MILWAUKEE TO BUILD TO BOVILL

Its Traditional Branch Line Policy Is Manifest in Idaho.

Idaho & Montana, the Weyerhaeuser line, at Bovill. This information comes from an authoritative source. It is further strengthened by the fact that the Milwaukee now has a corps of surveyors in that section running the line and making their headquarters at Collins, which is four miles north of Bovill, the latter point being the terminus of the Washington, Idaho & Montana railroad.

The statement was made in news dispatches a few days ago that a corps of surveyors had been dispatched to work on the St. Maries river in the vicinity of Clarkia and that their headquarters would be at Collins. As Clarkia is 12 miles from Collins many readers familiar with that country doubtless wondered why the engineers would be assigned a base at Collins when they were expected to work along the St. Maries. The explanation offered now, that the Milwaukee will build a branch to Bovill, makes the situation perfectly clear.

Milwaukee's Branch Policy.
It seems to be the plan of the Milwaukee to reach out for traffic by means of branch lines. It adopted that system successfully in the Mississippi valley, and is doubtless pursuing the same policy here. At Bovill, where it will tap the W. I. & M., it will derive an immense tonnage. The Weyerhaeuser interests have been close to the Milwaukee interests in the middle states for many years, and in building to a connection with their road they probably know that much business awaits them when the junction is made. The Potlatch Lumber company, a Weyerhaeuser institution, can deliver its thousands of lumber at the end of its line and the Milwaukee can haul it by the shortest and most direct route to eastern markets.

It doubtless will also result in the building of a large sawmill at some point in the vicinity of Bovill to supplement the work of the big mill at Potlatch, which will scarcely be able to cut the timber owned by the Potlatch company within the time limit prescribed in its bill of sale from the state of Idaho.

CHINAMAN SUES TWO DETECTIVES

Alleged White Slave Hunters Charged With Jewelry Theft by Oriental.

Out of the alleged pursuit of a "white slave" into a Chinese house at 229 1/2 Alder street last Saturday night by Detectives Kay and Kielen has grown a damage suit for $2,000, brought by Wong Chuck Way, who lives at the house.

In the suit, which has been filed in the circuit court, the detectives are charged with carrying off a set of gold earrings worth $5.00 belonging to Wong Chuck Way's small daughter, and a gold ring worth $6.25, the personal property of Way himself.

Way alleges that he lives at 229 1/2 Alder street with his family, consisting of his wife and six small children, the oldest being 13 years of age and the youngest 2 months. He charges that the detectives broke down his front door and in a rough and boisterous manner entered and put his wife and children in great fear. It is alleged that Kay and Kielen assaulted Wong Chuck Way and ejected him from the house, then entered the private apartments where his wife and children were sleeping and searched the bed and disturbed the house generally.

Way wants $2,000 damages for the fright given his family, $5 for the damage done the door when it was broken in and $14.75 for the jewelry. Way alleges that he is a member of the Yuen Wa company, a Chinese firm in business at 126 Second street.

TRIO OF SENATORS MEET IN ASHLAND

Ashland, Or., July 19.—Ex-Senator Mulkey, accompanied by State Senator Beach, arrived here at noon yesterday. Senator Mulkey spent an hour in Ashland and left for Crater Lake, via Klamath Falls. The senator said he had never seen Crater Lake and had placed himself under the guidance of Beach, who knew the country well. He said they might meet the Garfield party at Klamath Falls, though the secretary was a fast traveler and hard to catch up with.

Senator Fulton, who arrived here on the same train and spent an hour greeting friends, left to join Secretary Garfield at Klamath Falls and will go thence to Lakeview. He expects to stop in Ashland a few days upon his return.

Senator Burkett of Nebraska, arrived in the city also and for a time the senators were shaking hands with the people on Main street.
