ENTHUSIASM THRILLS
ASSEMBLY ALL DAY

Great Oration by Senator Burkett of Nebraska—Veteran Pipers and Drummers to the Fore—Pure Food and Puny Labor Forum Features.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, July 18.—The tenth day of Chautauqua opened this morning with promising skies and a good attendance, after the full and strenuous program incident to yesterday's patriotic exercises. A tent or two is still wandering in and as yet none have broken camp.

At the sound of the 8 a. m. gong this morning the following classes opened with full membership: 8 to 10 a. m.—Junior Bible study, Mrs.
Alice M. Handaker.
9 to 11 a. m.—Physical culture, Professor A. M. Grille.
9 to 10 a. m.—English literature, Dr.
B. J. Hoadley.
9 to 10 a. m.—Education, Professor W.
Eugene Knox.
10 to 11 a. m.—United States history, Hon. Willis C. Hawley, M. C.
10 to 11 a. m.—Domestic science, Miss Lillian Tingle.
10 to 11 a. m.—Bible study, Rev.
James Hoffman Batten.
Miss Tingle's class, from 10 to 11 a. m., was well attended and many who have not attended before came this morning to learn the secret of how to cook tough meat, "for," as Miss Tingle says, "anybody can cook good, tender meat, but it requires an artist to make tough meat palatable food."

The physical culture class under Professor A. M. Grille, of the Portland Y.
M. C. A. has been doing strenuous but magnificent work and the same can be said of the music classes under Professor Heritage and the elocution classes under Professor Knox.

Features of the Forum.
The Forum conducted by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye is one of the popular features of Chautauqua this year and the subjects discussed have all been alive and full of current interest. This morning "The Ideal Play" was ably treated by Arthur A. Greene, dramatic critic of the Oregonian. President Campbell of the State university and Professor Justus Burnham of Portland spoke on the pioneer school.

Each afternoon the Chemawa band gives a half-hour concert and today it was particularly fine.
The program opened with a solo by Miss Jennie Johnston and the address of the afternoon is being made by Dr.
James Hoffman Batten on "The Higher Education."

At the close of the program the W.
C. T. U. will hold its usual round table in the auditorium. The subject for the afternoon will be pure food, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. George leading in the discussion.

Something Extra This Evening.
The evening program should call out a large crowd tonight, as it will be of a high-class character, but of a nature to please the popular taste. It will be entirely in charge of Professor Knox, who has covered himself with glory both in his class work and as a platform reader. Miss Johnston will assist in and give several solos. Together they will render the following program:
"The Labor Problem"; "Old Sport" (Brooks); contraalto solo, Miss Jennie F.
W. Johnson; "A Lis-Town Humorous" (Riley); "Handcar No. 412" (Dillman); contraalto solo, Miss Jennie F. W. Johnson;
"The First Settler's Story" (Carleton);
"The Debating Society" (Hall).

On Patriotic Day.
Everything on yesterday's program gave way to the celebration of patriotic day. It was a very unpretentious headquarters that was not decked in flowers and had not a flag flying in honor of the veterans and the Women of the Relief corps. A martial air began to make itself felt early in the morning, and to such an extent that class work began to be hurried as the members grew restless in anticipation of the G. A. R. men that were to arrive in a body, and when they did get there, between 11 and 12 a. m., headed by the famous G. A. R. rifle and drum corps of 30 veterans, the exercises at the Forum had to be suspended, while the audience applauded the passing column of veterans, a hundred strong.

Working Women and Children.
When order was restored Mrs. Millie Trumbull, who had been interrupted, proceeded with her talk on wage earning women and children. It was one of the strongest, most forceful addresses that has yet been given. She drew several pictures of women and children in the factories of Oregon, and made a telling point when she pictured the banner with the American flag on one side and the flag of Russia on the other, the only two civilized nations on the globe that refused to go into the conference at Berne for the purpose of regulating the labor of women and children.

Dr. H. C. Chapman gave a fine talk on the work and purposes of the Consumers' league, and the market inspector of Portland gave some practical suggestions as to how the housekeeper could make the pure food law effective.

Mrs. Julia Marquand, vice-president of the Oregon Consumers' league presided with much dignity and grace.

