

INSANE OVER LOVE OF GIRL

A. C. Fosdick Broods Over Dismissal From Company of Pretty Bessie Purdy and Threatens to Kill Himself. Lands in County Jail.

Denied the friendship of Miss Bessie Purdy, a pretty 18-year-old girl, and her relatives, A. C. Fosdick, aged 40 years, was lodged in the county jail yesterday afternoon on a charge of insanity caused by brooding over the girl. Miss Purdy's mother is a cousin of Fosdick's wife, from whom he is separated. For a long time Fosdick lived at the Purdy home.

Fosdick's attention to the girl at last became so noticeable that she objected to them and endeavored to avoid him. Fosdick noticed this, it is said, and informed the family that he had a revolver and if he were to lose their friendship he would end it all.

Alarmed at this statement, not knowing whether Fosdick intended to harm himself or both himself and the girl, Miss Purdy's parents reported the matter to Deputy District Attorney Gus C. Moser, who came to Fosdick. Friday Fosdick appeared at Moser's office and told his story, but said he had only meant that he would kill himself if the Purdy's deserted him. Moser told Fosdick to return to the office again yesterday and in the meantime asked Sheriff Stevens to watch Fosdick and to take him to his office at the time Fosdick should come.

When Fosdick returned yesterday afternoon, Moser was convinced that he was insane and told Deputy Sheriff Bulger, who was on hand, to take him into custody. Fosdick showed fight and Bulger placed handcuffs on him. Then Fosdick begged Bulger to get past his room and get a 25-caliber revolver, which Bulger refused to do. Fosdick wears a picture of Miss Purdy on a string around his neck and refuses to part with it. He says he merely wants her as a friend and does not want to marry her. He will be examined as to his sanity by the alienists Monday.

ZIMMERMAN PLANT MUST REMAIN SHUT

Health Department to Stick to Prosecution Until Nuisance is Abated.

The question of whether or not it is legal to run a packing plant within the city limits will be thoroughly threshed out in the municipal court Tuesday morning when the case of Louis Zimmerman and his Portland abattoir is brought up for a hearing.

Mr. Zimmerman was arrested some days ago for conducting a packing plant and slaughtering house within the city limits contrary to the city ordinances. He was first notified to cease operations at his plant but failed to heed the warning of the city health department and was arrested. He then put up the defense that he had been granted the right to operate such a plant by the city council some years ago.

It is contended by the health department and Milton W. Smith, the special prosecutor, that this ordinance which has been evoked was repealed several years ago and that therefore the Zimmerman plant has no legal right to be in operation.

According to Mr. Smith the health department will stick to the prosecution and will see to it that the nuisance is abated. It is stated that after the trial of Tuesday next the proprietor of the plant will be arrested each day that he attempts to conduct the place in active operation and will be prosecuted for each separate offense.

SCHILZONYI GIVEN HANDSOME MEDAL

Leader of Hussar Band Recipient of Gold Emblem Tendered by Admirers.

After the last concert played at the Oaks by the Hungarian Hussar band last night the leader, Niklas Schilzonyi, was presented with a handsome gold medal by a number of the patrons of the Oaks. The medal was purchased by subscription and the plan was kept a secret until the moment of the presentation.

On one side of the medal is a raised lyre and on the reverse side is engraved: "Presented to Niklas Schilzonyi by many admirers of the Hungarian Hussar band. The Oaks, 1907, Portland, Oregon."

Manager D. C. Freeman of the Oaks made a short presentation speech, and when presented with the medal Schilzonyi was nearly overcome with emotion. He expressed his gratitude to the crowd in a few words.

"Wearing a hat more a habit than anything else and probably descended to us from our feudal ancestors, who wore steel helmets to prevent being knocked in the head by their warring neighbors," said Mr. Schilzonyi. "I reached the conclusion some time ago that a hat was burdensome and was not worn one summer or winter for over three years. I find that my health is improved and that my hair, which was inclined to fall out, is now as thick as in my younger days. I am not endeavoring to pose as an arbiter of fashion nor am I the leader of a new cult, but so far as I am personally concerned, no hat for me."

Tuesday, the 20th, will be the last day to receive discount on east side gas bills.

The newly organized unions of industrial insurance agents of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey have formed an international union. It will ask for a charter from the American Federation of Labor.

PURE FOOD SHOW WILL BE HUMMER THIS YEAR

A Thousand and One Attractions in Matter of Exhibits, Amusements and Entertaining Features Being Arranged For—Fully 700 Exhibitors to Take Part.

Preparations being made for the pure food show to be held in the exposition building for two weeks, beginning September 2, give evidence that the Portland exhibition, which is the first since the passage of the pure food law, will eclipse any previous display of its kind ever held in the country.

A thousand and one different attractions in the matter of exhibits, amusements and entertaining features are being arranged for the two weeks' season.

Charles B. Merrick.

Charles B. Merrick, manager of the pure food show, and special entertainments will be arranged for the different nights which will be given over to the Woodmen, Elks, traveling men, jobbers, manufacturers and numerous other organizations.

The exhibit so far as possible will be a display of "made in Oregon" products and local firms will be encouraged to make every possible effort in arranging an exposition of their wares. Outside firms, however, will also be invited to take part.

Feature Electrical Display. It is the intention to make the electrical display one of the finest ever seen west of the Rockies, and electricity will also be used in furnishing the attractive features of the sewing machine room, the electric laundry, kitchen and other novelties.

