CASEY IS FOXY AND LOSES GAME

Four Angels Score in Inning After He Could Easily Have Ended It.

NO OTHER RUNS MADE DURING THE CONTEST

Casey Makes Great Run for 2nd Smith's Long Fly. Throws Profitably to Second, but Casey Fails to Complete Easy Double Play.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Los Angeles 4, Portland 3.
San Francisco 5-3, Oakland 3-4.

Talk about the mistakes of star ball players! That one by Casey at Athletic park yesterday will stand as a classic for many a hard-fought game.

Maybe Casey suddenly went crazy, or maybe he just forgot how many were out. Anyhow, he made a fool play and four runs came galloping in as a direct and unequivocal result.

Of course, if Brother Pernell had fanned out another man just afterwards, it would not have mattered. But Busher Pernell did not do it. At the end of the nine innings the score was 4 to 3 in favor of the men from the sunny south. If Casey had not tried to be foxy, it would have been 0 to 3.

Busher Pernell pitched the entire nine innings, and he was not so bad. When the visitors put a runner on the keystone station in the second inning, out the first time in the third the fans were tickled to death all over again.

Blunder in the Sixth.
It came in the sixth, with the score 0 to 0 and no outs. Casey, who had fanned out and Carlisle walked. Brashear came up with a short hit, and both were safe. Smith was next. He swung like a woodchopper and the ball sailed far toward the left field fence. Brashear made a great run, but nobody thought he'd ever get there. But he did and he held the ball. Moreover, he made a beautiful throw all the way to Casey at second.

Carlisle was careful and was playing close, but when Brashear got the ball Brashear was just crossing second base on the run. He scooped the ball, but he hit it as fast as he could, but Casey had time to turn a back somersault and then throw him out. Instead of doing it, Casey related they turned and touched Carlisle, who, very properly, was standing safe upon the base. So there wasn't a double play and the side was not retired.

Before another Angel was put out Los Angeles had made all her four runs. Dillon hit a two-way to right and Nagle and Delmas both singled through the little twirler, Carlisle. Brashear, Nagle and Delmas all scored, the side being retired when Delmas tried to run to second while Nagle was scoring. Portland put numerous men on base, but "Dolly" Gray was strong at the critical moments and a shutout was the result. Official score:

SPORTING NOTES

Local and Otherwise.

Jimmy Britt and "Battling" Nelson, both ex-champion lightweights, fight for the third time in San Francisco next Wednesday night.

A dispatch from London says that Manager Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team is dickering to leave the coast league and combine with the California state league.

Guy L. Mechem yesterday broke the world's record for one mile for auto racers weighing 150 pounds or less. The time was one minute, or 4 seconds better than any previous record. The feat was performed in a race-meet at North Yakima, Washington, held under the auspices of the Northwest Auto Track association.

Bill Squires, whom the great Naughton thought was going to lick Tommy Burns, is said to have taken to the woods of Humboldt county, California. Squires will follow the occupation of a wood-chopper.

The sports of Oregon City enjoyed the diversion of watching and betting on a footrace yesterday. Frank Shoenborn beat C. S. Orin in a 100-yard dash, thereby winning $100. Considerable money changed hands on the race.

Thomas Longboat, the great Indian distance runner, has been suspended for three months by the Canadian Amateur Athletic union and will turn professional in consequence. For the past few months he has been used as an attraction by the Hamilton, Ontario, Y. M. C. but that that organization was unable to control him.

The Oregon City Grays beat the Oregon City Blues yesterday, 9 to 1.

An effort is being made about the bay to revive the good old game of intercollegiate football, which was abolished at the big coast universities last year for Rugby. Ollie Snedigar, almost as well-known as a football player as a sprinter, is heading the movement to make up a team of California graduates.

Motorists all over the country have been contributing since early spring to the enlargement of the information in the touring bureau of the American Automobile association. By the time the fall touring season is at hand, all changes in routes because of improved roads will be in the hands of Secretary F. H. Elliott at 437 Fifth avenue, New York. This information is very valuable and will be furnished only to members.

