New York, Aug. 6 .- This city's reign of crime against women and children runs on unchecked. Yesterday half a dozen Italians were arrested for crimidozen Italians were arrested for criminal assaults and the most fiendish of crimes is charged against them.

Mothers throughout the Italian colony tremble for fear that their children will be taken from them in mid-day and brutally treated by the ruffians whose mania spreads with the futile efforts of the police to corral the offenders. Five hundred additional police have been asked for by Commissioner Bingham to patrol the Italian district.
