One of the biggest and noisiest week-day crowds of the season turned out to watch the set-to between Portland and Los Angeles at Athletic park yesterday. And it enjoyed an unusually large number of entertaining features before the two hours' show was over.

In the first place, the crowd was treated to a very pretty exhibition of the national game—for five innings. And it had the pleasure of seeing the home team get a lead on the league's top-notchers. Then it had the diversion of seeing a good pitcher gradually lose his nerve and take a balloon ascension. Following came the introduction of a new twirler from the bushes and the breathless curiosity with which such a man is always received.

One of the special features of the watching the new unknown relief the heavy hitters from the south in one-two-three order only to fall a victim in the next inning. Oh, there were all sorts of features to the first ladies' day game in August.

Score was disgraceful.
Of course the score was disgraceful, 11 to 2, but even the run-getting of the Los Angeles got to be fun after awhile. Califf and Nagle were the gunners at the bat and for five innings Califf allowed but two hits, while but one was scored off the Angel twirler in the first four.

In the second half of the fifth the locals put the first run over. McCredie hit a liner to a safe spot. He went out on Donahue's grounder, but the latter was safe. Donahue went to second on Pokorny's bouncer and Moore brought him around to third on a hot shot past Jud Smith. They worked long enough to put Donahue over.

Nagle started the sixth inning with a two-base hit and Califf immediately ran his ascent into the cloudy heavens. Dillon Gets in Deadly Work.
Bernard sacrificed, Califf walked and Brashers fouled out to Pokorny. Two out and yet no runs. There's where Califf worked and he recently came from bent his curves on Ellis. But Califf didn't and Dillon slammed one over second which brought in Nagle and Califf. Ellis was safe. Dillon hit and Califf walked. Donahue, forcing in the third run. Eager flew out to Bassey and the inning was over.

Two went out in succession in the seventh—by good luck. Then began a series of hits and errors which were laughable. Brashers, Dillon, Ellis and Smith all have to be given credit for hits, though it was rotten team work that allowed most of them. In the eighth Pokorny muffed a throw, Bassey let a grounder go through his legs. Califf failed to cover first when he should have done so and Casey, disgusted at Califf's stupidity, threw the ball away and allowed Ellis to travel an extra base. The half ended with the score 7 to 1.

Portland Scores Again.
Hits by McCredie and Donahue and a passed grounder by Carlisle. McCredie over in the second half of the seventh. Then the new bush pitcher was introduced. His name is Drew, John Drew, and he recently came from Wallace, Idaho. He appeared a large young man with a resigned look on his face and a suit that "fit too quick." He delivered most of his ball with a underhand swing and, as McCredie is in the kindergarten business, he may be looked upon as a fairly promising pupil. Eager made a throw, Bassey hit and he faced the pitcher and got a strike.

Rising From the Grave.
A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucania, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters cured me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at Red Cross Pharmacy. Price only 50c.

out for his fun. Nagle and Bernard both went out on short files.

New Pitcher Shows Green.
The fans applauded the new "find" loudly, but he did not perform so well in the next inning, which was the ninth. Carlisle started the fun by hitting a two-swat. Brashers followed with a sacrifice which the green youth threw to third when called upon to do so by the Los Angeles coach. Carlisle beat it, of course, and it was as good as a hit. Dillon scored on the wild throw and Ellis scored on Smith's foul to Pokorny. Then the young pitcher—born not as young as Fernoli or Horne or Schimpff—fanned the next two and the run-getting was over. ## PASADENA MAY BE IN COAST BASEBALL LEAGUE NEXT YEAR

(Journal Special Service.)
Los Angeles, Aug. 3.—The talk of a six-team ball league for the coast next season seems to be very much of a hot-air dream at present, and despite the rumors to the contrary, there has been nothing definitely decided in regard to it.

In discussing the matter yesterday, Manager Berry of the Los Angeles team said he had no idea what the league would do, but in order to give the local fans continuous ball another team here would be necessary, and Pasadena was the logical home for that team. At least dozen men have already spoken to him about the franchise for Pasadena, but that it should be understood.

Berry and Cal Ewing went to Pasadena last Sunday to look around the place, and they found that the only available ball ground was out of the city limits near the Hotel Raymond, and it was there because the city officials would not stand for Sunday ball playing, and if it was used for a Pasadena league club it would require much money to put it in shape.

Portland is one of the best cities in the league and both Ewing and McCredie declare it will not leave the Coast league.

