

TWO ALICES RE-LEAD IN JOURNAL CONTEST

Top Notchers Are Running Up Very Creditable Scores in Votes—Changes Brought About in Relative Standing of Competing Candidates in Districts.

The thirteenth count of ballots in The Journal educational contest is given here and the contestants are arranged in geographical districts in their relative order of standing. The total number of contest votes to the credit of every contestant is set down opposite to the name and address.

Contest district No. 1 comprises the Willamette valley except Multnomah county (which forms a district by itself) as far south as Eugene. Contestants in this district compete with one another and at the same time with all contestants in all parts of Oregon.

Corvallis and Dallas furnish contestants of unusual merit in The Journal's scholarship contest. The two towns contain three contestants who are striving for the scholarship in Dallas College. One boy is racing against two girls for the one prize which all covet.

Corvallis is dividing up its support between the boy and the two girls. Some people in Corvallis in the beginning, gave subscriptions to the girl of Dallas.

But now Corvallis and vicinity is backing Earl Heckart and Jennie Bowersox, the Corvallis candidates, and Dallas is supporting Alice Grant, the candidate of Dallas and Polk county.

Benton county outside of Corvallis is pretty well lined up for Miss Bowersox, who lives a few miles out of Corvallis on a farm. The farmers who know her and who are acquainted with her struggles for an education are her champions. Heckart, by his enterprise and good tact, secures subscriptions from many farmers, and Miss Bowersox has the support of some townspeople.

As between Earl Heckart and Miss Bowersox it has become a race to every prospective subscriber.

The total number of votes to the old adage, "The happy man's without a shirt," sounds shiftless nowadays. The more shirts the more variety, hence the happier is the man. Today and tomorrow your choice of 100 Negligee Shirts at 50c—they were a dollar each and are all of this season's make.

to defray their living expenses while attending school. These contestants are young people to enter the contest, and there is time for them to earn and win one or more of the awards.

The contest for the free trips to Alaska ends at midnight August 15. The party will leave Portland under the auspices of The Journal on August 16, and will sail from Seattle August 26. The contest for the scholarships continues into the first week in September. Contestants desire that patrons help them now by advancing payments on subscriptions in their favor.

William Russell, one of the most enterprising contestants in Multnomah county, spent a part of last week in a trip along the Willamette river for contest votes. He went up stream as far as Dayton. On his bicycle he covered about 80 miles of country roads and called at the farm houses.

this and other departments of newspaper work as a business. He wants to win a scholarship in a business college, as he realizes that to be properly equipped for the business and publishing business he should know something of bookkeeping and shorthand.

Hilda Brant secured the subscription of R. P. Graham of 305 Marquam building as soon as she asked for it. Mr. Graham feels friendly to the Educational contest plan as his nephew, Guy Graham of Troutdale, benefited by it last year.

Strange Story of Ten Stick Island. From Pearson's Weekly.

It was stated in parliament the other day that the New Hebrides belong to nobody.

Presumably, this curious statement meant, if it meant anything, that the islands belong to the New Hebrideans themselves.

But even this is not quite true. For although the French and British high commissioners, while expressly disclaiming ownership, exercise a joint control over the group by virtue of the Anglo-Franco convention of October, 1899.

There is nevertheless one small island which belongs outright to Great Britain—which is as much British soil as is, say, the Isle of Wight.

It is situated in South-West bay, Melville, 12 of which are considered the best place in the islands for target practice by the man-of-war patrolling the group, and this small islet was used as a target so frequent that it seemed in danger of being gradually shot away.

The chief who owned it protested, and wanted compensation. The captain of the man-of-war, who understood New Hebridean nature, knew that these claims would be a needless source of blackmail unless they were settled once for all; so he bought the island outright for the British crown, paying ten sticks of tobacco for it, which was then, has always been known as "Ten Stick Island," and is undoubtedly the smallest isolated bit of Britain existing on the surface of the globe.

