ALICE D. GRANT LEADS ALL OTHER CANDIDATES

Dallas Girl Now in the Position for First Choice of Scholarships and Cash Awards in The Journal Educational Contest-Other Changes in Position.

The fourth score of The Journal's Educational Contest is presented today. This includes all votes cast for every contestant up to 6 p. m.

There is plenty of room in the second, third and fourth districts for new candidates, and there should be more. Every town in Oregon must contain one or more boys or girls who would like to have one of the free scholarships offered in The Journal's list of awards. The acholarships offered in this competition are published three times or more every week in a two-column advertisement. New candidates will be received at any time. The race is just beginning.

	This contest district is made up of Multnomah county and includes

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash. July 20.—Mrs. Nellie Marshall of Butler county, Nebraska, proved her claim to a $47,000 fortune yesterday by means of letters, photographs, a marriage certificate and the testimony of her mother. The property, a farm, was left by E. Upson of Rosalia, Washington, where he died about eight months ago. Distant relatives are preparing to contest the will. Mrs. Marshall never saw her father, her mother having taken her away when she was very young, but she corresponded with

FIFTEEN THOUSAND FOR AWFUL INJURIES

Gross Neglect on Opp's Part Is Alleged in Setting Up a Powder Thawer in Proximity to Works-Others Injured Besides Robbins. $210.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Gold Hill, Or., July 20 .- James Robbins of this place has brought suit against J. W. Opp, the former manager of the Braden mine, for $15,000, alleging gross neglect on the part of Opp when conducting the mine.

On November 27 last year an explosion occurred at the mine, which is located two miles outside of the city limits. The giant powder thawer, which was established at the mouth of the Day scholarship in either college or main tunnel and within a few feet of academic department, good for one the blacksmith shop, was a very flimsy year, value $120. affair.
