

Summer Resort and THEIR VISITORS.

After the Storm.

North Beach

(Special Correspondence.)
North Beach, Aug. 2.—With reports of 100 degrees in the shade and papers filled with accounts of the uncomfortable atmosphere of inland places, people at North Beach are congratulating themselves on being away from the interior and meet every train, confidently expecting of finding many friends, refugees from the stifling heat of cities.

A reflection of Tuesday's weather was felt here when the thermometer reached a point many degrees higher than any day of July or August of last summer.

Electric Storm.
On Wednesday a treat in the form of an electric storm swept the beach, sending terror to the hearts of many, who hastily deserted the beach and fled to seek safe shelter behind closed doors. To the venturesome the sight of the sky that was darkened and again the turbulent ocean trembling in its angry looking whitecaps about till they glared in the face of the sun, the light, followed by terrific claps of thunder, which shook the frail homes and completely drowned the boisterous roar of the sea, was a series of most panicky delights. A shower of rain followed the storm and the summer colony was lulled to sleep by the patter of the drops on the roof.

More Arrivals Daily.
The population of this resort continued to increase, travel having reached that stage when a battle royal ensues at the beach, for the boats which are sent to let aboard and checked off one by one until the limit is reached, when there are always from 20 to 30 disappointed and disappointed people left behind. Still larger crowds are expected next week, and although the hotel capacity has been almost reached, the North Beach people are sure that all who come and assures everyone a merry time.

Galaxies of the Week.
The Driftwood cottage at Long Beach was the scene of much gaily on Monday evening, the occasion being a large birthday dinner given in honor of four of the guests of the cottage, Mrs. Lyniff, the hospitable owner of the hotel. For five people in different parts of the world to be born on the same day, the months of August, is a very peculiar day at a place far distant from any of their homes, was a coincidence which the guests of the Driftwood thought amusing and worthy of celebrating. Each celebrant had a cake with as many candles as they would permit to be blown out, and the partner of the season was laid before about 30 merry guests in a dining room resplendent in greens and flowering vines, while Christmas music furnished music from the living room adjoining.

After the dinner everyone was invited to go down to the beach to build fires for the guests of the cottage. The occasion by Dr. and Mrs. L. Smith and Mrs. H. Hunter, who were present, and the season was laid before about 30 merry guests in a dining room resplendent in greens and flowering vines, while Christmas music furnished music from the living room adjoining.

Cottillion at the Breakers.
On Tuesday evening the extremely young set of the Breakers, who were in a cottillion, the music for which was furnished by the orchestra of the hotel. Seven different figures of the German waltz were danced, and the enthusiasm with which each dance was executed the evening one long to be remembered by those who were present. Janet Thomas, Ethel Morris, Marguerite Boschak, Mabel Howe, Catherine O'Hara, Miss Margaret O'Connor, Roschold, Ruby Silverfield, Wanda Lothson, Frank Barnes, Arthur Rosenfeld, Mason Ehrman and Edward Jeffrey were among the dancers.

An Elaborate Dinner.
Mrs. Ab Meier entertained in her usual charming manner on Wednesday evening a dinner for which the decorations were so elaborate as to make the guests doubt that every luxury of the city, not procurable at a beach resort, had been enjoyed. Mrs. Meier's hospitality was met by Mrs. and Mrs. Isaac White, Mrs. Julius Meier, Mrs. Henry Hausman and Miss Margie Hausman.

Concert Attracts Many.
A concert which attracted large crowds to Long Beach on Sunday afternoon was given on the west porch of the Long Beach hotel by the orchestra. The program consisted of the following numbers: "America's Patrol," "Hearts and Flowers," "Eustadantina," "Happily," "Selections From Faust," "Waltz Me Around Again, Willie" and "Madam Butterfly." The large lawn adjoining the hotel was thronged with people, as well as the walks surrounding it, and everyone voted the musical treat an innovation which all hoped will be soon repeated.

