TODAY'S MARKETS

Condition of Hop Crop Is Serious in This State Despite All the Talk of the Dealers Who Have Sold Short.

POTATOES TO MOVE OUTSIDE

Rains Cause Shortage Temporarily—Plenty of Ripe Stock, But None Coming

Today's market features:
Potatoes to move out soon.
Steady improvement in eggs.
Chicken market fractionally better.
Dressed meats hard to get.
Cantaloupe market still in bad shape.
Standard Oil puts down candles.
Peaches sell at a sacrifice.
Watermelon demand is curtailed.
Corn meal and hominy lower.
Local salmon stock still small.

Potatoes to Move Soon.

As soon as weather conditions will again permit active digging it is quite likely that there will be some liberal potato shipments from this market to both the north and south within the next few weeks. Reports from nearby sections state that had the rains not interfered digging operations would now be quite general. Early potatoes are full two or three weeks later than usual, but it is stated that a large amount is at present ripe and ready for market. The rains have been a wonderful aid to late potatoes and will cause the crop to be heavier than expected a few weeks ago. On the other hand, it is stated that the rains will cause the early stock to start growing again and this will be a detriment to quality and appearance. In this city the trade is offering $1.25 per hundred pounds for potatoes for shipment. At the moment supplies in the local market are exceedingly scarce, and this is what caused the sharp advance in the price yesterday morning. Practically no arrivals today.

Steady Egg Improvement.

There continues a steady improvement in the tone of the local egg market. Receipts from the country are smaller and demand is increasing. Oregon eggs are worth from 2 to 3c a dozen more than eastern stock, and this is said to be causing some handlers of eastern eggs to send the latter out when only fresh stock is ordered. This is a violation of the new pure food law now in operation and the dealer who does not specify where the eggs come from—that is if they are not local—is subject to a heavy fine. Reliable dealers will welcome the strict enforcement of this law as they state they are unable to compete with handlers of eastern eggs who send that grade out when only eggs are specified in the order. Best Oregons are today selling at 22½c and 23c a dozen.

There is a fractional improvement in the tone of the poultry market, but values are scarcely changed. Receipts and demand about equal at this time.

The cooler weather has curtailed to a considerable extent the demand for watermelons. With eight cars in the other day the market is very well supplied and stocks are dragging somewhat.

Cantaloupe market continues in bad shape with much poor stock coming both from the south and locally. Good stock in heavy demand at fancy prices.

Tomatoes are in better demand with supplies of better quality. Price about the same.

Green corn is coming in badly mixed shape. Some well-filled sacks selling as high as $1.00 and $1.25. Others down to 75c.

Peach market is in a rather bad shape owing to the dry rot shown in Southern Oregon stock. Sales of Crawfords made during the past 24 hours down to 75c, but fancy stock will sell today at 1- and $1.10 a box.

Brief Notes of the Trade.

Standard Oil company announces an easier and somewhat lower price in candles.

Corn meal and hominy show a decline of 5c a bale today.

Bale salt is advanced 15c a bale today. This puts the entire salt market up to the recent advance. Market very firm at the new figures.

While a greater run of salmon is reported in the Columbia, local fish dealers say they are experiencing the same difficulty in obtaining supplies for the fresh market. All fish prices firm and unchanged.

Apple market is in fine shape. California stocks the best at present and are bringing the higher figures.

Some small supplies of cherries still coming. Price around 10c a pound.

Dressed meats of all kinds are in larger demand than supply. No change in price.

Chittim bark continues to show a stronger tone, but values are unchanged.

Production of Wheat.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—Government crop report:

Production of winter wheat, 409,500,000 bushels, or about an average of 14.6 bushels an acre.

Amount of oats in farmers' hands, 7.1 per cent, equalling 68,000,000 bushels.

DRY ROT HURTING LOCAL PEACH PRICE

"There is considerable dry rot in the peaches now coming from southern Oregon points at this time. This accounts for the low prices now ruling on that class of fruit. California peaches are coming in better shape than usual and they are graded better than those from local points. Some very nice ones are coming from The Dalles but many are poor and do not bring good values.

"The rains have stopped the ripening of tomatoes and this has resulted in a better market today. Our firm did not receive more than a quarter of its usual supplies today."—Charles Walker of Page & Son.

