Clatsop Beach

Seaside, Or., Aug. 17 .- The week-and rowds are larger this season than ever before and every incoming train on Saturday is crowded. Riding on the beach, nge in the surf and taking in the nents on the Shell Road are some things which are done by those ust down over Sunday. The uninitiated be tempted to think there would left at the beach when the train pulls out for Portland Sunday evening, but a glance at the crowds vending their way home later proves this a mistake.

The battery is trying the new guns and much interest is taken by the beach people in the morning target prac-tice. The target is near Tillamook Head and the four battery guns are placed in position about half a mile above Facine plac. The shooting last Friday started with percussion shrapnel, the range was found, in four rounds, to be 5.450 and after firing several rounds time shrapnel the fuse was found at if. Then the battery opened fire in earnest, firing at 15-second intervals. Captain Welch and the lieutenants in charge were much encouraged by the good work of the boys. On Saturday the guns were moved to a point just be-low the pier and Monday they were sta-tioned still farther down the beach near the mouth of the Necanicum. The great number of people at the different hotels makes it very pleasant and there are always two or three carf tables in use. Bridge and five hundred are the games par excellence, especi-ally with the women. As there is gener-ally some one who sings, the svenings may be spent inside very enjoyably by hose who find the beach too cold after unders. The young people enjoy the Wednes-G.,

The young people enjoy the Wednes-ay and Esturday night dances and here are always a number of private lancing parties given at the Octagon avilion during the week. Just now the khaki suits of the sol-lier boys are much in evidence, espe-faily at the dances, and on the Shell load during the evening. The sumsets have been extremely eautiful this week and every evening eople go out on the pler and down on he beach to see the gorgeous effect on ky and water.

being residents of some inland town or city. However, the popularity of this beach is not confined to residents of in-terior towns, but its many attractions have been so heraided abroad, that at the present time, every available cot-tage, almost every room in every hotel is filled, and the hundreds of people enjoying life at North Beach, have come from almost every state in the union. The fine surf bathing, the wonderfully smooth hard beach, and the bracing climate are always the chief topics of conversation among the new arrivals. An eastern visitor made the remark that the flowers on this beach were particularly stractive, and a Portlander who is accustomed to flowers in abund-ance, made a trip down the beach with the castern man and was amased to find flowers of all descriptions and kinds growing in wild profusion. Nas-turtiums, sweet peas, geraniums, old fashloned holly hocks, marigold, many kinds of yines make the lawns around the cottages, particularly pleasing and furnish gorgeous bouquets for interior decorations. The say social life at the beach is also a subject of comment among the new arrivals, but as strangers are al-ways cordially welcomed, the comments are always pleasing. Bivals Eastern Zesorts.

Rivals Basters Resorts. This week at the Breakers has been the gayest on record and the number of smart affairs given have rivalled tha society events of any eastern summer resort. The affairs given have been very original, very dressy and vastly en-tertaining. The older people have been enter-tained by a series of partles which have been most enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. Rothchild were hosts at an impromptu tamale supper which was one of the Tancy Dress Ball. The fancy dress ball on Tuesday was the most brilliant, striking, unique affair of the whole season, and to say that it was a grand success, but feebly expresses the keen enjoyment and per-fect satisfaction fell by the entertain-ers, and those who were so originally entertained. The hall room was a per-fect kaleidoscope of colors and some of the costumes worn were beautiful enough to grace the most distinguished assemblage. Miss Maud Howell was a perfect Carmen, and her most striking brunatte beauty was greatly enhanced by her charming costume. Miss Emil Rothchild was very jaunty in a stun-ning masculine riding costume, and Miss May Rosenhaupt carried off all honors for daintiness in a pale green beauty to perfection. Miss Ines Barrett was a quaint colonial maid and Miss How made the hit of the evening as Topy.

Howe made the hit of the evening as Topsy. There were many Japanese maidens, French maidens, flower girls, cow girls, and some of the younger girls were perfect pictures in baby costumes. Jack Howell carried off honors as a Spanish cavalier, and was one of the most distinguished looking characters on the floor. Mr. Charles Loedding and Samuel Friedman were stim-ning girls in bathing costumes, and Mr. Myron Arnson was the society girl personified in a gorgeous Parls gown of cream lace. Edward Jefferr was a most coy and cunning maid, in pink and
