BISHOP ISSUES STRONG BOOKLET

Right Rev. Charles Scadding Tells of Church "Opportunities in Oregon."

The Right Rev. Charles Scadding, D. D., bishop of Oregon, has issued a booklet called "Opportunities in Oregon," for circulation in eastern states, which is most artistically presented, forcefully written and full of much interest. It should be fully sufficient for the purpose to which it is dedicated, which is to call the attention of friends of the Episcopal church wherever it may find them to the immediate necessity for more preachers and better equipment for missionary work in Oregon.

Bishop Scadding feels the insufficiency of the present equipment of the church for the work that must be done and the lack of funds to hold the vast country which this diocese includes. He says, in stating the problem:

"The few clergy who now have are loyal and faithful and are bravely facing the limitations of the situation, while the laity on all sides assure me of their loyal support. We are simply undermanned and under-equipped."

For a solution of the problem confronting this diocese he suggests two things: First, increasing the permanent endowment fund of the Episcopate, of which the sum of $30,000 has been secured. It is desired to increase the fund to an even $100,000. The interest of this sum would forever pay the bishop's salary—a consummation, he says, "to be devoutly hoped for." Secondly, by forming an Oregon associate mission fund. It is the bishop's desire to form central stations in the state, where two or three young clergymen (unmarried) shall live and find proper home comfort and from which center their energies may radiate to surrounding towns and villages.

He also suggests two clergymen in eastern Oregon, two in southern Oregon and two between Portland and the coast, and could have sufficient funds at my disposal to insure the carrying out of the experiment for 10 years.

THE SMILE

That won't come off, appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream. Why not keep that smile on baby's face. If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. E. Blackwell, Oklahoma, writes: "My baby was peevish and fretful, would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream and he has not had a sick day since." Sold by all druggists.

believe the church would forever be firmly established in this state.

After urging the need for funds the bishop concludes with a stirring appeal for workers in this field—young men, clergymen, priests or deacons, unmarried, and preferably under 30. "Come to Oregon, young man," is his call, "and you will find a missionary field which will fascinate and spur you. Should doubt or problems distress you, jump into the saddle and ride over mountain and plain, through canyon and beside clear mountain streams, and carry the story of the Good Shepherd and his love to our scattered sheep on distant ranches."

"Feed them with the bread of life, baptize their children, perform the marriage ceremony when required and bury their dead, and you will return to the mission center with mind at rest, with heart aflame, thrilled with the joy of your commission, and with doubts cast to the winds, where they will melt away as the snow melts before the chinook wind. Surely, adventure for God, whole-hearted, inspiring, constructive, will not lack in Oregon for knights of the cross."

SAILING SCHEDULE FOR FOREIGN MAILS

People of Portland who write letters to friends or business houses in foreign lands can have a monthly sailing schedule of all ships carrying United States mail which sail from the ports of the nation by depositing $1 each year or 10 cents each month with Postmaster Minto. Formerly the list of sailing dates has been sent to the postoffice, but a new ruling of the department has provided for their publication and distribution to all those whose interests make it necessary to have the information in their possession.

According to Postmaster Minto the business of the present month will be 15 per cent greater than that done in July of last year.

LUMBERMEN ALARMED AT ANNOUNCEMENT

Portland lumber manufacturers are alarmed at a semi-official announcement recently made by Darius Miller, vice-president and traffic director of the Burlington. Mr. Miller is reckoned one of the most powerful influences in forming the freight policies of the Hill lines. In connection with a new schedule of rates to be made effective October 1 by the Transcontinental Freight association, it has been said by Mr. Miller that Pacific northwest lumber rates are to be raised from 40 to 50 cents to St. Paul, from 50 to 60 cents to Chicago, from 50 to 65 cents to Missouri river points, from 52 1/2 to 60 cents to St. Louis and from 50 to 60 cents to other Mississippi river points.

Lumber mill men say such an increase of transcontinental rates would ruin the lumber mill industry in Oregon and Washington, and turn the middle west business over to the southern mills.

BURGLARS' MATCH MADE TOO MUCH NOISE

A burglar who was about to rifle the residence of R. G. Chase of City View Park at 4 o'clock this morning committed the indiscretion of striking a loud-sounding match. The noise awoke Mr. Chase, who was sleeping on the upper floor. He listened until he was certain a burglar was at work on the main floor, and then arose and went for his gun.

Before starting down stairs Mr. Chase turned on the electric lights. The burglar, who had gained entrance by removing a screen in the window of Mr. Chase's den, sprang through the window and escaped.
