

UNIQUE SCHEME FOR SUBMISSION FOREST RESERVES FAVORED IN EAST

East Side Merchants Alive to Governor Glenn of North Carolina Heads Movement to Create Reservation.

ADVERTISING PLAN WORKING OUT WELL

Several Effective Ideas Will Be Brought to Bear on East Siders Showing Them Why They Should Buy on That Side of the River.

As a result of the effort being put forth by the business men of Grand avenue and other east side merchants who are planning a tremendous advertising crusade for the early fall and winter, some unique schemes have been prepared for submission to the East Side Business Men's club. The banks, groceries, clothing stores, department stores and all business houses will join and the committee having the work under their immediate supervision consists of representatives of all these different concerns.

H. A. Calef of Calef Brothers, dealers in furniture, president of the club and chairman of the committee, is absent at the coast, but is expected to return today, whereupon the committee will be called together to begin discussion of the plans. Several schemes starting and effective will be sprung on unsuspecting east siders in order to convince them that they should buy of the east side merchants instead of purchasing so much on the west side of the river.

Besides the electric displays and contest for a slogan in which an offer of $50 is made for the one who will suggest a phrase that will be accepted by the club for advertising the whole east side, there are a number of smaller schemes. The improvement of Grand avenue is a factor that is expected to do much in the campaign for the east side business men, and has given the present movement added impetus. Heretofore the mud in the winter and the dust in the summer on Grand avenue have aided many in deciding to go to the west side to buy. When, however, Grand avenue shall have been paved this will all be changed, and in fact will be much the cleanest and widest business street in the entire city of Portland. Within a few days the new Grand avenue bridge across Sullivan's gulch will be completed when much traffic now diverted to Union avenue will come in over the new bridge.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS AT JAMESTOWN FAIR

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 6.—One of the largest conventions that has assembled here during the exposition is the national gathering of the Knights of Columbus, which met today with delegates present from every section of the country. Preceding the formal opening of the convention this morning the delegates marched to St. Mary's church, where they attended the celebration of pontifical high mass by Bishop Kelley of Georgia.

After mass the delegates were conducted to the Granby theater, where an address of welcome was delivered by Governor Swanson, and responded to by Supreme Knight Edward L. Hearne, of New Haven, Connecticut. When these formalities had been disposed of an adjournment was taken to the Pine Beach hotel, where the business sessions of the order were begun this afternoon. Thursday will be observed at the Jamestown exposition, as Knights of Columbus day, with Cardinal Gibbons and other Catholic prelates as the honored guests of the occasion.

Idaho B. Y. P. U. Convention. (Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Boise, Idaho, Aug. 6.—Extensive preparations are being made for the first annual meeting of the Baptist Young People's union of southern Idaho, to be held here September 19 to 22. A large number of delegates are expected to be present. President Ellis of McMinnville college, McMinnville, Oregon, will address the meeting.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL WOULD STOP FLOODS

Universal Demand That Mountains Be Replanted—Cost of Land Purchase Heavy—Irrigation Congress to Petition Congress.

(Washington Bureau of the Journal.) Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Governor Glenn, North Carolina's doughty chief executive who worsted the Southern railway in the first encounter the other day, will head a delegation to the national irrigation congress at Sacramento in October, to induce that body to endorse the bill for the creation of the Appalachian national forest and one in the White mountains of New England. Representative Currier of New Hampshire leads the New England section of the delegation.

Instead of being opposed to the creation of national forests in the Appalachian and White mountains, the people in all states involved appear to be strongly for it. Speaker Cannon opposed the bill in the last session—opposition sufficient to prevent the measure from becoming a law, under the committee rule of the house—but that time there appeared no opposition in the open; it is hinted that if there was opposition it was from lumber companies which did not care to come out from under cover and resist the measure.

Cost Three Millions. The bill which will be presented next December will provide for the purchase of forest areas of lands in both chains of mountains, and it has been estimated that $3,000,000 will be the cost of the lands in the White range alone, that needed in the Appalachian will be greatly more than that.

Governor Glenn and other influential men from the north and south in Washington last winter to urge passage of the bill, but were unable to move Speaker Cannon from his position. They purpose now to carry the war to the national irrigation congress, there to tell the reasons why that body should recommend enactment of the bill into a law at once.

