BIG SLAUGHTER IN THIRD INNING

Pitcher Carnes Passes Three and Then Beavers Bat Him for Five Runs.

THE NEW OUTFIELDER HITS THREE-BAGGER

Both Carnes and Groom Are Highly Effective After Fatal Third and Groom Strikes Out Three Commuters in the Eighth.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Portland, 1; Oakland, 1.
San Francisco, 9; Los Angeles, 8.

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Los Angeles	63	48	.568
San Francisco	63	56	.529
Oakland	63	57	.525
Portland	43	68	.387

Pitcher Carnes, who has been winning games for Oakland ever since "Hen" Berry traded him away three weeks ago, had one bad inning yesterday and the Beavers made the most of it. Bobby Groom was just a local hero in the same inning, getting wobbly in the same inning, getting wobbly in the same inning, getting wobbly in the same inning.

Six runs were scored in that inning—the third—for Portland and one for Oakland. In all the other eight acts both slabsters were highly effective and, though numerous batsmen reached the bases, none were chased over the little smooth square that counts the rallies.

Fans Are Highly Ticked.
My! Didn't the fans revel in that slaughter and hug themselves for braving the showers! Especially after the visitors had begun on Groom?

The third inning began with Carnes at the bat and Groom looking a little blue about the gills. Carnes poked a first one along the left foul line, but Matt Macke did not pick-up and the runner was out. Jim Smith was next. After three balls were on him, Smith picked one out that was meant to be a strike and put it over Fielder Burdette's diamond. Smith was out.

It was one to nothing in favor of Oakland when Donahue took the stick. A double play would mean no runs and the faithful held their breath. But Donahue made good. He split the diamond in half with a swat that was too fast and too high for anybody to reach.

That meant two more runs. Fay kept up the good work by hitting for two bases and Casey struck out. Five runs and only one out. Fay was on third, but Bassey struck out on the fourth.

The long lead encouraged Portland's long twirler and he became stronger every inning. In the eighth two commuters singled, but Bobby prevented a score by striking out three batters. In the ninth the Commuters tried hard to do something. They got a couple of men on bases, but Bassey fielded Van Haltern's hit quick and ended the game by a throw which caught Devereaux traveling to third base. The official score:

NOTES OF THE GAME
"Truck" Eagan, the big shortstop who has been the mainstay of the Los Angeles team since he was traded to them from the Athletics, was the most spectacular "brace" at the bat of the day. He struck a home run, didn't get a hit yesterday, though he knocked what was undoubtedly the hardest shot of the day. "Truck" picked out one of Long Bob's offerings in the first inning and drove it on a line all the way to McCredie in right field. It

That Emile Herz' luck is still with him was proven recently when his good-looked Montgomery defeated Frank Gill a head in the rich Commonwealth handicap. But for a sleepy ride by Knapp in the stretch, when he had the race won, Frank Gill would have been first to the wire. Montgomery ran his usual honest race, finishing with a fine burst of speed.

NORTHWEST CHAMPIONSHIP NOT TO COME TO OREGON THIS YEAR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 9.—The tennis championship of the northwest in men's singles will not go to Oregon this year, as with the completion of yesterday's matches all of the Portland representatives have been defeated. Yesterday Wickkersham was beaten by Crawford, and Crawford of California, with the exception of the first set, was defeated by Payne of Tacoma and Andrews was defeated by Wilder of British Columbia. Tuesday Wilder was put out by Hunt of California.

Both Wickkersham and Andrews put up hard fights in their last matches. Wickkersham started very strong against the Oakland and by sheer brilliancy annexed the first set, 7-5. But the experienced tournament expert from the south had Wick's week points well estimated and he took the next two sets, 6-3, 6-3. Andrews captured the first set from Wilder by hard driving, but was unable to keep up the pace and the next two by one-sided scores.

