LOSE LIVES SAVING BOY

Instructors at California Military School Drown in Bay While Trying to Rescue Cadet Overcome by Fight With Waves.

(Journal Special Service.) San Mateo, Aug. 16.—At the cost of their lives, Professor G. W. Smith and Professor John T. Brooks of Brewster Military academy here yesterday afternoon in an effort to save a drowning pupil. The two teachers and the pupil, Clarence Dell of San Francisco, were drowned.

Yesterday young Dell out of a large crowd was the first in the water and he struck out for a raft some distance away. When some distance out he was heard to call for help. Professor Smith immediately jumped into the water, clothing and all, and started to the rescue of the pupil. He reached him but owing to his waterlogged clothing was unable to bring him ashore. He in turn called for help and Professor Brooks dived into the water and struck out for the pair. All were exhausted with their fight against the angry breakers, however, and went down before any further assistance could be sent them.

BAR ASSOCIATION OF MAINE PLANS SESSION

(Journal Special Service.) Portland, Me., Aug. 16.—The omnibus of the speakers and the timeliness of the subjects scheduled for discussion combine to give promise of an unusually interesting meeting when the American Bar association comes to Portland the latter part of this month for its thirtieth annual convention.

The sessions will last three days and will be followed by the twenty-fourth conference of the International Law association. The Association of American Law Schools will meet at the same time and there will be sessions also of the sections on patent, trademark and copyright law. The several meetings will attract between four and five hundred of the best known lawyers and jurists of America with a score or more of legal authorities from abroad.

Two of the important features of the American Bar association meeting will be the president's address by Alton H. Parker of New York and the annual address to be delivered by Right honorable James Bryce, the British ambassador.

Judge Charles F. Amlund of North Dakota will speak on "The Nation and the Constitution," and Charles A. Prouty of the interstate commerce commission will be heard on "A Department of Railways; Its Legal Necessity."

TEXAS BOOSTERS MEET AT EL PASO TO TALK

(Journal Special Service.) El Paso, Texas, Aug. 16.—"Boost Texas" is the slogan of the hundreds who gathered here today in attendance on the meeting of the Texas Elve Million club. Delegations, many of them accompanied by bands, are on hand from San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Beaumont, Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Sherman and numerous other cities throughout the state. The delegates will spend two days in discussing ways and means to increase the population of Texas, attract immigration and otherwise aid in the industrial development. The local commercial organizations have made great preparations for the entertainment of the visitors.

WHY FRENZ AND WORRY

when your child has a severe cold. You need not fear pneumonia or other pulmonary diseases. Keep supplied with Ballard's Horehound Syrup—a positive cure for colds, coughs, whooping cough and bronchitis. Mrs. Hall of Sioux Falls, S. D., writes: "I have used your wonderful Ballard's Horehound Syrup on my children for five years. Its results have been wonderful. Sold by all druggists."

SWIFTWATER BILL WINS LARGE POT

Notorious Alaskan Sits in Fierce Game of Draw Poker at Reno.

(Journal Special Service.) Reno, Aug. 16.—A fierce game of poker occurred at Hazen last evening. Thousands of dollars changed hands during the progress of the game. The stakes were high and at one time $20,000 in a pot was raked in by "Swiftwater Bill" of Alaska fame. There were others equally as game. McCartney, a prominent mining man of La Tush Island, Alaska; a wholesale liquor merchant of Covington, Kentucky; Gray, a mining engineer of prominence; a representative of the O. R. T., and a well known caterer of New York occupied seats. Twenty dollar gold pieces were used as freely as if the game was penny ante and it was a common thing to see $10,000 in a pot.

REQUISITION ISSUED FOR JAMES CAMPBELL

Salem, Aug. 16.—A requisition was today issued from the governor's office for the arrest of James Campbell for whom a warrant has been issued in this state on the charge of burglary. It was charged that he entered a saloon at Burns, Oregon, belonging to the Harney Valley Brewing company, and took a ring valued at $25. He fled and took refuge in Washington.

BOY IN DANGER OF THE REFORM SCHOOL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Aug. 16.—Godell Seaborg, considered almost an incorrigible, is in danger of the reform school. The latest offense charged is the opening and spilling of a quantity of oil in the North Aberdeen shingle mill. The oil ran upon and ruined a heavy and valuable belt. A companion named McGraw is charged with him. He is on the truant list at school, and has been charged with petty larceny. His father has deserted his family, and his mother supports herself and child by taking in washing. His mother pleaded so hard that Judge Fox, while declaring him guilty of the charge against him, deferred sentence.

MAYOR FRANCE MEANT TO LID ALL ALONG

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Aug. 16.—Mayor France is showing that he means business in the matter of Sunday closing, by quietly going around to the various saloons of the city and giving them notice that they must not keep open on Sunday. The mayor has frequently remarked that he is not in favor of the saloon business, and that he would be glad to see them closed. He was interesting himself in getting the dance-halls to close their doors and go out of business, when the ill-advised interference of outside parties put a stop to his plans. He has always said that he would close the saloons when he thought the time was ripe; and he is now keeping that promise. It is thought that the order will be obeyed without any protest.
