The leading candidates on the state ticket, including C. N. Haskell, T. P. Robert L. Owens, S. W. Hayes, M. R. L. Williams, George Belamy, James Menefee and Miss Kate renerosity.

Iamy, James Menefee and Miss Kate Barnard will participate in the demon-stration. According to the program the various candidates and other party lead-ers will deliver speeches both in the afternoon and evening. The Republican state convention last night nominated the following ticket: For governor, Frank Frantz: lieuten-ant-governor, N. G. Turk, Checotah, I. T.; secretary of state, Thomas Robnett, Ardmore, I. T.; attorney-general, Silas Reid, El Reno; treasurer, M. S. Stil-well, Bartlesville, J. T.; corporation com-missioners, T. J. Dore, Westville; John Xrafton, Pottawatomie county and John Jenson, Tuisa. The resolution denouncing the new constitution made by Democrats was killed and a pledge to secure amend-ments substituted. An attempt by J. S. McGowan of Snyder to stampede the convention against Frantz was thwarted by the latter. Frantz was the several minutes.

The story of the quartermaster's good fortune was the topic of conversation today on the Mail dock, and from Cap-tain Anderson to the smallest office boy, the whole dock force was in a frame of mind far more disturbed than was the new baron. Von Washerwitzsch, who is 24 years old, was a favorite with the officers under whom he served during his year of service under the Pacific Mail flag. He was quiet and obedient, and a good sallor. He came to this port about a year ago from Japan, where he had been a prisoner of war. When Japan and Russia locked horns, Washerwitzsch en-listed in the Russian navy, and was in Port Arthur during the siege. For conspicuous bravery during the defense of the fortress, he was awarded two medals, one of them the iron cross. Of these medals he is very proud. He was proud also of the fact that to him had fallen the duty of touching off-a series of mines as the forts. In the explosion that followed, Koo Japanese were killed. Washer-

BABY'S LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY HEAVY WHEEL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal. Spokane, Wash., Aug. 2.—The little 3-year-old daughter of a Valley, Wash-ington, farmer named Anderson was killed yesterday by being run over with a wagon loaded with logs. It was about 6:30 and was growing dark, as the father drove past the house with the load. The child was playing on the lawn at the edge of the road. As the wagon passed the baby rolled, unseen by the father, under the hind wheel of the truck. The wheel passed over her skull, killing her instantly. Mr. Ander-son is hard of hearing. The accident was not discovered until the mother, un-able to find the baby, went in search. She found it lying in the road and thought it asleep until she picked it up. ception are desirous of possessing a good complexion. Many women succeed admirably with artificial beautifiers, such as rouge and powders, for the evening tollet, but this imitation beauty will not stand the glare of broad daylight and when used in the daytime produces a ludicrous, smeary appearance. A prominent society lady, who has just returned from a long sojourn in Europe, brings back with her the recipe which she claims is the secret of the French women's beauty, notorious throughout the world, but mainly con-sists of an exquisite complexion. The recipe is as follows: Two ounces of Rose Water; one ounce Spirits of Cologne; four ounces of Sartoin (crys-talized).