The championship undoubtedly lies between Payne, the present holder, Tyler of Seattle, McMurray of Spokane, and Crawford of California, with the probabilities of the light being between Payne and Tyler, as it was last year. Tyler showed his class by killing off Hunt of California, who had won numerous middle west, southeast and state championships in straight sets.

The feature of the ladies' singles is the playing of Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, whose style has so often been compared to that of Miss May Sutton. So far in her tourney Miss Hotchkiss has won all her matches easily, without loss or the danger of the loss of a set.

Yesterdays summary follows:
Men's singles—Andrews defeated Cardin by default; McMurray defeated McDougal, 6-4, 6-4; Benham defeated Lyon, 6-4, 6-2; Tyler defeated Poolley, 6-3, 6-2; Hunt defeated Seiler, 6-0, 6-2; Wilder defeated Andrews, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2; Payne defeated Benham, 6-4, 6-2; McMurray defeated Hunt, 6-0, 6-1; McMurray defeated Armstrong, 6-4, 11-9; Crawford defeated Wickkersham, 6-7, 6-3, 6-8; Crawford defeated Wilder, 6-1, 6-0; Tyler defeated Hunt, 6-4, 6-4; McMurray defeated Thompson.

Ladies' singles—Miss Worden won from Miss Kershaw, default; Miss Temple won from Mrs. J. McT. Pantan, default; Miss Ryan won from Miss Edwards, default; Miss Ryan defeated Miss Temple, 6-0, 6-1; Miss Hotchkiss defeated Miss Worden, 6-0, 6-1; Miss Dorothy Kershaw defeated Miss Loomis, 10-8, 6-3; Miss Keown defeated Miss Robertson, 6-1, 6-5.

Men's doubles—Payne and Armstrong defeated Heyburn and Manley, default; Tyler and Wickkersham defeated Seiler and Crawford, 6-1, 6-0; Payne and Wickkersham defeated Eddy and Robertson, 6-1, 6-2; McMurray and Ballinger defeated Benham and McDougal, 6-3, 6-1; Wilder and Lewis defeated Whipple and Armstrong, 6-1, 6-0; Hunt and Thompson, 6-3, 6-2.

Ladies' doubles—Miss Powell and Miss Opie defeated Miss Baillie and Miss Edwards, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3; Miss Loomis and Miss Worden defeated Miss Vaeth and Miss Keown, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Keown and Miss Kershaw defeated Miss Temple and Miss Baillie, 6-5, 6-3; Miss Hotchkiss and Miss Robertson defeated Miss Powell and Miss Opie, 6-0, 6-0; Miss Ryan and Miss Hill defeated Miss Kershaw and Miss Keown, 6-2, 6-2.

Mixed doubles—Miss Keown and Hunt defeated Miss Worden and Wilder, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1; Miss Robertson and Benham defeated Miss Hotchkiss and McMurray, 6-4, 6-1; Miss Hotchkiss and Tyler defeated Miss Temple and Wickkersham, 6-0, 6-1; Miss Ryan and Tyler defeated Miss Kershaw and Ballinger, 6-4, 6-1.

ROWING RACES ON SCHUYLKILL RIVER
(Journal Special Service.)
Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 9.—The waters of the Schuylkill river were ruffled early today by the darting shells of a score or more oarsmen who have gathered here for the thirty-fifth annual regatta of the national association, several preliminary events of which were on the program for this afternoon. Tomorrow will come the finale, and the long-looked-for championships. Those who did not go out for an early-morning spin gathered along Boathouse Row and discussed the chances of the Germans and other aspirants for championship honors as well as probabilities of some of the present holders retaining their titles.

INTERNATIONAL IN SCOPE. The senior four-oared shell race is placed as the special feature of the regatta, a place usually allotted to the senior eight-oared shell contest. In addition to the senior fours the Germans are entered in the senior singles and senior doubles. They will go against the pick of the amateur oarsmen of the eastern clubs, as well as several crack oarsmen from the far west and from Canada. That the German crews will prove formidable opponents is admitted, and it is thought that for the first time in the history of rowing in the United States one or more national association trophies may go abroad.