EGGS FIRMER, SAYS THOMAS G. FARRELL

"Eggs are in fair supply, but I am of the opinion that receipts are somewhat lighter, and consider the tone of the market firmer. I advise that shippers get their goods in while they are fresh, that the loss may be as small as possible.

"Butter is firmer and advanced for all grades.

"Poultry has had a very good week, with fair receipts and a very fair demand. Good hens are especially desired, and large hens are selling well. Prices are very flattering from a seller's standpoint. Large young ducks sell very well, but small ones are not wanted at all. Fat turkey hens, and large spring turks are in good demand. I am of the opinion that the coming week will be a good one for poultry shippers.

"Fancy, fat, medium and small veal is still quite in sellers' favor, and receipts are inadequate. Small, and medium, solid pork is scarce and in good demand."—Tom Farrell of Everding & Farrell.

FIRST HOGS IN 4 DAYS ARRIVE

Run Is Small But Helps Somewhat to Relieve the Famine.

Portland Union Stockyards, Aug. 9.—Official receipts:

	Hogs.	Cattle	Sheep.
Today	200	150	...
Week ago	137	62	...
Year ago	...	290	260
Previous year	22	175	109

The first hogs to put in appearance in the yards since Monday—when the total run was but 89 head, were reported in today, and were quickly snapped up by killers, mostly around the extreme top values. Today's run of 200 head compares with 137 head a week ago, none a year ago and a nominal number this Friday two years ago.

A year ago today hogs were quoted firmer, but unchanged in price.

Absence of Sheep.

This was another day without the arrival of sheep in the local yards. On this day a week ago conditions were similar and in consequence the price rules very firm, but unchanged. Sheep are already so high that although demand is larger than supply, killers are not buying so freely. The general opinion of the trade, however, is that the sheep market will soon show rising values.

A year ago today sheep were unchanged in price; market very firm.

While not all steers arriving are selling up to 4c, the tone of the market is improving. Receipts of cattle are only fair, with supplies and demand about equal.

A year ago steers were showing an improved demand and prices showed a tendency to rise.

Official yard prices:

Hogs—Best eastern Oregon, $6.75@7; stockers and feeders, $7; China fats, $6.75.

Cattle—Best eastern Oregon steers, $3.75@4; best cows and heifers, $3; bulls, $2.

Sheep—Best wethers, $4.25; ewes, $4; lambs, $5.

Sheep Strong in East.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Hogs are steady, with 8,000 left over. Receipts a year ago were 26,000. Mixed $5.75@6.20; heavy, $5.85@6.10; rough $5.35@7; light $5.80@6.25.

Cattle—steady.

Sheep—strong.

WHEAT CROP IS NOT DAMAGED

Unless Rains Continue Too Long Harvest Will Be Best in History.

Grain Crop Weather.

Eastern Oregon, eastern Washington and northern Idaho—Probable showers tonight; Saturday fair and warmer.

Illinois, Indiana and Missouri—Fair tonight; showers Saturday.

Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Montana—Showers; colder tonight and Saturday.

Kansas—Fair Saturday.

CHICAGO WHEAT VALUES.

Sept.	88⅝	88½	⅛	72⅝
Dec.	93¾	93¾	..	75
May	98⅝	98⅝	..	78⅞

While rains are generally expected in wheat belts of the Pacific northwest tonight, weather officials give hope for dry weather again with predictions of fair and warmer for Saturday. On no side is the wheat crop believed to be in any serious danger at this time, but all interests wish for a dry spell through harvest so the best crop in the history of the Pacific northwest can be harvested.

Very heavy buying of wheat is reported at interior points in the Pacific northwest during the past 24 hours and prices seem to be satisfactory to purchasers. However, no general selling is reported. A Pendleton paper says that 100,000 bushels have been purchased in that vicinity, 60,000 bushels being from Wild Horse growers at 69¾c.

Government Crop Report.

The government issued its crop report today. The condition in the United States shows:

Average condition of spring wheat August 1 was 79.4 per cent compared with 87.2 per cent July 1, 1907, 86.9 per cent August 1, 1906, 87.2 per cent August 1, 1905 and a 10 years' average of 83.4 per cent. Quality of winter wheat 90.5.

Corn condition August 1, 1907, 82.8 per cent, against 80.2 per cent July 1, 88.1 per cent August 1, 1906, 87.8 per cent July, 1906, 89.0 per cent August, 1905 and 87.3 per cent July 1905.

