

A record pack was put up, over 7,000 cases being the output this season as compared with 2,000 last season, which was considered a good pack. The cherry crop here this year was immense and the fruit was of an excellent quality. The cannery is now working on berries and other fruits.

TO COST THOUSAND

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, July 17.—Eighty cents is the sum in litigation between the MacDougail & Southwick company, one of the city's biggest department stores, and Balling Selden, president of the Bronx Investment company, and one of the city's prominent business men. The $0 cents is alleged to be the balance due on a purchase of $16 worth of goods made by Selden. He declares the action is a bit of spite. He says he bought some furniture for $16. When the bill was presented he deducted the customary 5 per cent for cash and sent a check for $15.20. A statement was sent for the $0 cents. He would not pay, and the collector told him McDougall would spend $50 to get the money. He said (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) spend $50 to get the money. He said he would spend $500 to beat him, and more if necessary. Selden will demand a jury trial, and before this 80-cent suit is ended it will cost the two sides $1,000

Cattle Bun Disappoints.

Killers are very much disappoint with the run of cattle, and for that reson cannot give liberal receipts as a reason for a decline in values. Practically all the supplies coming at this time are from outside the state, local raisers evidently being of the opinion that it will pay to held stocks for a while. a while.

Receipts today were very small, the total numbering but 54 head. This compares with arrivals of 125 head a week ago. 295 head a year ago, and 92 head this day in 1905. A year ago today cattle values were weak, but unchanged.

Hog Bun Small. A very small run of hogs continues in the yards. For the 24 hours but 70 head came in. None came last Wednesday, 16 head a year ago and double that amount two years ago. Today's market is dull, but firm at former figures. A year ago today hogs were firm, but unchanged.

tion to the Merino and other fine grades but are raising sheep nowadays principally for mutton. These large sheep produce only coarse wool and this is the reason why Willamette valley wool prices in general are not higher, and in many instances, are not so high, as those ruling east of the Cascades.

This year demand in the wool market has been principally for finer grade. The coarse stock, while not showing any neglect from the trade, has not been so eagerly sought as fine wool. The ruling values, too, have shown a greater range this year than usual; due no doubt to the heavier demand from manufacturers for best quality.