An interesting little pamphlet has been published by the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor company known as the Maxwell Primer. It is intended primarily for the man who knows absolutely nothing about an automobile and who would like to be familiar at least with the names of the principal parts of a car. It is, in short, a "catechism of the automobile." The Maxwell-Briscoe Motor company will gladly send a copy free to any one interested.

The automobile always has proven a friend of the farmer, but there is no agriculturalist in the old country now. Miss Sutton has the woman's championship. Mr. Gould that for court tennis and the Australians for lawn tennis. In other branches of sport, including even rowing, Great Britain is nearly as bad off. It would not be surprising if a parliamentary inquiry should be demanded to find out what is the matter when

BAT RECORDS OF TRI-CITY LEAGUE

Charley Moore, St. Johns Pitcher, Leads the Regular Performers.

APOSTLES STAND AT HEAD OF ALL TEAMS

Figures to August 1 Show That 142 Players Average Percentage of .200—The Records of All Those Batting Better Than .285.

Secretary H. K. Smith of the Tri-City league, has been busy the past week figuring up the batting and fielding averages of the players in the minor league. The figures published are based on the official score sheets as sent in to his office.

One hundred and forty-two players are on the list. The average per man is .200, which is not so bad for men who do not have an opportunity to face a pitcher more than once a week.

Charley Moore, the player-manager of the St. Johns team, leads the league in hitting, also in the number of runs scored. Close behind him are Michele, the big Indian on the Woodburn team, and Ray Hinkle, the fast little fielder on the Apostle team.

St. Johns now leads the league with the willow. The Cubs, who had occupied the top round, took a slump and have dropped to third place. Charlie Moore also leads the league twirlers in hitting; Meyers of the Frakes, follows with .263; Hoover, .258; Backus, .227; Fender, .192; Barnard, .174; Olney, .202; Concannon, .190; Brinke, Yerch, Kottman, Poland, Taylor, Ripley, Hull, Street and Robinson are all under .174.

The season is now half over. Two more months of play and several hard games ahead in which the batters will be thoroughly tried and some big changes may come.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Dillon's hitting was one of the features of the game. The big captain of the Angels hit two doubles and two singles out of four times at bat. He has been hitting like a demon all this week and last and has been a big factor in winning the victories Los Angeles has scored off Portland. When is President Ewing going to suspend Dillon and investigate his assault upon Umpire Derrick? Probably as McDredie suggests, when Los Angeles begins a series against Ewing's own club, San Francisco. By allowing Dillon to play on Ewing has disregarded all the precedents set in professional baseball, as well as outraged Derrick and insulted the supporters of the Coast league games. The mildest thing that can be said about him is that he is unfit to hold his job.

McCredie ought to have taken Califf out at the end of the sixth inning. A pitcher who will walk three men, soak one and allow two hits and a sacrifice in one inning is not ready for the bench. In this case the result of the game would not have been different, but McCredie has been tardy under the conditions at other times when an earlier switching of pitchers would have changed the result of the game.

Ray Lovett, the corner fielder, will be seen in a Beaver uniform no longer. Lovett is going to work for Harvey O'Bryan in the insurance business. He is a good hitter and a good fielder, but is easily discouraged and has had bad streaks at the bat on this account. Donahue will probably play center field much of the time, while Moore will play behind the bat. Upon Pokorny's hitting within the next few days will depend whether or not he works regularly with the Portland team.

McCredie hit safe three times yesterday out of four times at bat. Moore hit safe twice out of three times up. The Angel hit of the day was made by Bassey, a three-bagger over Bernard's head in the eighth. Bassey lifted one nearly over Carlisle's head in the eighth. It would have been good for three or three bases, but the left fielder was playing far back and, besides, he made a great run for the ball.

Pernell, the Grants Pass "phenom," is slated to pitch for Portland Sunday. It will probably be Kinsella today.

Pokorny's good work early in the game caused the fans to make him recognize their appreciation by taking off his cap. "Porky" handled himself well at first. He made at least one pickup which Atherton would never have gotten. If Pokorny could only hit—but he can't. He would have hit better times when he had eight or 10 chances on the local diamond.

Brashers worked the hide-the-ball-and-catch-him play yesterday. It was in the eighth inning and Catcher Moore was the victim. Moore hit a pretty single to right field, the ball was thrown in to Brashers, who sneaked it behind him until Moore played off first, when he threw it to Dillon and caught the runner.