Notes of Seaside.
Probably the hero of the beach, at least that portion of the beach known as Seaside, is Sam May, of Portland. On Thursday, while the crowd in the tiny postoffice was the biggest a mad dog, in some manner found its way in and made for the crowd, causing a panic. Mr. May caught the animal by the neck and held it until the billy, causing himself to be overwhelmed by the gratitude of the many who would rather risk death from a mad dog than to see the hero of the beach taken to the pound.

Notes and Personal.
Harry Dreyfus and Lloyd Graves are at Ocean Park.
The hospitable home of the Isaac Whites, which is seldom without its quota of guests, is this week affording entertainment for Miss Gertrude White and Miss Henrietta Tichner.
Mrs. Lola Baldwin, who has charge of the Y. W. C. A. in Portland, is here for a week.

Bathing Finest in Years.
Many of the people who have visited on the North Beach for years, claim that the bathing has never before been so fine as this year. The breakers seem higher and more boisterous than ever, affording great sport to the divers and Wednesday. Those in the party were largely guests of the Hotel Salt Air, from whom they started on the morning arriving at the lighthouse in time to serve luncheon.

Fort Canby Visited.
Fort Canby was visited on Wednesday by a number of Seaside summer residents who went to Ilwaco and from that point were taken in a launch to the government station. A much appreciated lunch was partaken of, after which several of the party, including Mrs. Charles Mastick acted as chaperone for a party which was given at the Schwab, Edith Levy, Maud Mastick, Wilma Fiske, Edwina Mastick, Miss Faud Tyler, Miss Edna Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Haight, William Haight, Mrs. E. J. Haight, Bob Ramsdell and Melville Fell.

Swimmers.
Each bathing hour finds the water's edge lined with the young and the girls extremely attractive in their pretty bathing suits and the men ugly though comfortable in theirs.

Given Mayrath Party.
On Monday evening a party of young people from Long Beach had a young set party at the hotel. The party was given in honor of the birthday of the daughter of the hotel, and was a most successful one.

Wrecks as Attractions.
The beach this year offers a new attraction in the line of wrecks, the old "Harvest Home" and "Patrimus," which have lain on the ocean bed for so long, being now nearly covered up by the sand into which they are gradually sinking out of sight, being completely forgotten in the interesting sight of the "Solanos" in the harbor.

Open Tioga Cottage.
Mrs. J. P. Brougham and daughters, Lucile, Margaret and Annamay, arrived on Thursday to open their cottage at Tioga, where they will be joined later in the week by Mr. Brougham.

Notes of the Beach.
Miss Louise Conant, a graduate of Munich, and an artist well known in Portland, where she lectured at Chautauqua last summer has a cozy little home near Holman's station, where she spent the winter and is still rusticiating prior to her return to her home in Rockford, Illinois.

Knocky Cottage.
Mrs. Robert E. Gowdy, Miss Bertha Chase, Mrs. Sigmund Lipman, Mrs. Charles John Ferguson, M. A. Lynch, Mrs. B. L. Stone, J. V. Burke, Mrs. J. T. Burkhart, Fred Burkhart, Mrs. C. B. Brown, Dr. Alma L. Yates, Dr. J. M. Yates, Mrs. E. Dalgleish, Miss Eccles, Miss Edna Lindberg, Robert C. Turner, Mrs. S. R. Sigel, Mrs. Leo Seidel, Mrs. John T. Sullivan and Thiel Sullivan are registered at Taylor's hotel, Ocean Park, where they will remain until the middle of August.