The annual meeting of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen takes place at the Athletic club tonight, when the question of returning the visit of the German oarsmen next year will be decided. The advisability of entering an all-American eight-oared crew in the Olympic games in England next year also will be discussed by the executive committee of the association.

After the competitions at Ottawa the British team will make the journey across the continent and will sail from Vancouver for Australia.

BRITISH RUNNER SECURES MATCH

Young Joe Sullivan to Go Against Him for Large Side Bet.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Aug. 9.—E. R. Day, champion sprinter of Great Britain, and Joe Sullivan, who has not been out of high school very long, will meet on the cinder path in about a month. The men have agreed to run three races in one day—100 yards, 175 yards and 220 yards. This agreement was reached in the office of the sporting editor of the Times after a long parley between Rufe Naylor of Australia, manager of Day, and Mike Butler of Chicago, who is handling Sullivan and at that he says he is conceding Sullivan victory in the 100 yard dash. Butler says he is prepared to bet up to $1,000 on young Sullivan, but the Britishers would not consent. They were three weeks on the water coming over from Australia and Day had been out of training for a week before he boarded the ship, so that he figures it will take him just about a month to get fit.

Nothing is known out here about Sullivan, but the fact that Mike Butler is willing to bet on him, is sufficient evidence that the boy has speed, for Butler knows every sprinter in the country and just what he can do. The time and place of the race will be determined upon later, but in the meantime the two sprinters will begin active training.

Running three races in one day is something new for American sprinters, and Butler says that this is the way it is done in Australia and he would prefer to have the thing over in one day rather than to strut the three races over as many days. The men will be given a short rest between the 100 and 175-yard dashes, and a longer one before going to the mark for the 220 yards.

While Day does not claim to be a record maker, he is willing to run a man in the United States at that distance. Tom Longboat or Champion Burrah of England are preferred. Butler says there is a Seattle boy whom he would back against any man in the world at the mile, if he could get him to run against a professional. He means Harry Cox, who has made such a reputation at the University of Michigan.

Gleason, manager of the Occidental club, guarantees $25,000 and agrees to give 75 per cent of the gate receipts.

PIANO BUYERS

A Quick Decision Means Great Saving

If you wish to make a limited amount of money go a very long way in the piano purchasing line, the time has come for you to put your money to the very best use.

Such piano values have seldom been known in the history of the trade, as prevail right here and now, in Portland.

The diverted shipment of a hundred and seventeen splendid new and choicest instruments from our San Francisco store means more to the pianoless homes of this city than any other piano offering in years—if indeed it has ever been equaled.

Every instrument is of well known make and long established reliability. There is no chance of disappointment—no possibility of dissatisfaction.

The price on every one of the hundred and seventeen instruments has been cut to 87 cents on the dollar—a saving to the fortunate buyers of nearly a hundred dollars on a $200 piano; $129 on the $300 grade; a saving of $171 on the $400 instruments, and of $215 on the $500 pianos.

Fully a third of the shipment has already been sold, a splendid record for the first four days of the sale. Keen, wide-awake music lovers have eagerly embraced this opportunity to take advantage of a genuine bargain. Interest is increasing, for friends of those who have already purchased are coming now, upon the strength of their recommendation.

Our windows and recital hall are both filled with these pianos. Look them over with critical judgment—note their uniform high excellence—their splendid character—their fine tone qualities, handsome case designs and perfect finish and condition. Really, a finer special showing of high class pianos was never made in Portland—it's decidedly out of the ordinary. And you are not limited to a few makes—there are many, so that you can please yourself exactly in the matter of every preference.

Do not ponder and debate—investigate, and be quick. Do not wait until the sale is over—and there are but a few days more—come at once. For those who cannot call during the day, we have arranged to keep our store open during the evening while sale lasts. A parting word—be prompt.
