

BOSTONIANS TO GATHER AT HOME

Old Home Week Will Be a Great Reunion for Scattered Residents.

(Journal Special Service.)
Boston, July 25.—Preparations are being rushed for Boston's old home week celebration July 29 to August 3, inclusive, with fully 1,000,000 visitors expected. Letters pour in from former Bostonians from Texas to the northwestern territory and Florida to Oregon that they are coming east to revisit their old homes with their families, after absences of 10 to 20 and, in some cases, 40 years.
A half million dollars will be spent in public entertainment and various forms of welcome by the committee, by societies, etc., besides the carnival, several parades, banquets, etc., there will be a giant veteran firemen's tournament of 150 hand tubs, fishermen's races for the Lipman $5,000 cup, automobiles, power boat, yacht, horse and swimming races, several rowing regattas and big athletic meets with entries from all parts of the country.

Following are the names of those who are taking the examination: Arthur Bennet, C. A. Congleton, J. S. Fraser, B. F. Johnson, C. L. Pearson and Montie Pearson, of the Blue Mountain reserve; A. P. YOUNG HORSE THIEVES TO REFORM SCHOOL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Fossil, Or., July 25.—Sheriff Ray, of Wheeler county, has taken two little boys, Robert Osborn and Lon Wineberger, to the state reform school. They are aged 10 and 11 years. They stole a couple of horses from a camp of gypsies at Mitchell and rode off with them, as much for a lark as with any thought of theft, they claimed, but as they had been in somewhat similar trouble before, had been staying away from home at night and were beyond their parents' control, it was considered best to send them to the reform school.

What the Beef Trust Has Done and What It Is Doing to In- jure the Standard of U. S. Gov- ernment Inspection.

CHAPTER VII.
It is the Beef Trust who has gone among the physicians of Oregon and asked these men to endorse its Government inspected meats, knowing full well that there is not a retail market in the city that has Government inspection of meats, and knowing full well that the markets under its control that advertise Government inspected meats—buy and sell any old thing.

We believe the physicians who indorsed these requests from the Trust done so with honest intentions, but the rank and file saw the ulterior motive, and refused to be bagged for its benefit.
In conclusion of this article, we beg to tell the public that the Beef Trust hates Government inspection with as deep and as detestable a hatred as man can know. It has fought it with all the corrupt methods that its corrupt mind can scheme. It accepts inspection only because congress will not let it do business without inspection. Since the Trust must get under the yoke, it pretends to like it.
As long as any trickster, any unsanitary market, any joint that carries the riff-raff of the town can sail under false colors and, to please the Beef Trust, advertises Government inspected meats with immunity, just so long will the people at large show their contempt and disgust for these faithless signs and loud-mouthed "ads." Every day, yes, every hour, that these practices are allowed to continue, Government inspection is sowing a harvest of thorns and thistles that will require years to root out.
