Teams Hit Equally Well, But Beavers' Errors Are More Costly.

CALIFF IS KNOCKED OFF MOUNTAIN AGAIN

Baron Shrimp Schimpff Takes His Place and Does Well, But Is Poor ly Supported-Mott Hits Well and Throws Wild-Notes of the Game

San Francisco 8, Portland 5.

It was an old-fashioned swatfest, in which the Beavers did not come out and best by any means, but in which, nehow, the other fellows succeeded in landing a large majority of runs. It was the same old story-errors at a had time.

Mott, to the glad surprise of him self and the fans, got his eye on the ball and lined out a couple of safeties. But when Mott hits well he throws wild. At least the coincidence was repeated yesterday. Twice he sent the leather low at critical times and each time it meant at least one more run for the visitors. Mot's hits did less good than his errors did harm, for neither of the hits counted in the run-making.

Slugging Begins Early.

The game started with Jones and Ca-liff on the firing line and both teams be-gan their slugging early. Spencer, first up, put a three-bagger past Burdette, but two lucky plays by Fay and a high fly by Wheeler retired the side. By by Wheeler retired the side. Bassey hit against the right-field fence for three bass in the second half and scored on a foozle by Wheeler. Hits by Esola and Strelb and Mott's wild throw of Henley's grounder tied the score. Then Califf went into the air and walked two in succession, forc-ing another one over.

ing another one over. In the third Califf soaked Irwin and after Williams and Esola were put out Streib singled and Henley doubled and both Streib and Irwin registered at the home station. That made the score 4 to 1, and Califf was very properly put out of the game.

Atherton Makes Timely Hit.

Casey. Burdette and Bassey all beat out short shouts, filling the bases with-out an out. Donahue hit a short one and Casey was retired at the plate. Then atherton came up with his first timely hit in ages and ages. It was a right field fly for two bases and scored both Bassey and Burdette. Fay was walked and both Oswald and Mott went out on dinky fouls, the side being retired with-out a tie.

Then he walked Jones and the bases were The walked Jones and the bases were filled by scratch hits by Spencer and Wheeler, Hildebrand hit one past Casey and Spencer tallied. Wheeler and Hildebrand then pulled off a double steal and the figures were 7 to 3. In the seventh, with two out, Dona-hue and Bassey rang the bell again on a double steal.

Joe Tyler, Who Will Now Try for Tennis Championship of Pacific Coast States.

JOE TYLER STRIPS PAYNE OF INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 16.—Joe Ty-lor, the 19-year-old racket wonder, of Seattle, is now tennis champion of Ore-gon, of the Pacific northwest and of the Northwest International association Yesterday he added the third title to his mame by defeating Frank Payne, of Tacoma, in three sets out of four. Last year Payne won both the north-west, and international championships. Tyler being his stronger, faster and more learned in the game this year and suc-ceeded in carrying everything before him. After his victory he announced that he would try for the Pacific states championship, which will be contested for the first week in September, at Dei Monte, California. Three of the five sets played between Tyler and Payne in the final of the in-ternational tournament yesterday went

Twenty-eight young people of the east side, who for various reasons pre-fer to spend their vacations in Port-land, rather than elsewhere, have or-ganized a tennis club for the purpose of whiling away the long summer evenings. Mrs. R. L. Hawthorne has been kind enough to give the club the use of Hawthorne Park, and a splendid hard surface court has been constructed in the park, at the corner of East Twelfth and Hawthorne avenue. More courts will be constructed as the club grows; and a more beautiful place could hardly be found for the pur-suit of this delightful sport than un-der the great trees in the park, familiar to all east siders. The entire park has recently been closed to the public, and the club considers itself very fortunate to have secured such beautiful pounds. It is expected that more members will be added from year to year, and that eventually a large club will peult. The infant organization has been named the Hawthorne Tennis club, since the mem-bers are all from Hawthorne addition. MOUNTED BROADSWORD CONTEST IN PROSPECT

A novelty in sports in Portland is soon to be put on, in the shape of a mounted broadswords contest, the prin-ciples to be Carl Nelson, a member of the National Guard, and Major R. F. Reid, of Philadelphia. Articles of agree-ment have been signed by the pair, but the place and date have not yet been fixed. The affair is to be under the auspices of Company F, and it is re-ported that over $1,960 has already been wagered on Nelson by his friends. Representing the National Guard or-ganization at the meeting of arrange-ments were Captain W. B. Odale, Lieu-tenant L. E. Grouch and Corporal C. T. Alden, the latter having been selected as manager of the contest. Alex. Smith, manager of Reid, and F. B. Shank, ap-earing in the same capacity for Nelson, subscribed their names to the articles as witnesses. The men are to battle for 50 per cent of the gross receipts and are to furnish their own mounts. Major Reid claims to be the champion broadswordsman of the United States and Canada, and is many years the senior of his opponent. He has appeared in every city of any size in North America durings the past two decades and has defeated all comers. Nelson lays claim to being the champion of the News of the breakdown of Richard Croher's Derby winner Orby has been received with much regret by the entire horse-racing world. It is hoped that the great colt will come back to form before the end of the season. In fact, Dr. McCabe, his trainer, is confident he will, but the best opinion is that it will be a good while before Orby races again. I am assured of one thing, that Mr. Croker will not permit him to be sent to the post until he is thoroughly fit. The British turf is beginning to wake up to the fact that the former Tammany boss has some other pretty good horses boss has some other pretty good horses which are likely to win big races.

