Because pretty Luciis Hawley, a had occasion to enter the German beer faithful worker in the ranks of the hall last night. She had hardly passed hall last night. She had hardly passed through the swinging doors when Ba-ker rushed from behind the bar and grabbing her roughly by the arm ordored her from the place. "We con't want any bergars in here," brutally declared the bartender, as he shook and showed the little woman to-ward the door. "Dear sir," tremblingly exclaimed the frightened girl, unused to such treat-ment. "Why can't you treat me de-cently 7" Volunteers of America, had the temerity to enter the notorious saloon known as the Deutsche Bier Keller, 24 North scond street, last night, to solicit contributions to carry on the charitable work of the organization, August Baker, bartender employed in the place, made a brutal and unprovoked attack on the religious worker with the result that he cently ?" landed in the city prison this morning on a charge of assault and battery.

marital troubles in which he is smmeshed. That the family expected some such trouble, if not the application for a divorce by the beautiful Mrs. McKee, Jr., formerly Cornelia Baxter Tevis, of California, was indicated by the fact that the parent of the young man was already on the ocean before the public learned of the estrangement in Paris. When the beautiful daughter of the late Dr. R. S. Sutton asked for a divorce from the rick young McKee, the father of the wife, but took a firm stand at the side of his son. Humiliated and mortified by her ex-perience Miss Hawley returned to the home of her brother-in-iaw. Adjutant John T. Joulkes, 20 East Sixth street north, and told him of the matter. Ac-companied by Foulkes she went to the saloon this morning to demand an apol-ogy, but was bluntly told that there was nothing to spologize for, and was again ordered from the place. Clerk Frank D. Hennessy was notified of the matter and upon complaint of the syoung woman issued a warrant for the strest of Baker on a charge of as-sault and battery. The arrest was made by Detective Hellyer and in default of 100 cash ball the fellow was looked up in the city prison. Judge Cameron will hear the case Monday morning and in view of all the circumstances Baker is likely to be severely dealt with.

To Have Four Sections, Devoted to Hotel, Office, Warehouse and Cold Storage Uses.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 17 .- Tacoma Id to have a 24-story building that will cost $6,000,000. A permit for the structure was granted by Building Inspector. Sherman yesterday afternoon to A. P. Gillies of the Imperial Development company. It will be of mammoth proportions to correspond with its great height, having a frontage of 100 feet and being 415 feet deep. It will be constructed on the side of the bluff, reaching from C street down to the level of the wharves and the Halfmoon railroad yards. The top ten stories of the building will be a hotel of 1,000 rooms. Beneath the hotel two stories will be devoted to offices and business. The next six stories going downward will be constructed for warehousing.

There it is stated that the tie-up is just as complete now as it has been since Monday last and that it will con-tinue to be so far as local conditions are concerned. There is no dissatis-faction or defection in the ranks of the union and all the men are lined up solidly for a finish fight. The Federated Trades council has ex-tended an invitation to the operators' union to state its grievances and last night this was done at a meeting of the council. The executice committee of the council has been directed to keep in touch with the operators and lend every assistance possible pending the time when the operators can elect dele-sate to the council which will be done at the earliest opportunity. Taken as a whole there is no changen with the local eye. The strikers are holding their own today and are confi-dent of success. The company officials are smiling but not doing much busi-ness and the great majority of the keys are silent. Associated Frees Apology. MILK CONDENSERY
