Chief Deputy City At-torney Fitzgerald immediately conferred with Chief Gritzmacher, who notified the Chinese merchants to vacate by noon today. Later, however, the chief said that he would not enforce the order. The Chinese, after consulting their attorneys, decided to get out without any further trouble. The building be-longs to Mrs. Cormelia Burkhart and is under a lease to the Chinese merchants that has three and one-half years left to run. The Chinese merchants my building that is put up where the old structure now stands. They com-plain bitterly of the manner in which they have been treated in the matter, declaring that they have been given no time to find another store and have been forced to store their goods and go temporarily out of business. It is al-together probable that several damage sults will be filed as a result of the muddle. cupants were aware of their danger. They escaped in various ways and many attempts were extremely hazardous. The building is a four-story brick, owned by John O'Shea. One of the lessees of the place had engaged two men to fumigate the place today, and they were at work when the fiames broke out. It was in one of the rooms on the third floor that the fire is sup-posed to have originated. Flames Spread Rapidly. The flames spread with great rapid-ity, and although smoke and fire were bursting through every door and window those who were in the building were not aware of their danger until fire-men began to work putting out the flames.

business during the strike and fortun-ately for the company all were expert operators. The trouble is all over," he said, "and the strike settled. The striking operators were given back their jobs and that, I think, is the most important thing that happened. About 40 of our men were out and about 100 from the Western Union company. "Our company had managers and as-mistant managers from many of the western cities in San Francisco to aid in operating the office. Fortunately they were all experienced operators and we had little difficulty in keeping up our usual volume of business. We sent mesuages and did the work just as well as it could have been done had there been no strike." The men still have their union and both sides of the strike claim a victory.

other for the third time tomorrow night. From 10 to 9 odds have gone to 10 to 5, and wise bettors expect to see the price 10 to 1 before the fight. Quite a lot of monsy has been fixed at 10 to 8. Britt's admirers are the all at that price in sight, but despite their eagerness to wager the odds become longer. This condition is primarily due to the one decisive vic-tory which Nelson scored over Britt, but the besting Gans gave him, but suffers from an ailment that will never again permit him to get into condition. The Dane is in splendid shape and looks as tough as a piece of whalebone. Britt is also in grand form for the gru-eling mill. Both laid off today, content-ing themselves with a little road work. Indications are for a big house.

River, who succumbed yesterday after-noon in the offices of Dr. W. B. Hamil-ton, 549 ½ Williams avenue, following the hypodermic injection of a small quantity of anti-diphtheretio serum, is satisfied that the young woman's demise was not in any way caused by the ad-ministration of the anti-toxin, but was due entirely to spasmodic asthma. Miss Redfield, who had been a suf-fere from asthma for a number of years, came to this city last week and took up her residence with Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Rosaman, 1080 Cleveland avenue. Yes-terday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Rossman, she went to Dr. Hamilton's office for an injection of the serum, which is being used with great success in the treatment of bronchial asthma. Within five minutes after the injec-tion of the anti-toxin the young woman informed Mrs. Rossman that she felt another attack of asthma coming on and staggered to a window. She be-came unconscious within a few minutes and realizing that the condition of his patient was serious, Dr. Hamilton called Drs. Rossman in discussing the matter this morning declared that in his opin-ion death was due solely to asthma. "It is a well known fact," said the doctor, "that there is no systematic effect from anti-toxin under 15 rainutes. The girl was slezed with an attack of asthma within five minutes after the hypo-dermic injection, and the serum could was slezed with an attack of asthma within five minutes after the hypo-dermic injection, and the serum could not have had sufficient time to act. broke out in the kitchen of the Eastern restaurant, 90½ Sixth street, at 11:45 o'clock last night and before the flames were finally extinguished damage of $5,000 had been entailed. The building in which the fire had its origin is a two-story frame structure occupying a quarter of a block at the northeast corner of Sixth and Stark. The upper floor is conducted as a room-ing house of C. N. Churchill and the lower portion of the building is occupied by merchants in various lines of trade. The first started in the kitchen of the restaurant and spread with great ra-pidity. C. N. Churchill assisted by Patrol-men Edgerton, Johnson and Phillips succeeded in arousing 10 slumbering, roomers and getting them to the street without injury. The fire spread to the Coleman building, but was checked be-fore doing any great damage. The stores damaged, the loss and the owners are as follows: Man Sing, oriental goods and women's wear, 88 Sixth street, $1,750; Portland Cutlery company, 92 Sixth street, $1,-000; B. Wolfel, jeweler, 92¼ Sixth street, $200. The White Corner saloon. M. J. Walsh & Co., and J. W. Curtis' cigar store were slightly damaged by smoke and water.
