 Marble Statuary, French Vases, Haviland China, Ornamental Brics-a-Brac, several lines for fall now on display.

There's insistent imperative need for quick selling now. We are right at the threshold of fall business. Immense shipments crowd our basement to overflowing, and summer stocks must be swept from the shelves to make room for autumn merchandise, of which we will have more to say later. Plain facts set to pleasing figures speak eloquently here of our need for room. In nearly every department in the house bargains of unusual merit greet the shopper who comes to trade money for merchandise, and these small prices are on regular, sterling grades that have made this house synonymous with quality. And better than any of the lots here mentioned are the other lines which are so few that they must go unadvertised. Take this advertisement as a promise of what you will find, and come expecting more. You will find much more.
