Trimmed and Ready-to-Wear Hats in This Sale at 95c

There's a keen rivalry among the departments of this store, each trying to outdo the other in value-giving during this sale. We are aware that we have powerful competitors right in this house when it comes to offering values. So we have planned long and good to make our hat special the equal if not the superior of any on this page. About 200 hats, trimmed and ready-to-wear styles, flowers, ribbons and feather trimmings, every popular shape, among them Milan, chip, Java, Leghorn and straws; also some Neapolitan shapes, vals. in lot to $5, choice. 95C

(coural special service.) biladelphia, July 18.—Before a crowd of cheering thousands that congested the sidewalks and filed the windows along Broad, Market and other leading downtown thoroughfares, the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, "The Best People on Earth," held their great parade today. It was the big day of the annual conclave and the spectacular features of the program attracted thousands of additional visitors from nearby points in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. The number of marchers broke all records in the history of the order. There were thou-sands of them, representing the lodges throughout the entire country. Many of the wore the regulation long coat and high hat, while others were clad imfrantastic costume, the Pueblo Elks with a band of Rocky mountain burros and numerous others that offered novel features were greeted with enthusiand hy the crowds. The procession started at 10 o'clock in the morning and the rear guard had passed the reviewing stand.

SKIRTS, TOO, ARE IN THIS 95c SALE

If there's any one item on this page that deserves your attention it's this Skirt item. We've entered into this sale with a spirit to overshadow all other offerings and we believe when the day's business is done skirts will head the list over all other 95c specials. Dress and Walking

Free tuition and expense money dur-ing the school year are put within the persevering young people who reside within the circulation field of The Oregon Journal. The Journal makes it possible for boys and girls to earn the scholarships by securing subscribers to The Journal and making advance collections from people already taking the paper. The student who engages in this work has a valuable business experience quite as essential as his studies at school. The individual giving the subcription gets full value for his money while at the same time helping the student. And the newspaper enjoys a permanent growth of circulation among the best class of people. class of people.

SUBSCRIBERS WILL DECIDE.

AWARDS MUST BE FARNED.

For the purpose of awarding the scholarships and cash prizes, the field of The Journal has been divided into four districts as follows:

RATES AND CREDITE. Prepaid subscriptions, only, count for votes in the Oregon Journal contest, many more points being allowed for new subscriptions. In order to pro-cure votes on an old subscription, the advance payment shall be made for not less than three months. Votes are al-lowed on new subscriptions, for advance payments for one month or more, an outline of the voting values being as follows:

DAILY AND SUNDAY EDITION.

SUBSCRIBERS WILL DECIDE. Subscribers to The Journal will de-cide who shall be the beneficiaries in this contest. Every subscriber to The Journal will be entitled to votes for a contestant, according to the length of time for which the subscription is paid in ad-vance. A schedule of the votes allowed for subscriptions for different periods of time is printed today. The work of the contestants will con-sist in rounding up subscribers, both old and new, and securing their votes. More votes will be allowed on new sub-scriptions than on old, as it will only be through increase of its circulation that The Journal will receive return for its large outlay of cash and scholar-ships. The more new subscribers the contestants find, the more votes for them.

AWARDS MUST SE FARMED. Through the combination of awards above outlined any boy or girl has an opportunity, during the summer vaca-tion, to earn cash and a scholarship. At the start it must be understood that these rich rewards are to be earned. not by any lottery or game of chance, but by tact and work and business abil-ity, which will reflect creat upon the winners and give them a standing in the community. Instruction in canvassing and in man-aging a contest campaign will be given in to all who apply for it. Men and women who attain distinction in active af-fairs do so by developing the very faculties which are discovered, brought out and trained by every student who enters The Journal contest.
