Frightened Residents Tell Tales of Ghostly Woman Who Robs Them of Bedclothes and Causes House to Rustle With Unearthly Sounds and Sighs.

A ghost that not only walks but runs; ened man's bed, the lady's spirit turned her mild gaze upon his startled countenance and then softly and quickly withdrew her ghostly form to start upon the city of Portland is causing no end on her rush to escape at the end of the house.

but she has not only heard the specter, the night to listen to the rushing foot-but she has visited him in the dead of beats of some spirit hurrying across the the night. Standing beside the fright-sfloor.

Rescinding of Bituminous Macadam Contracts by Council Causes Delay.

nediate improvement of East Morm street has been held up with a er of other streets on account of the failure of the Barber Auphalt comany to carry but its contracts and the on of the council yesterday in reiding the contracts held by that y. However, the property owners still have faith in the Barber As-ers still have faith in the Barber Asphalt company, and it is the plan to repetition for asphalt laid on a concrete base, as is being done in the Ladd tract for Hawthorns avenue. A guarantee that the work will be completed at an early date and that it will be as represented when completed will be required by the petitioners.

The paving company has given assurance that the asphalt on a concrete base will be satisfactory, and even assert that it will last five years longer than bitulithic or bituminous macadam. Furthermore, they promise that should the property owners prepare new petitions asking for this kind of improvement the work will begin at once. It will not be necessary for the city engineer to prepare new plans, for the same plans prepared for bituminous macadam will be satisfactory for the asphalt.

This improvement extends from East Seventh to Union avenue. A movement has been started also to secure the filling of the spillway under the street at East Third, by which the block north of East Morrison street was filled by the dredge this winter. Until this tunnel under the street has been filled and allowed to settle the section of the street below Union avenue cannot be paved next summer, as the plans of the property owners now provide.

It is likely that the action of rescinding the bituminous macadam contracts held by the Barber Asphalt company will also affect the Hawthorne avenue improvement, for which no contracts have been let, although the petition was granted over one year ago. Those property owners will also be compelled to adopt the asphalt improvement on the concrete base.

ALLEGED BUNCO MAN

leged bunco man, John Anderson, who was shot by Officer Joe Daniel in July, while attempting to escape arrest by running, died today at Sacred Heart hospital. Death was due to a sudden hemorrhage following the amputation of his injured leg.

Anderson was matching dollars with Walter Shier and Andrew Anderson when an officer demanded hands up. Anderson ran and was shot through the leg. He had $325.61 on him at the time. James Hopkins, Anderson's attorney, says his home is in Michigan. He refuses to tell where, as Anderson requested him not to do so. His mother is in Sweden, a sister is in Michigan and his father is dead. Hopkins denies Anderson was a bunco man. The police say he was known as the "lonesome Swede." They can be made of meat, fish or fowl, of various vegetables, and of cereals, and are more wholesome than many other fried foods, as the immersion of the egg-coated croquette into the hot fat quick'- hardens the surface and prevents the absorption of grease. An advantage of croquettes as a hot weather dish is that most of the work of preparation can be done early in the day, and the finishing for the noon or evening meal will then take but a few