The record of Matt McGrath in the 16-pound hammer throws, 175 feet 9 inches, will not be recognized by the A. A. U. because the handle of the hammer was one inch beyond the regulation length. The official record is still held by L. I. Flannigan, and is 172 feet, 11 inches.

Joe Gans has agreed to fight Jimmy Britt, the new champion, for the championship honors. The fight will be pulled off in Los Angeles on August 16 and Joe will get $3,000, win or lose. The only hitch in the arrangements so far is that Gans is holding out for 133 pounds ringside.

The City and Country Motor club of New York city has just added new club rooms to its list of headquarters. The latest addition consists of a large suite with an assembly room and a billiard room. The City and Country Motor club, at the conclusion of a very short run from the city over the very good roads of Staten Island, the club now has three assembly places in addition to its city home, at No. 306 West One Hundred and Ninth street. Large accessions to the membership of the club have been recorded during the last two weeks, and it is rapidly becoming one of the leading motor clubs in the east.

The Washburn club baseball nine defeated the St. Paul Giants at St. Paul yesterday, 21 to 3. The Washburn club claims the independent championship of Portland. August 25 the club will play one of the Tri-City league teams for a purse of $100.

HOW THE COAST LEAGUE WILL FIGHT CALIFORNIA OUTLAWS

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, July 29.—The blacklisting of Henderson, Hackett and Moriarity by the Pacific Coast league makes the California State league an outlaw organization, and from now on the Coast league will doubtless fight this outlaw bunch for all it is worth. There can be no quarter given, and organized baseball is up against the proposition of beating these fellows off being beaten by them. When two or four teams in the central part of the state can offer big salaries to ballplayers the boys are bound to think twice before their refusal the money. Moriarity, for instance, was offered $25 per month to play ball, and in addition to this was given a job that paid him $75 per month. All this is about twice as much as he could make playing on the San Francisco team and he very quickly grabbed the outlaw offer, doubtless thinking he would be taken back by San Francisco. Now he has been blacklisted.

In all probability the Coast league will assess each of the four clubs a certain sum, which could be used to secure a few of the best players out of the outlaws. Another scheme is to have some of the big league teams that are weak make a raid on the outlaws. Still, this was tried on the California league when it was an outlaw organization and it failed. The scheme turned out to be a fizzle, for this league had as good an article of ball, if not better, than it has now. At least it had four famous players in Waddell, Pat Dougherty, Joe Corbett and others.

The effect of the San Francisco fire, and with the league having a surplus in sight there is no reason why it should not go after the outlaws. This is the expressed policy of President Ewing, and all of the clubs in the league will stand behind him. No player of ordinary intelligence will go to the outlaws and run the chance of being blacklisted.

Portland, for the championship of the Pacific northwest.
Varnell is looked upon as one of the best football players in the west. He is also a star baseball and track man, and this is what the club desires in a director. He has been an amateur and he wants to play football with the Spokane club this coming season. According to the old arrangement between the clubs the club is permitted to play, and being a physical director would not therefore interfere with his presence on the team.

OPEN PIGEON RACES DURING STATE FAIR
The Oregon Homing club held the last of its young bird races yesterday. The flight was made from Grants Pass, 116 miles, in 7 hours and 47 1/2 minutes, the fastest time made in the young bird series this year. J. P. Limerick won first and third prizes, C. Stetson second and E. H. Bauer fourth and fifth. During the state fair five races will be held, the flight to be made between Salem and Portland. These races will be open to non-members of the club, and entries may be sent to E. H. Bauer, 121 Abington building.

RAGGED BASEBALL IS PLAYED AT WOODBURN
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Woodburn, Or., July 29.—Woodburn and the Trunkmakers played a double-header here yesterday afternoon. The first game being won by the home team, score 5 to 4, the Trunks taking the second. Both games were about as poor an exhibition as has been seen here. The Woodburns being charged with 15 errors in the two games and the Trunkmakers with 12. Woodburn was badly handicapped by the absence of three of her best players and tried out a couple of new men in the outfield who failed to do anything but make errors at critical stages.

