CATALOGUE ISSUED FOR SALEM FAIR

Oregon State Board of Agriculture Publishes All Information for Guidance of Exhibitors.

The Oregon State Board of Agriculture has issued the catalogue for the forty-sixth annual fair to be held at Salem October 16 to 21, inclusive. The booklet is neatly gotten up and contains all the necessary information for the guidance of every class of prospective exhibitor.

Cash prizes are listed in the sum of $10,000, which will be awarded in the livestock, agricultural and manufactured products, and in addition there are special premiums and trophies valued at $3,000 for award in these departments.

In the foreword occur the following announcements: "Those who have not visited the state fair grounds recently will find many changes. A complete and substantial livestock section has been created, which will safely and comfortably house the many herds and flocks that are annually exhibited here."

The improvement was brought about by a request from the livestock breeders of the northwest at a meeting held at the state fair grounds during the 1906 exhibition. The result was an appropriation of $20,000 by the legislature. Twelve commodious and substantial buildings from 34 to 64 feet wide by 200 feet long, which are far in advance of the buildings found in many older and wealthier states were erected. The officers of the association are: W. H. Downing, president; W. F. Matlock, vice-president; F. A. Welch, secretary; A. Bush, treasurer.
