(Journal Special Service.) Boise, July 30.—Charles H. Moyer walked out of the Ada county court-house this afternoon freed upon bonds of $25,000, made possible by the generosity of local unions of the Western Federation of Miners, guaranteed with $80,000 in cash, and the personal bond of Timothy Regan, a resident and property owner here.

TWO HURT IN LODGING HOUSE FIRE

Five Thousand Dollars Damage From Blaze This Afternoon in New Apartment House at Second and Ankeny Streets.

Sulphur Candles Accidently Set Place on Fire—Manager Bettman Injured by Falling Glass, as is G. Reynolds, an Employee.

Great loss of life—not human life, it is true—followed the fire in the lodging-house at Second and Ankeny shortly after noon today. Cockroaches and other insects met a horrible fate in great numbers in the conflagration that was started as an accidental result of attempts to exterminate them from the building. The fire was started by persons who were burning sulphur to fumigate and clean the place. Sulphur candles were used and accidentally the building was set on fire.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 30.—The Schmitz bill of exceptions to his conviction on a charge of extortion was before Judge Dunne for settlement this afternoon. The bill contains 179 pages and the prosecution moved that 123 be stricken out.

SWEENEY'S SENTENCE WILL END TODAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., July 30.—The governor has commuted the sentence of E. D. Sweeney, serving a one year sentence in the Multnomah county jail for larceny. He was sentenced in the municipal court of the city of Portland with term to commence December 31.

LITTLE CHILDREN IN RAFFLES ROLE

Seattle, July 30.—An 8-year-old boy and a 9-year-old girl were arrested yesterday by Detective Sam Corbett for breaking into four houses at Green lake. The children carried away some tools and other articles of little value, which were found cached away in the woods.

SENATOR IS ACCUSED BY GOVERNMENT

Action Began in Delaware to Dissolve Powder Trust for Illegal Combination and Conspiracy to Restrain Trade.

Dupont Charged With Exercising a Dominant Influence Over the Management While Occupying a Seat in the Senate.

(Journal Special Service.) Wilmington, Del., July 30.—The government today began suit for dissolution of the powder trust. United States Senator Henry A. Dupont of Delaware is one of the score of individual defendants to the action, which charges illegal combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Washington, D. C., July 30.—The powder trust tried to outwit the trust busters and prevent the suit which Bonaparte had arranged to begin at Wilmington, Delaware today. Anticipating the filing of the bill which asks for dissolution of the trust, the Duponts, under date of July 25, filed in court a certificate of dissolution for the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Powder company, the big holding company, one of the concerns for which a receiver was asked. Bonaparte wired Special Counsel Roadstrum to make the change in the bill, before it was filed.

GIRL HEROINE OF COLUMBIA IS REWARDED.

MISS MAYBELLE WATSON.

SAW NO SIGNS OF LOST CRAFT

Captain Dunham Brings Columbia Survivors on Roanoke.

No wreckage of the steamship Columbia was seen from the steamship Roanoke on her way north this trip. She reached Martin's dock at 8 o'clock this morning and Captain Dunham said he had not seen a remnant of the lost vessel, although his course brought him close to the scene of the collision with the San Pedro. The Roanoke was the steamer that first reported the disaster on her last trip out of Portland.

MISS WATSON IS GIVEN NECKLACE

Young Woman Who Saved From Drowning Companion Remembered.

Miss Maybelle Watson, who saved a woman from the Columbia wreck, keeping her head above water for two hours till rescued, is happy in the possession of "a perfect beauty" as she calls the handsome gift of an admirer. She has received from an unknown donor a handsome necklace with a silver front and a gold back. A bowknot tassel is strung with 25 little diamonds set in diamonds. This inscription accompanied it: "From a Portland citizen admiring your bravery."

HOTTEST DAY OF THE YEAR

Cooler Weather Predicted for Tomorrow—The Mercury at Ninety-Three at One o'clock Today—Much Cooler So Far This Season Than It Was Last Summer.

This is as hot a day as has been had here this year, but, thanks to the powers that be, cooler weather is expected. Mr. Beals, district forecaster of the weather bureau service, declared emphatically at noon today that tomorrow would bring cooler weather. In fact showers might be looked for, and not in vain either. The rain might not come tonight or early in the morning, but it is in the wind. The mercury at 8:30 at 1 o'clock this afternoon and is slowly crawling higher, but indications favored a drop.

GIVES UP FORTUNE FOR LOVE

Mrs. Frederick R. Hoyt Sacrifices an Income of a Quarter of a Million in Order to Wed J. Humbird Duffey, Choir Singer—Fell in Love With His Voice.

New York, July 30.—Mrs. Frederick R. Hoyt, widow of the California mining man, has married J. Humbird Duffey, choir and oratorio singer, and in doing so has sacrificed an income of $250,000, which was left her by the will of her first husband, Hoyt, who died about seven years ago. The will provided that her life estate in the property set aside for her support should cease whenever she married again, and that this property should then go to Hoyt's two sisters.

EVELYN THAW PLANS RETURNING TO STAGE

New York, July 30.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is said to be making preparations to turn to the stage, and it is now regarded as certain that she will have a singing part in a Broadway production to open early in the season.

BOUTON HAS MONEY IN BANK

Officers of First National Desirous of Ascertaining Who or Where John Bouton Is—For Dozen Years $3,000 to His Credit Has Remained Untouched.

Who is John Bouton? Why for a dozen years or more has he allowed nearly $3,000 to remain untouched in the First National bank of Portland? Is he dead, or has he forgotten that he has this account? Who is he, and where is he, and who are his relatives? Why does he not claim his money?