Hotel Salt Air.
Mrs. E. Barnes, Mrs. H. G. Brown, Maurice Barnes, Philomena Barnes, M. Gevurtz and son, Milton Gevurtz, Harvey Gevurtz, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. H. Graham, E. J. Hibbard, F. S. Danford, W. McAllen, Walter Cox, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holzman, Sylvia Holzman, Elizabeth, Mrs. L. Knott, Miss E. A. Wilson, L. D. Mumma, L. T. Wilson, Helen E. Gillespie, Boise, Idaho; Isaac Dieterich, Mrs. Dieterich, Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Manning, St. Johns, Oregon; H. S. Brandt, Nampa, Idaho; Mrs. Paul Marchant, Salem, Oregon; Christina H. Niederberger, Frances, Oregon; Miss H. Louise Ebert, Glenns Ferry, Idaho.

At the Driftwood.
Mrs. Mae Beaver, Ida M. Sweek, Mrs. R. H. Pease, Charles J. Schnabel, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Therklester and baby, C. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, M. Mame Brown, Mrs. H. E. Kover, Mrs. R. J. Tennant, Mrs. L. Knott, Miss E. A. Wilson, H. V. Borst, W. H. Mael, Mrs. A. E. Fairchild, R. H. Pease, Mrs. A. Renner and son, Miss Alice Healy, O. Vaughn, Portland, Oregon; A. Flen-dehauer, Stevenson, Washington; Mrs. W. A. Coffey, Spokane, Washington; Mrs. F. C. Greene, Ida, Alberta, Greene, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; Miss M. L. Culler, Miss Carlen, Spokane, Washington; Mrs. A. Fisher, Mrs. T. Breslau, Colfax, Washington.

Long Beach Hotel.
O. Gunderson, A. P. Evans, J. S. Plant, Mr. and Mrs. M. Shimomura, Mrs. B. Brown, Dr. A. L. Yates, Mrs. Hoy, Brown, Dr. Jack M. Yates, M. A. Lynch, Frances Whitney, Jack De Brau, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ward, A. Y. Edwards, Toll Thompson, E. Clausen, E. Sneed, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dadsel, J. E. Jaeger and son, Charles Stearns, Dr. Cragg, Mrs. F. A. English, Kenneth Dorren, Dr. A. Della, Otto G. Emig, Mr. and Mrs. M. Parker, J. E. Lane, G. W. Woodward, Mrs. A. Lindsay, Charles H. Lacy, Fred R. Baker, R. G. Herch, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Johnson, E. A. Chas. P. O'Connell, Mrs. and Mrs. W. G. Babb, Spokane, Washington; J. A. McDonald, Tacoma, Washington; Dr. G. A. Tripp, H. H. Reed, E. Walker, B. Sprout, South Bend, Washington; Bert Simpson, Spokane, Washington; L. Hunter, A. Tildebrand, Alfred Pettit, George Franks, Portland, Oregon; Dr. T. Hibbard, E. Clausen, E. Sneed, Victor Minor, R. S. Dollensson, R. Chase, R. Tawdy, A. Chase, M. Chase, Dr. F. Damach, G. Castenack, Mr. and Mrs. B. Davis, Miss Helen Farley, E. Brook Farley, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Story, Charles Taker, A. C. Hansen, W. H. Meyer, R. T. Dabney, Porter, Howard Dabney, Clifford Dabney, F. B. Jack, W. F. Campbell, of Portland, Oregon; Mr. Charles Cason, Boise, Idaho; E. Adams, J. H. Hays, of Portland, Oregon; Mr. Alfred Pettit, Nahcotta, Washington; Mrs. White, W. P. Bodway, M. Abendorth, N. R. Bunker, of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. and Mrs. George Retzer of Walla Walla, Washington; Miss Jennie Bachefer, C. D. Bachefer, of Payette, Washington; Mrs. Raymond, D. W. Childs, South Bend, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Esson, The Dalles, Oregon; Mrs. and Mrs. George Retzer, Mrs. and Mrs. R. J. Clark, Omaha, Nebraska.