"It has been demonstrated," an engineer said who has been interested in the project, "that the waterpowers and city water supplies of a hundred cities and hundreds of manufacturing institutions are in danger of being irretrievably destroyed, and that action must be taken soon if there is not to be a famine of water throughout the most thickly settled portion of the United States."

Flood Danger Growing. "It is realized that the experience in the Pittsburg region, where annually in the springtime from $5,000,000 to $20,000,000 damage from floods is done, is not a far-off possibility, and that only one means will stop such floods—national forests or forests controlled according to the same methods as are employed by the forest bureau."

In this project the states of Georgia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, besides the New England group, are deeply interested, so that the influence which will be brought to bear on the irrigation congress next winter will be considerable.

CANADIANS MAKE OCTOPUS FACES UNCLE SAM LAUGH

Raising of British Flag on Isle Royale Affords Much Amusement. (Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—There is not the slightest agitation in the minds of officials of the American government because of the action of Captain Young of the ninety-sixth Regiment and his party of Canadians in raising the British flag over the Isle Royale, in Lake Superior, and declaring it Canadian territory. In fact, officials of the department of state are much amused over the claims of the Canadians.

They call attention to the fact that the channel between the Isle Royale and the Canadian mainland as marking the boundary between the United States and Canada. The Isle Royale is a game preserve in part, including many rich vineyards, and is a favorite resort for people from Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, in the United States, and from larger towns of Manitoba, in Canada.

IDAHO "BIG FELLOWS" ARE LEFT GUESSING

District Attorney Rulck Has Not Taken Up the Calendar for the September Term. (Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Boise, Idaho, Aug. 6.—The next regular term of the United States district court for Boise will open September 9. When asked whether action would be taken relative to the indictments said to have been returned by the grand jury in this city last spring in the lumber fraud cases, United States District Attorney Rulck said: "I have not yet considered what should be taken up at that term. It has been so warm and I was so worn out by my labors during the trials of the timber cases at Moscow that I have not yet considered what would be placed upon the calendar for next term."

MUSIC AND BUSINESS IN CITY SCHOOLS

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Salem, Or., Aug. 6.—J. M. Fowler, superintendent of the schools of this city, has addressed a letter to the school board strongly recommending that a special instructor in music and drawing be added to the teaching force. He also advised that commercial courses be added to the branches taught in the high school and that this be made supplementary to the courses taught in the recognized business colleges of the city. The school board has the matter under consideration.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe obstinate, hang-over, chronic coughs, bronchial and nervous troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-over coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present. In its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration of catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal indigestion of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native Medical notes composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

Will Gave Seven Thousand Dollars to Hired Man and Cut Out Relatives.

(Journal Special Service.) San Bernardino, Cal., Aug. 6.—The jury in the Sarah Graves will contest last evening returned a verdict knocking out the will on the ground that the woman was of unsound mind when the will was executed, and that it is not her signature subscribed to the instrument. The will bequeathed $7,000 to the hired man and the remainder of the $19,000 estate to the churches of Riverside. The Universalist church, of which Mrs. Graves was a member, received the smallest amount, while the other churches she never attended, were well provided for. The contestants, Mrs. Roxy Calef, Mrs. Nettie Pearson and Elijah Stingley, relatives of the testatrix charged former Superior Judge Noyes of Riverside, who drew the will, with undue influence, and his reputed conversion by Evangelist Bulgain awakened his desire to give money to churches. Mrs. Graves was a paralytic, unable to walk or talk. Noyes held her hand, while her trembling signature was placed to the will.

GOVERNMENT PREPARING TO ADD TO TROUBLES OF THE STANDARD OIL.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Two possible avenues whereby the Standard Oil company may hope to escape the fine imposed by Judge Landis, may be sought by the astute lawyers of the octopus, but they will find the government strongly entrenched in each. One is that the fine is excessive and cruel, the other that the federal government neglected to use due diligence in bringing the action.

At the department of justice it is pointed out that the minimum fine, imposed by the law, which the Standard Oil company violated is $10,000 for each offense. A company convicted of 1,400 violations of the law, as in the case of the Standard Oil company, would have to be fined at least $14,000,000. Therefore in raising the plea that the fine is excessive, the Standard Oil company will attack the constitutionality of the whole act. Proceedings against the Standard Oil company in various state courts are promised, as a result of the evidence collected by the federal government. It has developed that the bureau of corporations has, during its investigation of the trust, discovered much damaging evidence to add to its troubles.