There is to be a bread baking contest, a Chinese baby show, in addition to the regular exhibit of infants, a colored baby show, and special entertainments which will be arranged for the different nights which will be given over to the Woodmen, Elks, traveling men, jobbers, manufacturers and numerous other organizations.

finding their way on the program, and the scores of individual exhibits will be as interesting as it is possible for human ingenuity to make them.

Exhibitors by Hundreds. Altogether it is expected that not less than 700 exhibitors will have booths in the big exposition building and this number includes both the 400 Portland retail grocery firms and some 300 out-of-town firms and corporations who have good food to sell to the epicures.

The floor space which will be utilized in Portland, is 94 by 150 feet and with the exception of Detroit and Kansas City, this is the largest exposition room in the country. Needless to add, that every inch will be used in gay and attractive decorations and allotments are being made at the headquarters of the Retail Grocers' association in the Alisky building as rapidly as they can be accommodated.

Only one trouble so far has confronted Managers Dean and Merrick, who have the bulk of the business relative to the exhibit to look after, and that is a scarcity of young women demonstrators. An application to occupy a place in any one of the booths is equivalent to securing the position, and both managers and anxious that more respond to the call for help. Experienced demonstrators, of course, are the most desirable.

LABOR DAY SEPTEMBER 2

Portland Laboring Men Will Hold Big Celebration in Rose City Next Month—Gov. Chamberlain and Mayor Lane Will Speak.

Labor day will be celebrated this year by the labor organizations, September 2—two weeks away. Preparations are about completed for a big celebration, including a parade in the morning and a general big time at the Lewis and Clark fair grounds in the afternoon. Many features have been secured that will make the day one of the most successful ever celebrated in Portland.

The league baseball grounds have also been secured for match games between the Federated Trades and the Building Trades. The Oregon and Oriental buildings have been secured and will be prepared for entertainment. There will be acrobatic performances, high wire walking, Professor Dolan, the Swiss wonder, will perform on the big dome of the Agricultural building.

Governor Chamberlain has been invited to speak and may be present. Mayor Harry Lane and Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger will be on the program, and perhaps William H. Taft, secretary of war. Should Mr. Taft's plans throw his visit a few days ahead of the announced schedule, he will be in this city to celebrate Labor day. He is scheduled to arrive September 1, but may be here as early as September 1.

In the morning there will be an immense parade in which all the union men of the city will take part. There will also be floats and prizes will be awarded to bring out special effort in this line. A balloon ascension will be held at the fair grounds in the afternoon.

The committee now has given up all hope of securing Clarence Darrow of Chicago, the attorney who so successfully defended Haywood. It was thought Mr. Darrow would be able to come to Portland, but he has gone east and may not return before September.

Lid in Snake River Country.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., Aug. 17.—D. J. Winslow, manager of the Ox Bow Power company, has secured the arrest of four salmonmen who operate stands on the Snake river and who persist in keeping open on Sunday.

Gussie Lashaw, who possesses a remarkable baritone voice, will be an additional attraction.

J. W. Dean and C. B. Merrick are losing no time in completing final arrangements for the show. They stated last night that Portland was working to considerable advantage over other cities where similar exhibits have been held, inasmuch as there are two whole weeks in which to build the booths. In other cities four days has generally been the limit. The doors here will be opened the first day with every detail in readiness for the two weeks' entertainment.

EVIDENCE HEARD IN SALOON CASE

Justice Reid Listens to Argument Against St. Johns Liquor Seller.

CASE FINALLY TAKEN UNDER ADVICE

Allegation is That Saloon Was Open on Sunday and That Man Was Served Liquor, Although Deputies Failed to Arrest Latter.

Justice Reid of the Portland justice district listened to the evidence and the argument of attorneys yesterday afternoon in the case of Louis Richards of St. Johns, who was arrested last Sunday by Deputy Sheriffs Jones and Proebstel on a charge of keeping his saloon open Sunday. Evidence was meagre. The judge took the case under advisement until Monday.

Deputy Jones appeared against Richards and said on the witness stand that he saw a man in Richards' place drinking last Sunday. This was seen through a window and after some delay they were allowed to enter the saloon through a side door, where were Richards and his bartender, but the man during the delay had escaped through a third door.

The attention of the deputies was first attracted to the saloon when they saw F. W. Valentine, the postmaster at St. Johns, leaving the saloon by the side door by which the deputies afterwards entered and arrested Richards. Deputy Jones believes that Richards has kept his saloon open every Sunday since the order was given to close saloons, selling liquor to certain customers who could be trusted.

Richards admits that he opens his saloon every Sunday morning, but for the purpose of cleaning it out. He said on the stand that Valentine entered to talk over baseball matters last Sunday while the side door was inadvertently left unlocked while he (Richards) went to get a hose for cleaning out the place. He denies that anybody was drinking in the place, but said there was a third man in there whom he said was the porter.

Bert Haney, deputy prosecuting attorney, argued that this porter should have been brought as a witness, for he was the only man who could acquit Richards by his evidence. However, Richards said the porter had quit his job and could not now be found, for he did not know his name.

George J. Perkins appeared as Richards' attorney and argued for a dismissal of the case on the grounds that the evidence was insufficient to prove the saloon was open in the legal sense. Richards was among those found guilty for the first violation of the law on the first Sunday. Deputy Jones says he has been compelled to follow this case himself, receiving very little help from the sheriff's office.

Farmer Killed Under Binder.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., Aug. 17.—Warren Pollet, a farmer of the Cricket Flat country, above Elgin, was found dead yesterday afternoon under a binder on his place. He had evidently got under the machine to make some repairs and the team had dragged it over him. He was 60 years of age.