At Garden Grove.
Mrs. F. Walker, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Lena Schulze, John B. Hendroth and daughter, O. W. Giles, Andy Northrup, Aaron Cohen, Mrs. W. E. Nelson, and daughter, Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hegardt and daughter, Miss Alma and Freda Elliana, Margaret P. D. Dumbauld, Mrs. S. D. Dumbauld, Miss Dumbauld of Portland, Oregon; C. N. McKean, South Bend, Washington; Mrs. H. Ellander and son, Beaverton, Oregon; Mrs. M. Shelly, Mrs. E. M. Shelly and family, B. P. Harrison of Weiser, Idaho.

At the Wickham.
Dr. J. H. Davis, Mrs. J. H. Davis, D. L. Swain, Mrs. W. W. Carter, Frank Davis, Ontario, Oregon; Clayton Van Riper, Dayton, Ohio; S. R. Pierrman, B. Mac-Monigie and family, Boise, Idaho; Harriet C. Crabb, Mrs. R. S. D. Dumbauld, and Mrs. J. W. Craghead, Salem, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fletcher and daughter, Prescott, Washington; Joe Kinkella, Astoria, Oregon; Mrs. L. Kinkella, Astoria; Miss Eva Davich, Astoria.

At the Seaside House.
M. E. Watson, C. Viola Bauman, L. E. Foder, Mrs. M. C. Beckler, Helen J. Heise, Zora Fidler, L. Sophia R. Bauman, Clara Schlenke, Louise Schlenke, Mike Jacob, Mrs. S. M. Blumauer, Grace M. Blumauer, Mrs. H. C. Clauson, Mrs. G. W. Rauson, Mrs. Rauson, Mrs. H. E. Conan, Mrs. E. Mackay, Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Master Hugh Wallace, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, Mrs. J. G. Marsh, Mrs. A. Friendly, G. M. Warren, Forest Grove, Mrs. W. Klenn, Astoria; Billy Arlington and wife, Los Angeles; Mrs. John Twonly, San Jose; Mrs. J. C. Brown, Astoria; Mrs. E. Twonly; Robert E. Twonly, F. J. Quercan and wife, Denver.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The hardest electrical storm for 19 years, corrected for night at Seaside, Lightning illumined the water and Tillamook Head and the flashing light from lighthouse could be seen from the beach and the surrounding country.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The season at Seaside is at its height. The beach and shell road are thronged with people and the board walk from the Moore to Seaside house rivals that of Atlantic City fame. At night the shell road and Hermosa park are agleam with Chinese lanterns and "spellers" on either side rival each other in picturing the superiority of their special attractions.

At the Seaside Hotel.
People are never at a loss for something to do here in the evening, as there is dancing, skating and bowling and every variety of entertainment in melodrama to the old-fashioned medium.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hermosa park is the tent city of clatsop beach. Many people enter camps every luxurious and pretty with flags, lanterns and pennants bearing the name of the owner. There is a popular at night, which has been so popular at Portland, is also the favorite sport at the beach and Professor Nicoll has a number of classes in the afternoon, places frequently visited by riders are Cannon beach and Elk creek.

At the Seaside Hotel.
It is now possible to rent anything from a horse and buggy to a motor boat house and at high tide people may row from above Seaside house down to Gearhart, the river scenery from the bridge to Seaside house being especially beautiful.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hotels are crowded and it is well to know where one is going to stay when one comes to Seaside. A typical Saturday night scene is a bunch of people huddled disconsolately on the beach, number of cases piled high above them gazing at the sea waves and waiting anxiously while one of their number endeavors to find a hotel where everything is not taken, even the bathroom. The Pullman is a long room at the Moore which contains about 20 cots.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The "China" being a bunch of stories and pop corn. In the day time enjoyed the bathing, which is much enjoyed, riding and boating.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. George B. Callers hosts at a progressive five hundred party last Thursday. The cottage was prettily decorated and dainty refreshments served. Mrs. J. S. Reed won the first prize. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Perry Payne, Mrs. Frank Smith, Miss Kummel, Mrs. George, Mrs. J. S. Reed and Miss Roach.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. Frank Watson is visiting Mrs. Mulr at her beach cottage.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. W. J. Burns is at Gearhart for the rest of the summer. Mrs. Burns' sister, Miss Virginia Wilson, is visiting her.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. and Mrs. J. Hall of New York City have taken one of the Kruse cottages.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Homey are in their cottage on the Ridge. They have as visitors Mrs. William Homey and Mrs. David Lewis.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Five hundred was played at Kruse's Beach hotel Thursday evening. There were five tables and after some game of cards the remnants were served. Wednesday evening the guests enjoyed a huge bonfire on the beach.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The first dance of the season, which was given at Kruse's hotel last Saturday evening, was a big success and well attended. The dining-room and wide verandas were brilliantly lighted and lighted with Chinese lanterns and the music was good. The hotel dances are very popular both with the guests and invited company.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Webber's orchestra will play at Kruse's after August 1.