Oats condition August 1, 1907, 75.6 per cent against 83.8 per cent August, 1906, and 90.8 per cent August, 1905.

The report was bullish but had little effect upon price making in Chicago today.

FARM HANDS STRIKE FOR EIGHT HOURS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 9.—Farmers in the vicinity of Prescott and Bowles Junction have resisted a demand for an eight-hour day and as a result over 60 harvest hands, employed in that section have struck. Many of the strikers have left for the Palouse country where they expect to receive from $5 to $6 a day.

Farmers from the Prescott and Bowles districts were in Walla Walla yesterday looking for farm hands and were fairly successful in picking up men. Since the Farmers' Employment agency has gone out of business farmers are compelled to pick up men from the streets. This causes considerable loss in time. The employment agency was closed several days ago because some of the most prominent farmers of the valley refused to pay their dues, although they did not hesitate to visit the agency and get men whenever they needed them.

Sales of New Wheat.

Pendleton, Or., Aug. 8.—Though the wheat market has been quiet here so far this season, 100,000 bushels or more have already been sold. Of this the bulk was bought in the vicinity of Eastland by E. W. McComas, representative of the Northwestern Warehouse company. Within the past few days he has purchased 60,000 bushels from farmers of the Wild Horse country paying 69¾c per bushel.

There is a general sentiment this year for holding the wheat for a higher price, 75c being wanted, and thus far little contracting has been done.

The Byers mill of this city has secured about 40,000 bushels of new wheat.

Rains Delay Harvest.

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 9.—Harvesting all over the valley was brought to a standstill yesterday by a heavy downpour of rain which set in early in the forenoon and kept up throughout the day. The rainfall in the foothill districts was extremely heavy and it will be several days before the combines will be able to start up. In the Eureka flat and Touchet districts the rain was not so heavy, although machines were closed down. Unless showery weather continues for several days, farmers do not anticipate any damage to standing grain.

RAILWAY ENGINEER RUN OVER BY TRAIN

Howard Dexter Lies on the Track in the Northern Pacific Yards at Forsythe, Montana.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Forsythe, Mont., Aug. 9.—Howard Dexter, a freight engineer, was run over and killed late yesterday afternoon in the railroad yards here by a Northern Pacific passenger train. The engineer of the passenger says he saw an object on the track, but in the dim light he thought it was a dog, and it was not discovered until it was too late to stop the train, that it was the body of a man. No reason can be assigned why Dexter was on the track or his failure to hear the approaching train.

DAYTON-WALLULA LINE'S PROGRESS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 9.—E. B. Libby, formerly president of the Lewiston-Clarkston company, is expected to arrive in Walla Walla within a few days to take up the work of promoting the Columbia & Walla Walla Traction company's proposed line from Dayton to Wallula. The electric road has been surveyed and the necessary rights of way and depot facilities at Dayton, Waitsburg, Prescott and Wallula have been already secured. The company has already expended close to $15,000 in surveys and rights of way. The proposed line will touch Waitsburg, Dixie, Walla Walla and Touchet, ending at Wallula, where connection will be made with the Open River association's line of steamers.

Tomorrow is the last day to receive discount on west side gas bills.

PATIENTS TO ERECT ASYLUM BUILDING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Lewiston, Ida., Aug. 9.—Architect J. H. Nave of this city is working on plans for a handsome building for the administration department of the North Idaho Asylum for the Insane, at Orofino. Though the plans call for a building that under ordinary circumstances would cost $20,000, this will be erected at half that figure. The brick will be made, burned and laid by inmates of the institution and the carpentering will be handled along the same lines of economy. In many other details the inmates will build the structure, working under a skilled foreman.

WILL HAVE NO HOPS TO PICK, SAYS M'KINLEY MITCHELL

"The hopgrowers need not trouble themselves over the picking troubles this season, for the present outlook is that they will have no hops to pick."

Thus spoke McKinley Mitchell, a well-known local dealer, as well as grower, and whose opinions are generally taken as conservative.

"There is lice and honeydew everywhere in the heavy yards," he stated, "and this weather is causing the vermin to multiply with great speed. I was all through the Gervais, Woodburn, St. Paul and Brooks sections and have just returned from there. The man who says there is no lice or honeydew in that section is badly mistaken and has not taken a good view of conditions.

"The hops are just forming and the lice are going into the burs. This condition is more serious than any one would admit heretofore. Some of the vines are turning jet black."