G. A. R. Meets the Women.
At the noon hour the G. A. R. men, their wives and friends, and the Relief Corps women enjoyed a huge picnic under the trees, where good things to eat were laid down before the conquering heroes and good yarns were spun and a general good time was had.

Immediately following the band concert the audience was called to order by President Hawley, and he announced that the G. A. R. veterans had been invited to sit on the platform and the drum corps had consented to give a number of two, and with the announcement almost was heard the stirring music of the rifle and drum and as the brave old heroes marched once more to the familiar music and were mounting the steps to the rostrum the audience rose as one and a thousand handkerchiefs fluttered in the air as the beautiful Chautauqua salute was wafted to them.

Miss Johnston opened the exercises with a solo, "The Wind in the Chimney," words by Bret Harte. The Chautauqua quartet, most excellently.
"Tenting Tonight on the Old Campground." When the drum corps gave its numbers it was accorded to the echo, and when the band began to play no doubt if the audience had had its way and had not President Hawley put his quietus upon encores on account of the length of the program, which included several other musical numbers and a reading by Professor Knox.

Senator Burkett's Address.
The address of Senator Burkett of Nebraska, was a patriotic tribute to "The American Flag." With such surroundings it could not fail to be dramatic and the speaker's clear, ringing tones and fine presence added to the delight of the audience and particularly to the veterans, who were alternately moved to laughter and to tears.

At the close of the regular program a four-riding attraction began the W.
C. T. U. round table in the auditorium, which had for its topic pure food, and a demonstration of alcohol used in dressing and Jamaica ginger. Mrs.
Swope exhibited some cake and candy seasoned with a pure preparation of vanilla.

The Y. W. C. A. round table held a most interesting session at their headquarters, when Miss Tingle, the cooking teacher, gave a fine talk on "Domestic Science in the Home," which was afterward discussed by many of the ladies present.

The Veterans' Campers.
The third attraction was the baseball game between "Brainard's" Cubs and North Pacific, which drew its full quarter of the audience, and last but not perhaps greatest, was the campfire of the veterans upon the old auditorium platform. It was then the handshaking and the good will went round, and it was hard to settle them down to listen to the speech-making, which was what had been arranged, but when quiet had been obtained the closest attention was given to those who spoke, among them being W. F. Kerr, Dr. J. E. Hall, Judge J. D. Haynes and B. F. Pike. Mrs.
George Harding being called for, she made a few appropriate remarks, but thought the speech-making should be left today to the veterans. The drum corps gave several selections and at the request of Mrs. Eva Emery Dye "Marching Through Georgia" was sung.

Hawley on Present Problems.

The evening program was simply great and was an inspiring close to a patriotic day. After a solo by Professor Heritage, Hon. Willis C. Hawley, member of congress from Oregon, gave a thoughtful and scholarly talk. Taking for his topic "Some Present-Day Problems," he handled some of the questions that are before the nation in an intelligent and masterly manner, and in a way to inspire confidence in the minds of all his hearers, and the belief that they would hear more and glowing reports from him as their representative at the national capital that would cause their hearts to rejoice.

A number of lectures were given in Portland especially to hear this address.
This afternoon the Women's Press club will hold its monthly meeting at Chautauqua from 2 to 4 p. m. Lucile Faxon Addison presiding. An unusually interesting musical and literary program has been arranged.

The ladies of the Portnomah club gave an enjoyable picnic yesterday afternoon at Chautauqua park. Those present were: Mrs. T. E. Sherman, Mrs. S. E. Miller, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Mrs. A. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. J. Torrence, Mrs. Nina Larowe and Mrs. Bessie G.
Stone.

UNION MEN DENOUNCE SPEAKER AS TRAITOR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Everett, Wash., July 18.—Because Grant Hamilton, national organizer for the American Federation of Labor, in addressing an open meeting of union men last night denounced Debs and other Socialists and termed the Industrial Workers of the World as "industrial wreckers of the world," declaring the organization indorsed "socialism and anarchy," adding that recently at Goldfield the hills were covered with armed men howling for revolution, his audience denounced him as a traitor and a scab and left the hall.