At the Seaside Hotel.
At Kruse's Beach Hotel, Frank Swoboda, Henry Jennie, James D. Keating, William C. Brown, W. H. Mathewson, Mrs. R. J. Chipman, J. West, F. L. Bishop and wife, Mrs. L. Dwyer, Edward J. Falling, W. P. Johnson, Mrs. Simpson, Lloyd Smith, G. May, wife and daughter, Misses Murphy, C. R. Davis, Mrs. G. W. Talbot and Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. George Kruse, Miss E. Barker, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Miss H. Watson, Miss L. Burckhardt, Miss Anna H. Burckhardt, Miss G. L. Germain, Mrs. A. Friendly, G. M. Thomas Jones, A. E. Kinney, Mrs. A. H. Harding, K. W. Kinsey, Portland; George H. West and wife, Greeley, Col.; Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. H. B. Spensley, Dubuque, Iowa; Mrs. W. N. Ferrin, Forest Grove; D. C. Shelburne, Forest Grove, Mrs. W. Klenn, Astoria; Billy Arlington and wife, Los Angeles; Mrs. John Twonly, San Jose; Mrs. J. C. Brown, Astoria; Mrs. E. Twonly; Robert E. Twonly, F. J. Quercan and wife, Denver.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The hardest electrical storm for 19 years, corrected for night at Seaside, Lightning illumined the water and Tillamook Head and the flashing light from lighthouse could be seen from the beach and the surrounding country.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The season at Seaside is at its height. The beach and shell road are thronged with people and the board walk from the Moore to Seaside house rivals that of Atlantic City fame. At night the shell road and Hermosa park are agleam with Chinese lanterns and "spellers" on either side rival each other in picturing the superiority of their special attractions.

At the Seaside Hotel.
People are never at a loss for something to do here in the evening, as there is dancing, skating and bowling and every variety of entertainment in melodrama to the old-fashioned medium.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hermosa park is the tent city of clatsop beach. Many people enter camps every luxurious and pretty with flags, lanterns and pennants bearing the name of the owner. There is a popular at night, which has been so popular at Portland, is also the favorite sport at the beach and Professor Nicoll has a number of classes in the afternoon, places frequently visited by riders are Cannon beach and Elk creek.