Centralia Defeats Tenino.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., July 29.—The Centralia baseball team, which is trying for the championship of the Washington coast, defeated the Tenino team by a score of 9 to 3 yesterday at the Centralia driving park.

The Apostles and the Cubs broke even on yesterday's series of two games at Hill park, St. Johns. The attendance was light.

The first game, called at 10:30, went to the Teddy Bears in seven innings of fast play, in which the Cubs outclassed the Apostles.

Charlie Moore placed South Paw Taylor, the valiant slapper, at shortstop, on the mound and after sundry instructions, started him off. The wily Cubs commenced early to destroy the score, and cut off the daring base stealers.

Thomas, the former catcher for the Brewers, was a Cub uniform and made his initial appearance in league company, one of favorable comment. Several new faces on the Cub team were noticeable and the team pulled together in fine style. The score in detail:

Many Errors in Afternoon.
The afternoon game was rather of a disheartening nature. The Apostles won, the game was so filled with errors, in which both teams competed, that the fans nearly lost sight of several really fine plays that interspersed the errors. "Midge" Street was put in to twirl for the Cubs. He had the Apostles guessing most of the time and his team given him half the support they did Kottman in the previous game there might have been another tale to tell.

Charlie Moore took no chances in this game and occupied the knoll himself. The Cubs took the body to his curves and punched out some beetles to each garden. The game opened with a 1-0 lead to the Apostles, the players up retiring in one, two, three order, and the fans commenced to congratulate themselves on seeing a real live ball game.

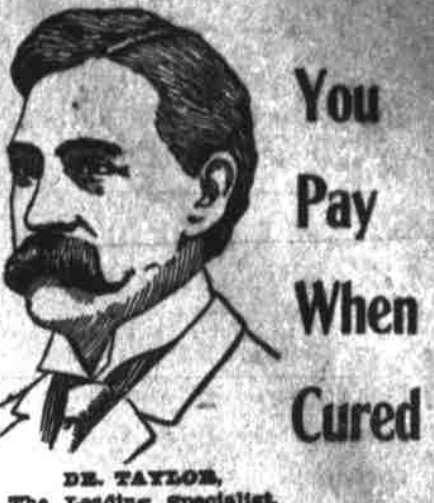

But in the second the doodle bug got in his work and reeled with the Cubs long enough for the Apostles to score four runs, all on errors by the Cub infield. Then again in the fourth the same old bug got in his work and the Apostles scored some more on errors. About this time the Apostles commenced to do some kicking around of the home run, and the Cubs began to cross the rubber. From this on the game was a kaleidoscope of errors, hits, fast plays and poor umpiring. Brown, the St. Johns third baseman, and Kruger for the Cubs, distinguished themselves by quick handling of hard-hit balls.

I WILL CURE YOU

You Pay When Cured

MY FEE ONLY $10

When I have accepted your case for treatment you may look for a complete and permanent cure, and with the very first treatment the curing will begin. This is pretty definite talk upon what is commonly regarded as an uncertain and speculative matter. But I am in a position to speak definitely and positively. With me the cure of men's diseases is not uncertain or speculative at all.

Contracted Disorders
In no other ailment peculiar to men is a prompt and thorough cure so essential. Contracted disorders tend to work backward until the most vital nerve centers become involved in the inflammation. Then follows a chronic stage that stubbornly resists all ordinary treatment. Safety demands that every vestige of infection be eradicated at the earliest possible moment. My treatment is thorough. The remedies employed have a more positive action than has ever before been attained, and so perfect is my method of application that even chronic cases yield completely.

Varicose
This most prevalent of all diseases of men is also the most neglected, either through dread of the harsh methods of treatment commonly employed, or through ignorance of the grave dangers that accompany the disease. As varicose interferes directly with the circulation and process of waste and repair throughout the generative organs, the necessity of a prompt and thorough cure cannot be too forcibly emphasized. I cure varicose in one week by an absolutely painless process. My cures are thorough and are accomplished without the use of knife, ligature or caustic.
