Klamath Falls, Or., July 30.—State Dairy Commissioner J. W. Bailey is at Klamath Falls on a semi-official visit, his first to this county, and he is impressed with conditions here relative to the dairy business. He says he considers conditions almost ideal for the establishment of large dairy interests. He dfove to Bonanza, in the valley below Klamath Falls, to visit the Bonanza creamery, the first to be established in the county. For the first time Klamath county creamery butter is for sale in this city. Mr. Bailey will visit Crater Lake before returning to Portland.

Some of the merchants are receiving more tomatoes than they can justly handle. All kinds of prices are ruling as a result. The tomatoes are usually of a good grade and are Oregon product, shipped from The Dalles.

Oregon and California peaches will be short. Front Street Active.

Front street is very busy. More favorable weather is now coming on, and fruit sales are large. Arrangements for the shipment of fall fruits, such as grapes, apples, etc., will begin to arrive within a few days.

The bananas that arrived yesterday in such poor condition are being sold out at a loss. The hawkers are getting the most of the fruit and selling at at most any price on the streets.

Receipts in butter are not heavy. The creamerles that are paying 30 cents a pound are getting barely enough at that price to supply their trade. It is not thought that there will be any changes soon, although a rise may come within the next 10 days.

The crop in but one section of the Lewiston country was damaged by the frost, that being Vineland, across the of Snake river. Here some damage was to done to the peach crop, and yet the orchard men have shipped this season between $5,000 and 45,000 boxes of

Ten Thousand Dollars to Be Raised by Sale of Stock-Existing Small Plant to Be Bought

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Lebanon, Or., July 30.—At a public meeting held in the opera house is was decided that Lebanon should build a large fruit and vegetable cannery. The initiative step in this direction was taken by the Crowfoot grange a few weeks ago when it appointed a committee to see how much fruit and vegetables could be secured for this purpose. This committee met with great encouragement and reported to the local development league, the president of which called this meeting.

C. A. Maeboeuf, district freight agent of the Southern Pacific at Portland, was the principal speaker of the vening. M. A. Miller and several others spoke.

City Street Cleaning Foreman Charged With Selling Earth for Private Fills.

cial head against whom charges of selling city dirt for private fills have been made, his identity being disclosed at the meeting of the street cleaning committee of the executive board yesterday afternoon. The offense alleged consisted of selling dirt washed down Union avenue by last winter's storm waters to property owners along that street.

The charge is emphatically denied by the foreman, who asserts that it is spitework on the part of subordinates in the department. August 3 has been set aside as the time for the hearing. Jenkins is also accused of a minor offense, that of breaking a horse while he was supposed to be giving his time to the city and later quartering the horse at the city barn at the city's expense.

The accused official states that he can refute any charge brought against him. It is said that the charges were filed by several of the subordinates, but as they were not written the names of the complainants are not known. In order that the charges may be prepared in proper form and filed with the board the hearing has been continued until Thursday, August 8.

Charges have also been filed against Park Superintendent Monteith by Charles Passig, a discharged employe of the park board. The charges, which are not made public, will be heard at the meeting of the board Friday morning. made, his identity being disclosed at

The challenge is for a purse of $50 or more, Burr placing no limit upon the amount he is willing to risk on the game. Burr's defy follows:

"I note what F. E. Berg, of Portland, says in the Chicago Inter Ocean regarding the playing of a match at checkers and hereby challenge him to a bout of 20 games for a stake of $200 and more if desired.

"Each man to select five openings and each to play both sides of such openings selected. I will also play the two-move restriction. Will play in some private room in Portland beginning August 15, and will play four or six games each day, continuously regardless of sickness or accident, until the entire number of games are finished. Play to be under the standard laws of the game as laid down in Lee's guide. "To substantiate my challenge and in

Said sum must be covered in 10 days from date of publication of this challenge or I shall conclude that Mr. Berg does not want to play and that his talk is mere bluff.' The prisoners at Kelly butte, where

The prisoners at Kelly butte, where an attempt was made Sunday night to wreck the jail with dynamite and escape, as related exclusively in The Journal yesterday afternoon, are quiet today and are working industriously breaking rock and feeding it into the big crushers.

It is believed that only a few of the 54 prisoners at the rockpile, aside from those in the dungeon, knew that the dynamite was going to be used. The prisoners in the dungeon will be kept there for a considerable time on bread and water. One of the men who was placed in the dungeon after the dynamite was exploded, H. Spaulding, was released last night, the prison guards and released last night, the prison guards having been conviced that he was not a party to the daring attempt to escape.

TARIFF EXPERTS ARE SOUGHT BY SERVICE

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, July 30.—In pursuance of the policy of developing experts in the service of the state department, an examination is being held today the civil service commission of candidates for appointment to the bureau of foreign trade relations. The examination is expected to attract some capable college graduates who are desirous of making a career in that particular line. The successful candidates will be educated and developed as experts in dealing with international tariff questions, which have come to be one of the most important subjects in recent years requiring attention at the hands of the state department.

AT WALLA WALLA

vening. M. A. Miller and several others spoke.

It was publicly announced that there was a man present that would put up such a cannery as was wanted, if the people would give him their support, but after discussing the matter it was decided to make it a joint stock company and get as many as possible interested in the movement.

A committee consisting of Attorney Samuel M. Garland, M. A. Miller, C. F. Watters, G. D. Harris and H. C. McTimonds was appointed to form plans and go ahead with the movement. This committee met and decided to organize with a $10,000 capital stock and to sell shares at $10 each. The committee is rapidly selling the stock.

C. F. Watters, a farmer who lives two miles north of Lebanon, has run a small cannery for several years and has made a success of it. The plans seem to be for the new company to take this small cannery and increase its capacity many times, to move the plant into Lebanon and build a large building near the raitroad, where the business will be operated. It is believed such a plant would pay big from the beginning.