At the Seaside Hotel.
It is now possible to rent anything from a horse and buggy to a motor boat house and at high tide people may row from above Seaside house down to Gearhart, the river scenery from the bridge to Seaside house being especially beautiful.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hotels are crowded and it is well to know where one is going to stay when one comes to Seaside. A typical Saturday night scene is a bunch of people huddled disconsolately on the beach, number of cases piled high above them gazing at the sea waves and waiting anxiously while one of their number endeavors to find a hotel where everything is not taken, even the bathroom. The Pullman is a long room at the Moore which contains about 20 cots.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The "China" being a bunch of stories and pop corn. In the day time enjoyed the bathing, which is much enjoyed, riding and boating.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. George B. Callers hosts at a progressive five hundred party last Thursday. The cottage was prettily decorated and dainty refreshments served. Mrs. J. S. Reed won the first prize. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Perry Payne, Mrs. Frank Smith, Miss Kummel, Mrs. George, Mrs. J. S. Reed and Miss Roach.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. Frank Watson is visiting Mrs. Mulr at her beach cottage.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. W. J. Burns is at Gearhart for the rest of the summer. Mrs. Burns' sister, Miss Virginia Wilson, is visiting her.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mrs. and Mrs. J. Hall of New York City have taken one of the Kruse cottages.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Homey are in their cottage on the Ridge. They have as visitors Mrs. William Homey and Mrs. David Lewis.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Five hundred was played at Kruse's Beach hotel Thursday evening. There were five tables and after some game of cards the remnants were served. Wednesday evening the guests enjoyed a huge bonfire on the beach.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The first dance of the season, which was given at Kruse's hotel last Saturday evening, was a big success and well attended. The dining-room and wide verandas were brilliantly lighted and lighted with Chinese lanterns and the music was good. The hotel dances are very popular both with the guests and invited company.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Webber's orchestra will play at Kruse's after August 1.

At the Seaside Hotel.
At Kruse's Beach Hotel, Frank Swoboda, Henry Jennie, James D. Keating, William C. Brown, W. H. Mathewson, Mrs. R. J. Chipman, J. West, F. L. Bishop and wife, Mrs. L. Dwyer, Edward J. Falling, W. P. Johnson, Mrs. Simpson, Lloyd Smith, G. May, wife and daughter, Misses Murphy, C. R. Davis, Mrs. G. W. Talbot and Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. George Kruse, Miss E. Barker, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Miss H. Watson, Miss L. Burckhardt, Miss Anna H. Burckhardt, Miss G. L. Germain, Mrs. A. Friendly, G. M. Thomas Jones, A. E. Kinney, Mrs. A. H. Harding, K. W. Kinsey, Portland; George H. West and wife, Greeley, Col.; Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. H. B. Spensley, Dubuque, Iowa; Mrs. W. N. Ferrin, Forest Grove; D. C. Shelburne, Forest Grove, Mrs. W. Klenn, Astoria; Billy Arlington and wife, Los Angeles; Mrs. John Twonly, San Jose; Mrs. J. C. Brown, Astoria; Mrs. E. Twonly; Robert E. Twonly, F. J. Quercan and wife, Denver.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The hardest electrical storm for 19 years, corrected for night at Seaside, Lightning illumined the water and Tillamook Head and the flashing light from lighthouse could be seen from the beach and the surrounding country.

At the Seaside Hotel.
The season at Seaside is at its height. The beach and shell road are thronged with people and the board walk from the Moore to Seaside house rivals that of Atlantic City fame. At night the shell road and Hermosa park are agleam with Chinese lanterns and "spellers" on either side rival each other in picturing the superiority of their special attractions.

At the Seaside Hotel.
People are never at a loss for something to do here in the evening, as there is dancing, skating and bowling and every variety of entertainment in melodrama to the old-fashioned medium.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hermosa park is the tent city of clatsop beach. Many people enter camps every luxurious and pretty with flags, lanterns and pennants bearing the name of the owner. There is a popular at night, which has been so popular at Portland, is also the favorite sport at the beach and Professor Nicoll has a number of classes in the afternoon, places frequently visited by riders are Cannon beach and Elk creek.

At the Seaside Hotel.
It is now possible to rent anything from a horse and buggy to a motor boat house and at high tide people may row from above Seaside house down to Gearhart, the river scenery from the bridge to Seaside house being especially beautiful.

At the Seaside Hotel.
Hotels are crowded and it is well to know where one is going to stay when one comes to Seaside. A typical Saturday night scene is a bunch of people huddled disconsolately on the beach, number of cases piled high above them gazing at the sea waves and waiting anxiously while one of their number endeavors to find a hotel where everything is not taken, even the bathroom. The Pullman is a long room at the Moore which contains about 20 cots.