The king's colors are again showing in front at the races, and it really looks as though the luck had turned for his as though the luck had turned for his majesty. For several years the king has not won out, but this season he has a likely looking string of youngsters, some of which already have won some races, and unless all signs fail will win many more. It is hardly likely that his majesty will be among the leading win-ners at the end of the season, but he will not be at the tail end, as he has been of late.

Of course everybody who is anybody has been at Cowes, this week. Next to the Derby this is the great sporting function for society. With the king and practically all the royal family who could possibly go on land, all social England and all America now in Eng-land went to Cowes. The racing, while good, had no special feature.

I learn that the plans for Shamrock IV are practically complete, and Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge for another American cup race is all but written. He will not send it, however, until the last moment permitted by the rules, as he sees no particular reason to give his friends, the enemy, any more time for preparation than is absolutely necessary.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Six hits for Burdette in three games! Pretty good. In those three games the new fielder has been to bat just 12 times, so his average is .500.

Fay saved himself from error twice in the first inning yesterday by recov-oring the ball after a muff in time to put out a runner. Hildebrand hit him a fly, which he dropped. It would have counted against the shortstop, but Spen-cer, who was on third, tried to run home and Fay grabbed the sphere and shot it to Donahue in time to nab the runner. In the other case Fay dropped Irwin's grounder and the runner was safe, but Hildebrand .ried to go home on the muff and Fay recovered the ball and threw in time to catch the Seal between the third sack and the plate, Streib, the new Seal from the Califorstreth, the new Seal from the Califor-nia state league, is proving himself one of the fastest infielders on the coast. Several times already this week he has gathered in grounders that looked mighty safe when they left the bat. Oswald, Portland's new first baseman, did not do so well yesterday. While his performance in the field would about average up with that of Atherton or Pokorny, he looks like an even poorer hitter than either of them. Yesterday he was at bat four times, each time be-ing retired on a baby fly. He doesn't swing on the ball with enough vim to hurt it, even if he should happen to hit it square in the eye.

state regulation. A road much used by motorists in driving from Philadelphia to the seadriving from Philadelphia to the sea-coast resorts of southern New Jersey is to be improved at lits worst stretch by the expenditure of $75,000 by New Jersey county authorities. Motorists of Chester county, Penn-sylvania, will organize, with a view to establishing amicable relations with local magistrates and constables, and will contribute annually toward the maintenance of highways which they use. Groom and Willis are scheduled twirl the ladies' day game.

Jack Huston, scout extraordinary for the St. Louis Nationals, left for the east last night. His next stopping place will be within the Western league circuit, where he will try and find tal-ent to the satisfaction of the Robisons. The only man Huston thought anything of was Jack Bliss of the Oaklands, but he didn't pay any $2,500 for him. Speak-ing of Bliss, Huston said that he had the making of a good man and he was of the opinion that Bliss was as good as Chande was when he first went into the big brush.--San Francisco Chronicle. use.

maintenance of highways which they use. As the rules governing the Herkomer trophy require that event to be run in Great Britain for the next three years. German motorists already are arrang-ing for a somewhat similar contest to take its place in their country. It is now believed that one of the three men who were thrown from a car in Paris along with a young woman and about whom the police have thrown a veil of mystery, is a prince of one of the German ruling houses. "Hurry up Lally," New York deputy fire chief, made a downright Vander-bilt cup race dash while speeding in his runabout to the recent Coney Island fire, making a little more than 10 miles in a shade less than 16 minutes. As a result of the introduction of American methods, Londoners are begin-ning to hustle. Motor conductors, it is gravely said, "cannot afford to tarry and many of the younger business men at full speed." It has now developed that when the automobile of the German empress rai Rube Waddell, the famous pitcher, is all but down and out. Waddell always was unmanageable and intemperate. If he hadn't been the Los Angeles team of the Coast league would never have had him as an altraction, as it did for some months four or five years ago. A dispatch from Philadelphia says that Waddell has just been on another long debauch and throws away a game ev-ery time he pitches. The dispatch says that the home fans are thoroughly dis-gusted and would rather see their club finish the season second without Wad-dell than first with him. It has now developed that when the automobile of the German empress re-cently broke down and she was forced to seek refuge in a tavern, her royal highness was chaffed unmercifully by loungers, who little dreamed of her iden-tity.

Good Horses at Auction. (Journal Special Service.) Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Many cele-brated racing horses are on the list to be sold at an auction which opens here today. The horses are 21 in number and make up the string of C. E. Durnell, the chief figure in the greatest plung-ing stable of the turf. Durnell for some time has been a partner of John W. Gates. Since Mr. Gates went abroad things have not gone well with the firm and Durnell has decided to dis-pose of the stable and go to England. The prominence of some of the horses to be disposed of led to marked interest in the occasion and a number of well-known horsemen, were present at the opening of the sale. (Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, Aug. 16.—There is a well-confirmed rumor that Jack Huston has bagged two more Pacific Coast leaguers. Heine Heitmuller and Cravath are the two whose names are linked with the eastern scout who has been watching with a critical eye the dia-mond performances of the chasers of the leather-covered sphere. Both of these outfielders are chunky individuals who tip the beam in a heavyweight class. As Huston has more than once declared, "The free swinging swatters are the ones that the big league man-agers want," the fact that Heine and Cravath both slam the ball on the pro-boscis with terrific force and a sweep-ing motion that carries their entire weight behind the swing made a favor-able impression on Huston.