The state committee of the Independence league of Massachusetts has decided to have a full state ticket in the field this fall.

SEARCHLIGHTS WILL THROW AWAY 20 MILES

Illumination of Niagara Falls Greatest Electrical Display Attempted.

(Journal Special Service.)
Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 12.—All preparations are about completed for the night illumination of Niagara Falls, regarded by engineers as the greatest feat ever attempted in electrical illumination. The scheme calls for nearly fifty large searchlights, several of them the largest of their kind and capable of throwing a beam of light a hundred miles.

It is planned now to turn on the illuminations for the first time next Thursday night. The work is in charge of the General Electric company, whose experts say that the rays of colored lights when flashed in the air will be visible at points as far distant as Toronto and Rochester.

SUICIDE CAUSED BY HIS WIFE'S POLITICS

Husband of Female Member of Finnish Parliament Takes His Life.

(Journal Special Service.)
Berlin, Aug. 12.—The first result of a new law admitting women in Finland as members of parliament has just been made known. A man committed suicide and before dying he wrote a letter to the police stating that he could not stand life any longer.

His wife neglected him and the home and he no longer had enough to eat. The husband of the new members of parliament, who have been so much talked of in Finland of late. She utterly neglected her wifely duties, she allowed her unfortunate husband out of her salary as legislator only a beggarly 2 cents a day to live upon.

South-West bay has always been thought by going begging, so he committed suicide as the only way out of the difficulty.

KAISER IS BUILDING SPEEDWAY FOR AUTOS

(Journal Special Service.)
Berlin, Aug. 12.—The kaiser, who is an ardent motorist, is having two tracks exclusively for automobiles, constructed through his estate of Schorheide.

He is convinced of the necessity of special roads for automobiles, separate from the ordinary highways, and is therefore spending a huge sum out of his own private purse on the Schorheide tracks, as an experiment and an example. They will be 23 miles in total length, 12 miles broad.

The paving will be of cement, laid as smoothly as a parquette floor. The expense of the track will be very heavy, as it will be cut through a forest.

MUSIC FESTIVAL WILL CONTINUE FOR MONTH

(Journal Special Service.)
Munich, Aug. 12.—Many visitors, including a considerable number of English and Americans, are here for the great Richard Wagner and Mozart festival, which began today and will continue until the middle of September.

Some of the most distinguished German operatic artists will be heard and the conductors include Messrs. Felix Mottl, Franz Fischer, Hugo Rohr and Schalk.

TOUGH MATCH TO TAFT BOOM

Secretary Will Begin His Own Campaign During Coming Week.

SPEECH AT COLUMBUS WILL BE KEYNOTE TALK

Political Address There to Be Open Challenge to Foraker Faction—Leaves Ohio to Invaade Missouri and Pacific Coast States.

(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, D. C., Aug. 12.—Secretary Taft returns to Washington today and will put in about a week disposing of the accumulated routine business in his department before starting on his trip west. It is probable that he will depart next Sunday for Columbus, Ohio, where he is slated to make a speech the following night before the Buckeye Republican club.

It is expected that this speech at Columbus will be the keynote of the Taft campaign and probably the most important political address of the summer. It will be an open challenge to the Foraker faction and a defiance of their obstructive tactics in Ohio. The secretary of war will answer the attacks on himself in connection with the tariff revision question, will defend the position of the administration with respect to the Brownsville affair and appeal to the voters as the representative of the policies of President Roosevelt.

After leaving Columbus the next important stopping place of Secretary Taft will be Louisville, where he has promised to speak the following Thursday. Two days later he will address the Republican rally at Oklahoma City, preliminary to the statehood election. The next week he will carry the campaign into Missouri, speaking at Joplin and Springfield, Lincoln, Nebraska, the home of William J. Bryan, is next on the Taft itinerary. All arrangements for the trip farther west have not yet been completed, but announcements have already been made that Secretary Taft will speak in Denver, Portland, Tacoma and probably several other cities before sailing from Seattle, September 10, for the Philippines.
